RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE
RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 1:1. Finality of Judgments, Orders and Decrees.

(a) Expiration of Court's Jurisdiction. — All final judgments, orders, and decrees, irrespective of terms of court, remain under the control of the trial court and may be modified, vacated, or suspended for twenty-one days after the date of entry, and no longer. The date of entry of any final judgment, order, or decree is the date it is signed by the judge either on paper or by electronic means in accord with Rule 1:17.

(b) General Rule: Orders Deemed Final. — Unless otherwise provided by rule or statute, a judgment, order, or decree is final if it disposes of the entire matter before the court, including all claim(s) and all cause(s) of action against all parties, gives all the relief contemplated, and leaves nothing to be done by the court except the ministerial execution of the court's judgment, order, or decree.

(c) Demurrers. — An order sustaining a demurrer or sustaining a demurrer with prejudice or without leave to amend is sufficient to dispose of the claim(s) or cause(s) of action subject to the demurrer, even if the order does not expressly dismiss the claim(s) or cause(s) of action at issue. An order sustaining a demurrer and granting leave to file an amended pleading by a specific time is sufficient to dispose of the claim(s) or cause(s) of action subject to the demurrer, if the amended pleading is not filed within the specific time provided, even if the order does not expressly dismiss the claim(s) or cause(s) of action at issue.

(d) Pleas in Bar and Motions for Summary Judgment. — An order sustaining a plea in bar or sustaining a plea in bar with prejudice or without leave to amend is sufficient to dispose of a claim(s) or cause(s) of action subject to the plea in bar, as is an order granting a motion for summary judgment, even if the order does not expressly dismiss the claim(s) or cause(s) of action at issue or enter judgment for the moving party.

(e) Motions to Strike. — In a civil case, an order which merely grants a motion to strike, without expressly entering summary judgment or partial summary judgment or dismissing the claim(s) or cause(s) of action at issue, is insufficient to dispose of the claim(s) or cause(s) of action at issue.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE

Rule 1:1A. Recovery of Appellate Attorney Fees in Circuit Court.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of Rule 1:1, in any civil action appealed to an appellate court that results in a final appellate judgment favorable to an appellee, a prevailing appellee who has recovered attorney fees, costs or both in the circuit court pursuant to a contract, statute or other applicable law may make application in the circuit court in which judgment was entered for attorney fees, costs or both incurred on appeal. The prevailing appellee must file the application and a copy of the final appellate judgment with the circuit court clerk within 30 days after the entry of a final appellate judgment. The application may be made in the same case from which the appeal was taken, which case will be reinstated on the circuit court docket upon the filing of the application. The appellee is not required to file a separate suit or action to recover the fees and costs incurred on appeal, and the circuit court has continuing jurisdiction of the case for the purpose of adjudicating the application. The circuit court's order granting or refusing the application, in whole or in part, is a final order for purposes of Rule 1:1. The phrase "final appellate judgment" as used in this rule means the issuance of the mandate by the appellate court or, in cases in which no mandate issues, the final judgment or order of the appellate court disposing of the matter. For a petition for appeal under Rule 5:17, the "final appellate judgment" is the later of the order denying the petition for appeal or the order denying a petition for rehearing, if any, under Rule 5:20.

(b) Nothing in this Rule restricts or prohibits the exercise of any other right or remedy for the recovery of attorney fees or costs, by separate suit or action, or otherwise.

Last amended by Order dated September 26, 2024; effective November 25, 2024.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE

Rule 1:1B. Jurisdictional Transfer During Appeal of Final or Partial Final Judgment in Circuit Court.

(a) Jurisdiction After Notice of Appeal. — When a final judgment under Rule 1:1(b) or a partial final judgment under Rule 1:2 is appealed from a circuit court to the Court of Appeals or, when allowed by statute, directly to the Supreme Court, the following principles govern the exercise of jurisdiction by the circuit and appellate court:

(1) Effect of Notice. Immediately upon the filing of a notice of appeal the appellate court acquires jurisdiction over the case. After the filing of the notice of appeal, however, the circuit court retains concurrent jurisdiction for the purposes specified in this Rule, including acting upon any of the matters set forth in subparts (a)(3)(A)-(H) of this Rule.

(2) Notice of Appeal Within 21 Days. If a notice of appeal has been filed prior to the expiration of the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1, the circuit court retains plenary, concurrent jurisdiction over the case until the expiration of that period.

