

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Humphreys, Beales and Senior Judge Fitzpatrick

WAYNE L. DAVIS, JR.

v. Record No. 0182-06-2

PREFERRED PEOPLE STAFFING AND CONTINENTAL CASUALTY COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
OCTOBER 10, 2006

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Wayne L. Davis, Jr., pro se, on briefs).

(Warren H. Britt; Anne C. Byrne; Warren H. Britt, P.C., on brief), for appellees.

Wayne L. Davis, Jr. appeals a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission denying his claim for an injury by accident or, in the alternative, an occupational disease based on its finding that he failed to prove he sustained an injury to his right eye causally related to his employment on September 22, 2002.<sup>1</sup> We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Davis v. Preferred People Staffing, VWC File No. 214-40-39 (Dec. 21, 2005). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because * Pursuant to Code § 17.1-413, this opinion is not designated for publication.

<sup>1</sup> Claimant presents numerous questions and arguments in his briefs, some of which were not before the commission and others that are not within the appellate jurisdiction of this Court. Accordingly, in summarily affirming the commission's decision, we have only considered the arguments over which we have jurisdiction, those made by claimant that relate to the commission's ruling, and those which were preserved for appellate review.

the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
