

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Chief Judge Felton, Judge Elder and Senior Judge Willis

BARBARA BROWN

v. Record No. 2587-05-3

ROANOKE CITY DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
APRIL 25, 2006

FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF ROANOKE
William D. Broadhurst, Judge

(Melvin L. Hill; Ware & Hill, L.L.P., on brief), for appellant.

(William M. Hackworth, City Attorney; Heather P. Ferguson, Assistant City Attorney, on brief), for appellee.

(Rena G. Berry, Guardian ad litem for the minor child; Andrea M.
Muse, on brief).

Barbara Brown, mother, appeals the trial court's decision terminating her parental rights to her child. Brown contends the evidence was insufficient to support the termination of her parental rights pursuant to Code § 16.1-283(B). Because the trial court terminated Brown's parental rights pursuant to Code § 16.1-283(C)(2) only, Brown's claim on appeal based on Code § 16.1-283(B) will not be addressed. Therefore, we summarily affirm the trial court's decision. See Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