(A) If the circuit court vacates the final judgment during this 21-day period, a notice of appeal filed prior to the vacatur order is thereby rendered moot and of no effect. The clerk of the circuit court must forward a copy of the vacatur order to the appropriate appellate court and — if an appeal has been docketed in the matter — upon receipt of the circuit court's vacatur order the appellate court must issue an order dismissing the appeal as moot.

(B) Following a circuit court's vacatur order, a new notice of appeal from the entry of any subsequent final judgment must be timely filed. No new notice of appeal is required, however, for a prior final judgment that was merely suspended or modified, but not vacated. The fact that a prior notice of appeal has been rendered moot by a vacatur order, and that any docketed appeal thereon has been dismissed, has no effect upon proceedings pursuant to a notice of appeal filed after the entry of a subsequent final judgment by the circuit court.

(3) Notice of Appeal Filed After 21 Days. If a notice of appeal has been filed after the expiration of the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1, the circuit court retains limited, concurrent jurisdiction during the pendency of the appeal solely for the purposes of:

(A) addressing motions to grant post-conviction bail during the pendency of an appeal in criminal cases;

(B) addressing motions to stay the judgment pending appeal;

(C) addressing motions and objections in civil cases relating to the amount or form of an appeal or suspending bond pursuant to Code § 8.01-676.1;

(D) correcting clerical mistakes in a final judgment in accordance with Code § 8.01-428(B), but only with leave of the appellate court;

(E) exercising its authority under Code § 19.2-306 to revoke suspended criminal sentences and to pronounce judgment for violations of any terms of suspension, conditions of probation, either or both;

(F) addressing motions to enforce a final judgment, including, but not limited to, the exercise of the court's contempt powers;

(G) appointing appellate counsel for indigent criminal defendants; or

(H) taking any other action authorized by statute or Rule of Court to be undertaken notwithstanding the expiration of the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1, which actions include, but are not limited to, those authorized by Code §§ 8.01-392 to -394, 8.01-428, 8.01-623, 8.01-654(A)(2), 8.01-677, 19.2-303, 20-107.3 (K), 20-108, and 20-109 and Rules 1:1A, 5:10(b), 5:11, 5A:7(b), and 5A:8, so long as the party requesting the action complies with the applicable time limitation in the statute or Rule authorizing such action.

(4) Correcting Clerical Mistakes Before the Filing of a Notice of Appeal. Before a notice of appeal has been filed, the circuit court has plenary authority to correct clerical mistakes in a final judgment during the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1. After the expiration of that 21-day period, and before a notice of appeal has been filed, a circuit court has authority pursuant to Code § 8.01-428(B) to correct clerical mistakes in a final judgment.

(b) Motion to Dismiss in the Appellate Court. — At any time after a notice of appeal has been filed and after the expiration of the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1, any party to an appeal may file a motion in the appellate court to dismiss the appeal. The motion may assert that the appeal has become moot or cannot proceed for some other sufficient reason. The failure to file such a motion, however, does not preclude a party from making such arguments in its appellate briefs. The appellate court may decide the motion based upon the existing record or, in its discretion, issue a temporary remand of the matter to the circuit court for the purpose of making findings of fact regarding factual issues relevant to the motion.

(c) Motion in Appellate Court for Appointment of Counsel. — At any time after a notice of appeal has been filed and after the expiration of the 21-day period prescribed by Rule 1:1, a party legally entitled to appointed counsel may file a motion in the appropriate appellate court for the appointment of appellate counsel. The appellate court may act upon the motion or may, in its discretion, refer the motion to the circuit court for appointment.

Rule 1:1C. Jurisdictional Transfer During Appeal of Interlocutory Orders.

(a) When a petition for review is filed pursuant to Code § 8.01-626, the appellate court has exclusive jurisdiction over the appealable interlocutory order and the circuit court retains jurisdiction over any part of the case that has not been appealed, unless the circuit court or the appellate court enters an order staying the proceedings in the circuit court.

(b) In any other appeal of an interlocutory order, the circuit court retains concurrent jurisdiction over the case unless the circuit court or the appellate court enters an order staying all or part of the proceedings in the circuit court.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE

Rule 1:2. Appeal From Partial Final Judgment in Multi-Party Cases.

