Fee waivers may only be awarded by the court in which the case is concluded.

The General Assembly has authorized the above schedule for compensation for court-appointed counsel in non-capital cases. If co-counsel (more than one attorney) is appointed to represent a defendant at the same time in a non-capital case, then co-counsel shall share the maximum total compensation permitted for one attorney as set forth above. Upon submission by counsel of a detailed accounting of time expended for court-appointed representation, the court in its discretion and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may waive the limitation of fees and authorize additional compensation up to the supplemental statutory waiver amount when the effort expended by counsel, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver.

Counsel may also request additional compensation exceeding these amounts by submitting a written request with a detailed accounting of the time spent and justification for the additional amount. The presiding judge shall determine, subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, whether this request for additional compensation above the supplemental statutory waiver amount is justified, in whole or part, by considering the effort expended and time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, and, if so, shall forward the request as approved to the chief judge of the circuit court or district court for approval. Additional guidelines are posted at <http://www.courts.state.va.us/courtadmin/aoc/fiscal/home.html#coa> and http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/district/statutory_criteria_fee_cap_waiver_guidelines.pdf.

There is no appeal process available if an application for waiver of fee cap is denied. Additionally, if at any time the funds appropriated to pay for waivers become insufficient, the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall so certify to the courts and no further waivers shall be approved.

If you believe that your representation of an indigent defendant warrants consideration for an additional payment, please complete the reverse side of this form and present it to the court along with your standard request for payment (Form DC-40, LIST OF ALLOWANCES) and your Attorney Time Sheet. You must complete a separate application for each charge for which you are requesting a waiver of the fee cap. This form along with the Attorney Time Sheet shall be retained in the court file.

Additional Instructions:

Date of Appointment is the original date any court assigned the representation to you.

Date Case Concluded is the date representation ended in the case for which you are seeking payment.
