

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Bumgardner, Kelsey and Senior Judge Hodges

AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC. AND INSURANCE COMPANY OF THE
STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

v. Record No. 0502-04-2

TERESA A. VANDENDOLDER

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
JULY 13, 2004

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(S. Vernon Priddy III; Cecil H. Creasey, Jr.; Sands Anderson Marks
& Miller, on brief), for appellants.

(William S. Sands, Jr.; Duncan and Hopkins, P.C., on brief), for appellee.

American Airlines, Inc. and its insurer (hereinafter referred to as "employer") appeal a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission denying employer's application based upon its finding that employer failed to prove that Teresa A. Vandendolder was able to fully perform the duties of her pre-injury employment as of January 7, 2003. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Vandendolder v. American Airlines, Inc., VWC File No. 188-61-29 (Feb. 2, 2004). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