(a) When Available. — When claims for relief are presented in a civil action against multiple parties — whether in a complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim — the trial court may enter final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the parties only by entering an order expressly labeled "Partial Final Judgment" which contains express findings that (i) the interests of such parties, and the grounds on which judgment is entered as to them, are separate and distinct from those raised by the issues in the claims against remaining parties, and (ii) the results of any appeal from the partial final judgment cannot affect decision of the claims against the remaining parties, and (iii) decision of the claims remaining in the trial court cannot affect the disposition of claims against the parties subject to the Partial Final Judgment if those parties are later restored to the case by reversal of the Partial Final Judgment on appeal.

(b) Time to Appeal. — Entry of an order of Partial Final Judgment as provided in subparagraph (a) of this Rule commences the period for filing a notice of appeal from such Partial Final Judgment under Rule 5A:6, subject to the provisions of Rule 1:1 and these Rules.

(c) Refusal of Partial Final Judgment. — No appeal will lie from a refusal by the trial court to enter a Partial Final Judgment under this Rule.

(d) Other Dispositions Adjudicating Claims Against Fewer than All Parties. — In the absence of the entry of a Partial Final Judgment order as provided in subparagraph (a) of this Rule, any order which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties in the action is not a final judgment.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE
RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 1:4. General Provisions as to Pleadings.

(a) Counsel tendering a pleading gives his assurance as an officer of the court that it is filed in good faith and not for delay.

(b) A pleading that is sworn to is an affidavit for all purposes for which an affidavit is required or permitted.

(c) Counsel or an unrepresented party who files a pleading must sign it and state his address.

(d) Every pleading must state the facts on which the party relies in numbered paragraphs, and it is sufficient if it clearly informs the opposite party of the true nature of the claim or defense.

(e) An allegation of fact in a pleading that is not denied by the adverse party's pleading, when the adverse party is required by these Rules to file such pleading, is deemed to be admitted. A denial must fairly respond to the substance of the allegation. A party that intends in good faith to deny only part of an allegation must admit the part that is true and deny the rest. An allegation in a pleading that the party does not know whether a fact exists will be treated as a denial that the fact exists.

(f) Requirements of pleadings applicable to instruments not under seal apply to instruments under seal.

(g) Requirements of pleadings applicable to legal defenses apply to equitable defenses.

(h) The clerk must note and attest the filing date on every pleading. In an Electronically Filed Case, the procedures of Rule 1:17 apply to the notation by the clerk of the date of filing.

(i) The mention in a pleading of an accompanying exhibit, of itself and without more, makes such exhibit a part of the pleading. Filing of such exhibits is governed by Rule 3:4.

(j) Brevity is enjoined as the outstanding characteristic of good pleading. In any pleading a simple statement, in numbered paragraphs, of the essential facts is sufficient.

(k) A party asserting either a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim or a defense may plead alternative facts and theories of recovery against alternative parties, provided that such claims, defenses, or demands for relief so joined arise out of the same transaction or occurrence. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or equitable grounds.

(l) Every pleading, motion or other paper served or filed must contain at the foot the Virginia State Bar number, office address and telephone number of the counsel of record submitting it, along with any electronic mail (E-mail) address and facsimile number regularly used for business purposes by such counsel of record.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

Rule 1:5. Counsel and Parties Appearing Without Counsel.

(a)(1) When used in these Rules, the word “counsel” includes a partnership, a professional corporation or an association of members of the Virginia State Bar practicing under a firm name.

(2) When such firm name is signed to a pleading, notice, or brief, the name of at least one individual member or associate of such firm must be signed to it. Any such pleading, notice, or brief may be signed electronically or by inclusion of a digital image of the signature. The electronic signature accompanying the document when filed constitutes that person’s signature on the document for purposes of Code § 8.01-271.1.

(3) Service on one member or associate of such firm constitutes service on the firm. Service is not required to be made on foreign attorneys.

(b) “Counsel of record” includes a counsel or party who has signed a pleading in the case or who has notified the other parties and the clerk in writing that he or she appears in the case, or has endorsed a draft order of the court as provided in Rule 1:13.

(c) As required by Code § 8.01-271.1, a party who is not represented by an attorney—including a person confined in a state or local correctional facility proceeding pro se—must sign every pleading, motion, or other paper that he or she serves or files, and must state his or her address. Any such pleading, notice, or paper may be signed electronically or by inclusion of a digital image of the signature. The electronic signature accompanying the document when filed constitutes that person’s signature on the document for purposes of Code § 8.01-271.1.

