GUARDIANS AD LITEM FOR INCAPACITATED PERSONS PROGRAM
PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 20 OF TITLE 64.2

1. What are the basic requirements to become qualified as a guardian ad litem for incapacitated persons?

- Be an active member in good standing of the Virginia State Bar.
- Complete the six hour required course, “Representation of Incapacitated Persons as a Guardian Ad Litem,” offered by Virginia CLE. There are no substitutions for this course.
- Demonstrate familiarity with the court system and a general background in guardianship law by completion of one of the following:
 - Provision of assistance to one qualified guardian ad litem for an incapacitated person in two cases in the circuit court; or
 - Service as counsel for the petitioner in two cases involving an incapacitated person in the circuit court; or
 - Appointment by the circuit court as a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated person in two cases.
- Demonstrate proficiency in the representation of incapacitated persons by submitting a Nomination Certificate signed by the qualified guardian ad litem you have assisted in two cases in the circuit court, or, in lieu of serving as counsel for the petitioner in two cases or appointment as a guardian or conservator in two cases, a Nomination Certificate signed by one circuit court judge before whom you have appeared.
- Send a letter to the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, requesting qualification and including the judicial circuits in which you would like to accept appointments as a guardian ad litem.

2. How long do I have to complete the basic requirements for qualification as a guardian ad litem for incapacitated persons?

All initial qualification requirements must be completed within the two-year period immediately prior to the date you request initial qualification as a guardian ad litem.

3. What documentation does the Supreme Court of Virginia require for initial qualification as a guardian ad litem for incapacitated persons?

- A letter requesting qualification, and which states the judicial circuits in which you would like to accept appointments as a guardian ad litem.
- If applicable, written certification of your familiarity with the court system and a general background in guardianship law as required by Standard I.B.4.e of the Standards to Govern the Appointment of Guardians Ad Litem for Incapacitated Persons.
- Nomination Certificate
 - If complying with the provision of assisting one qualified guardian ad litem for an incapacitated person in two cases, a Nomination Certificate signed by the qualified GAL whom you assisted.
 - In lieu of certifying your familiarity with the court system and a general background in guardianship law, as it relates to (i) serving as counsel for the petitioner in two cases involving an incapacitated person in the circuit court, or (ii) being appointed by the circuit court as a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated person in two cases, a Nomination Certificate signed by one circuit court judge before whom you have appeared.

- Certification of Attendance form for the Virginia CLE course, “Representation of Incapacitated Persons as a Guardian Ad Litem.”

4. For what period of time is my initial qualification valid?

Initial qualification is valid for a period of two years.

5. How do I maintain my qualification as a guardian ad litem for incapacitated persons?

- Complete six hours of approved continuing education every two years on topics related to the representation of incapacitated persons as a guardian ad litem.
- Certify attendance using the secure online Guardian Ad Litem Information System (GALIS) by logging in to the Virginia State Bar’s Member Portal using your Virginia State Bar ID Number and Password; or
- File a certification of attendance form with the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia for each approved course.

6. How will I know if a course has been approved for credit?

A list of courses approved for continuing education credit for guardians ad litem is available online at: www.vacourts.gov/courtadmin/aoc/cip/programs/gal/adult/home.html, in the “Continuing Education Courses-GALs for Incapacitated Persons” link.

If you are seeking information about a course that is not included on the list, please call 804-786-9543. If the course has not previously been submitted for credit approval, you will be asked to submit information outlined in Standard IV of the Standards to Govern the Appointment of Guardians Ad Litem for Incapacitated Persons.

7. May continuing education hours be carried over to the next qualification period?

No. To remain on the list of qualified guardians ad litem, 6 hours of continuing education credit must be completed within your two-year qualification period and reported to the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia by your qualification end date (i.e., If your qualification period is between January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2023, you must complete 6 hours of continuing education by December 31, 2023.). Failure to do so will result in your name being removed from the list of qualified guardians ad litem.

8. May I take the initial course, “Representation of Incapacitated Persons as a Guardian Ad Litem,” before I learn the results of my Bar Exam?

Yes, but you may not complete Standards I.2.a, I.2.b, I.2.c, I.3.ii, or request qualification as a guardian ad litem, before you are licensed.

9. May I take the initial course, “Representation of Incapacitated Persons as a Guardian Ad Litem,” and use it towards the 6-hour continuing education requirement?

Yes. However, continuing education credit for repeating the initial course is approved only once within a 6-year period. After initial qualification, you may take the course for continuing education credit within your two-year qualification period, and then not again for 6 years. Thus, this initial course may not be completed every two years to fulfill the biennial continuing education requirement.
