

Standards to Govern the Appointment of Guardians Ad Litem Pursuant to § 16.1-266, Code of Virginia

Introduction

The Judicial Council of Virginia has adopted standards to govern the appointment of attorneys as guardians ad litem for certain children. This action has been taken to comply with an enactment by the 1994 Session of the General Assembly that these standards for appointment be in effect as of January 1, 1995. For the dates of amendments to these Standards adopted by the Judicial Council of Virginia and their associated effective dates, see the concluding page of this document.

A copy of these standards as adopted by the Judicial Council follows. “Representation of Children as a Guardian Ad Litem,” the continuing legal education program which complies with standard B.1 is administered by Virginia CLE. You may call Virginia CLE at 1-800-979-8253 to indicate your interest in attending such a program and to learn about the program schedule.

There are other requirements in these standards of which you should take note. In order to be included on the list of qualified guardians ad litem, which is periodically distributed to the courts, you must file with the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia, a letter and certain certificates as specified in Standard I.B.4. The required certificates will be made available to you at the continuing legal education program referenced above.

The goal of these standards is to foster vigorous, effective and competent representation of children’s interest and welfare. On behalf of the Judicial Council of Virginia, the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia, looks forward to your participation in the training program and to receiving the information necessary to qualify you as a guardian ad litem for children.

Standard B.2.b

The requirement to "assist" one qualified guardian ad litem in two cases in the juvenile court may be met by the applicant attorney associating with the qualified guardian ad litem who serves as a mentor for those two cases. The purpose of this association is to afford the applicant the opportunity to learn from the qualified guardian ad litem how to effectively handle these cases. In addition, such an association provides the mentor guardian ad litem an opportunity to effectively measure the applicant's progress in handling these cases.

3. Demonstrate proficiency in the representation of children by submission of a required Nomination Certificate:

 - e. If not previously submitted, includes the required form certifying attendance at the MCLE continuing legal education program specified in Standard I.B.1.

Upon successful completion of the requirements outlined in Standard I, the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia, will provide the applicant attorney a date of qualification for purposes of completing the biennial continuing education requirements outlined in Standard II. Qualification dates are January 1, April 1, July 1 or October 1 of each year.

The names of applicants who meet these requirements will be included on a list of attorneys qualified as guardians ad litem published online by the Office of the Executive Secretary, Supreme Court of Virginia and distributed electronically to the juvenile and domestic relations district courts of the Commonwealth.
