It is hereby ORDERED:

The Court will continue to give precedence on its docket to emergency matters including, but not limited to, quarantine and isolation matters, criminal arraignments, bond hearings, protective order cases, and proceedings necessary to safeguard applicable constitutional protections, such as speedy trial where the defendant is incarcerated. The status of cases where the defendant is incarcerated shall be considered on a case-by-case basis, taking into account consideration of whether the matter is urgent and must be heard without delay in order to protect important liberty and constitutional interests, federal law, the health and safety of the parties, counsel, court personnel and other necessarily involved and affected, and the ability of the court to proceed safely.

The Court will hear in-person non-emergency matters subject to the guidance for transitioning from emergency to routine operations provided by the Office of the Executive Secretary in order to minimize the risk of the spread of COVID-19 from in-person court proceedings. The Court will continue to conduct as much business as possible by means other than in-person court proceedings. In all civil and criminal cases, the Court shall prefer the use of video-conferencing, telephone, email or other means that do not involve in-person court proceedings.

Courtroom attendance shall be limited to counsel, parties, necessary witnesses, interpreters, court personnel, bailiffs and those deemed necessary by the Court, and members of the press where permitted by law.

In order to further minimize the risk of the spread of COVID-19 in addition to recommended social and physical distancing, all persons aged 10 or over entering the courthouse must wear a face covering that covers the nose and mouth. This includes judges, attorney, deputy sheriffs, court reporters, employees, members of the public, contractors, and all others who work in or visit the courthouse. Within a courtroom, the presiding judge may authorize removal of a face mask to facilitate a proceeding. Individuals without a face mask will not be permitted to enter the courthouse except for those who cannot safely wear a face mask because of a health-related condition. The requirement to wear a face mask shall not apply to judges or magistrates to the extent they determine it inhibits their ability to effectively communicate, or to individuals who have difficulty breathing or who cannot remove a face mask without help or have other medical issues that make the wearing of a face covering unsafe.

All individuals with legitimate court business who are ill, caring for someone who is ill, or are otherwise in a high-risk category, as defined by the Center for Disease Control (CDC), are directed to call the Clerk of this Court or other appropriate court personnel to request appropriate accommodations.

Court security shall prohibit any individual from entering the courthouse if the individual has, within the last 14 days:

1. Traveled internationally.
2. Been directed to quarantine, isolate, or self-monitor;
3. Been diagnosed with, or have had contact with anyone who has been diagnosed with, COVID-19;
4. Experiences a fever, cough, or shortness of breath; or
5. Resided with or been in close contact with any person in the above-mentioned categories.

Persons entering the courthouse shall allow their temperature to be taken at the door. Those whose temperature is over 100.4F shall not be allowed to enter the courthouse.

The Court and security personnel shall direct any individuals barred from the courthouse to contact the Clerk's office by telephone or other remote means to inform the Clerk of their business before the Court so they may receive further instruction regarding alternate arrangements for court access.

Until further Order, the Court will accept pleadings, orders and other documents that are electronically signed, including those where the signature is accomplished by scanning.

As provided in the Clarification Order, deadlines imposed by the Speedy Trial Act, Va. Code Section 19.2-243, are tolled during the ongoing Period of Judicial Emergency (March 16, 2020 through June 7, 2020)

As provided in the Virginia Supreme Court's Fourth Order, for all cases in this Court the statute of limitations and all other case-related deadlines, excluding discovery deadlines are tolled during the ongoing Period of Judicial Emergency (March 16, 2020 through June 7, 2020) pursuant to Va. Code Section 17.1-330. All discovery issued with a deadline to respond during the judicial emergency shall be due within twenty-one (21) days of May 18, 2020.
