

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Petty, Chafin and Senior Judge Annunziata

SUZANNE COFFMAN

v. Record No. 1759-14-3

VIRGINIA MENNONITE RETIREMENT COMMUNITY AND WAUSAU BUSINESS INSURANCE COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
FEBRUARY 24, 2015

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Michael L. Ritchie; Ritchie Law Firm, P.L.C., on brief), for appellant.

(Emily O. Sealy; Midkiff, Muncie & Ross, P.C., on brief), for appellees.

Suzanne Coffman (claimant) appeals a September 4, 2014 decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission affirming a deputy commissioner's opinion. The deputy commission found that claimant failed to prove her leg symptoms were a compensable consequence of her July 31, 2008 industrial accident. Claimant contends the commission (1) "incorrectly applied the 'reasonable probability' evidentiary standard in ruling that" her condition was not a compensable consequence of her original injury and (2) "erred when it found that [she] did not carry her burden to prove that her bilateral leg injuries were a compensable consequence of her July 31, 2008 work-related back injury."

We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Coffman v. Virginia Mennonite Found., JCN 2415958 (Sept. 4, 2014). We
