

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Humphreys, Beales and Senior Judge Fitzpatrick

AVALON, INC. AND
PRINCETON INSURANCE COMPANY

v. Record No. 1356-07-1

DEBRA J. CARTER

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
OCTOBER 2, 2007

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(David B. Oakley; Huff, Poole & Mahoney, P.C., on brief), for appellants.

(Byron A. Adams, on brief), for appellee.

Avalon, Inc. and its insurer appeal a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission finding Debra J. Carter proved that medical treatment rendered to her by Dr. Ronald V. Kidd beginning in September 2005 was causally related to her compensable November 3, 2003 injury by accident. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Carter v. Avalon, Inc., VWC File No. 217-52-25 (May 11, 2007). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
