

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Frank, Alston and Senior Judge Coleman

VOLVO TRUCKS OF NORTH AMERICA, INC. AND LIBERTY INSURANCE CORPORATION

v. Record No. 0043-10-3

CHANNON MELISSA MAYCOCK

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
MAY 18, 2010

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Christopher M. Kite; Lucas & Kite, PLC, on brief), for appellants.

(Bryan G. Bosta; Gentry Locke Rakes & Moore, on brief), for appellee.

Volvo Trucks of North America, Inc. and Liberty Insurance Corporation (employer) appeal a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission finding that Channon Melissa Maycock (claimant) provided sufficient medical evidence to prove she suffered from an occupational disease and was entitled to compensation. Employer also contends that if the medical evidence proved claimant suffered from any type of occupational disease, the evidence established, at best, the occupational exacerbation of a preexisting ordinary disease of life. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Maycock v. Volvo Trucks of North America, Inc., VWC File No. 239-91-20 (Dec. 7, 2009). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are
