

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Benton, Humphreys and Senior Judge Overton

LISA ANN TRAVIS

v. Record No. 0014-04-4

LOGICON AND INSURANCE COMPANY
OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
MAY 4, 2004

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Howard B. Ackerman; Law Office of Howard B. Ackerman, P.C., on brief), for appellant.

(Michael L. Zimmerman; Siciliano, Ellis, Dyer & Boccarosse, on brief), for appellees.

Lisa Ann Travis contends the Workers' Compensation Commission erred in finding she failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence (1) that she sustained a compensable change in condition, and (2) that her disability beginning December 20, 2002 was causally related to her September 6, 2000 compensable injury by accident. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion, we affirm the commission's denial of Travis's claim for temporary total disability benefits. See Travis v. Logicon, VWC File No. 210-33-45 (Dec. 8, 2003). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
