

VIRGINIA: IN THE JUVENILE AND DOMESTIC RELATIONS DISTRICT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX

ORDER

Effective July 1, 2021, pursuant to the provisions of VA Code §19.2-354, §19.2-354.1, §19.2-358, and Supreme Court Rule 1:24, this Court authorizes the clerk to approve Payment Agreements in accordance with the following established guidelines approved by the court.

At any time during an agreement, a defendant may request a modification of the agreement in writing on the DC-211. Modifications may be granted based on good faith showing of need.

All delinquent accounts, 91 days or older, are reported and sent to collection, at which time a fee of 17% is assessed.

Payments may be made in person, by phone or on-line. A 4% fee is charged if a credit card or debit card is used to make a payment.

Community Service in Lieu of Fines and Costs:

- Any person owing restitution, interest on restitution, Guardian ad Litem fees, or any collection fee is not eligible for community service.
- Community Service in lieu of fines and costs is available and will be completed through the Local Probation & Pretrial Services Office (adults) or Juvenile Services (juveniles). You will need to report immediately to Local Probation or Juvenile Services in order to set the terms and conditions of the community service.
- Upon completion of community service, written verification must be received from Local Probation or Juvenile Services prior to your due date in order to credit your account.

Deferred and Modified Deferred Payment Agreements:

- A DC-210 must be completed by the defendant in person at the Clerk's Office.
- A one-time $10.00 Time to Pay fee will be assessed on accounts older than 90 days.
- The Clerk or designee may approve the payment agreement for any dollar amount.
- The Clerk or designee may approve a payment agreement for any length of time based upon on a defendant's financial resources and obligations provided orally or in the DC-211.
- Any returned payment from the bank will cause the payment agreement to default.

Installment Payment Agreement:

- A DC-210 must be completed in person. (*If you do not reside in the Commonwealth of Virginia or are more than 50 miles from the courthouse, you may request this be mailed to you. Your signature must be notarized. This form must be received in the clerk's office before the agreement can be implemented.)
- A one-time $10.00 Time to Pay fee will be assessed if not done previously upon entering into the agreement when the account is older than 90 days.
- Payments are due each month. If not paid within ten days of the due date, the Installment Payment Agreement will default.
- The Clerk or designee may approve the payment agreement for any dollar amount.
- The Clerk or designee may approve a payment agreement for any length of time based upon on a defendant's financial resources and obligations provided orally or in the DC-211.
- Any returned payment from the bank will cause the payment agreement to default.