(d) (1) Counsel of record may not withdraw from or terminate appearances in a case except by (i) leave of court after notice to the client of the time and place of a motion for leave to withdraw, or (ii) pursuant to the provisions in subpart (f)(4) of this Rule.

(2) Any order permitting withdrawal must state the name, Virginia State Bar number, office address and telephone number of the attorney or law firm being substituted as counsel of record for the party, along with any electronic mail (email) address and any facsimile number regularly used for business purposes by such counsel; or

(3) if replacement counsel is not being designated at the time of withdrawal by an attorney or law firm, the order permitting withdrawal must state the address and telephone number of the formerly represented party for use in subsequent mailings or service of papers and notices, and the pro se party will be deemed counsel of record.

(e) As required by Code §§ 8.01-319(A) and 16.1-88.03, any party not represented by counsel who has made an appearance in the case must promptly file with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending a written statement of his or her place of residence and mailing address, and must inform the clerk in writing of any changes of residence and mailing address during the pendency of the action. The clerk and all parties to the action may rely on the last written statement filed as aforesaid.

(f) Limited Scope Appearance; Notice; Service; Completion or Termination of Appearance.

(1) Notice of Limited Scope Appearance by a Qualified Legal Services Provider. In any civil court proceeding an attorney may, prior to or simultaneous with the proceeding, file and serve on all parties a notice of limited scope appearance (A) stating that the attorney is (i) employed by a qualified legal services provider, as defined in Section IV, Paragraph 3(f) of the Rules for Integration of the Virginia State Bar, Part Six of the Rules of Court (hereafter “QLSP”), or (ii) acting pro bono on a direct referral from a QLSP; (B) stating that the attorney and the party have a written agreement that the attorney will make a limited scope appearance in such action; and (C) specifying the matters, hearings, or issues on which the attorney will appear for the party.

(2) Limited Scope Appearance by Leave of Court. Any attorney not proceeding under subpart(f)(1) of this Rule may seek leave of court to make a limited scope appearance in any civil case. If such leave is granted, the appearance will be governed by the notice requirements of subparts(f)(1)(B) and (C) of this Rule, the service and unrepresented party provisions of subpart (f)(3), and the completion or termination provisions of subpart (f)(4).

(3) Service of Papers After Notice. For the duration of the limited scope appearance as provided in this Rule, service of all papers must be made upon both the attorney making such limited scope appearance and the party on whose behalf the appearance is made, who will be considered an unrepresented party.

(4) Completion or Termination of Limited Scope Appearance.

(A) Notice of Completion of Limited Scope Appearance. — An attorney who has completed the obligations identified in a notice of limited scope appearance must file a notice of completion of limited scope appearance. The notice must be accompanied by a declaration by the attorney that counsel’s obligations under the limited scope appearance agreement have been satisfied, and must be (i) endorsed by the party on whose behalf the limited scope appearance was made, and (ii) served on all counsel and any unrepresented parties. Upon the filing of the notice of completion of limited scope appearance, the attorney is deemed to have ceased appearances in the matter.

(B) Termination of Limited Scope Appearance. — If the party on whose behalf the limited scope appearance was made cannot or will not endorse the notice of completion of limited scope appearance, the attorney may file a motion to terminate the limited scope appearance, serve it on all parties, and afford seven days for objection. If an objection is filed, the court may hold a hearing to determine whether the attorney’s obligations under the notice of limited scope appearance have been met. If the court finds that the attorney’s obligations under the notice of limited scope appearance have been met, it must grant the motion to terminate the limited scope appearance.

(C) Replacement Counsel or the Party Acting Pro Se. — If replacement counsel is not being designated at the time of the attorney’s completion of limited scope appearance, the notice of completion of limited scope appearance or order permitting termination of limited scope appearance must state the address and telephone number of the party on whose behalf the limited appearance was made for use in subsequent mailings or service of papers and notices, and said party will be deemed self-represented.

(5) Limited Scope Appearance for a Single District Court Hearing. If the matters, hearings, or issues on which the attorney will appear for the party are limited to one court appearance in General District Court or Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court, an attorney meeting the criteria in subpart (f)(1) may, prior to or simultaneous with the appearance, file and serve on all parties a notice of limited scope appearance for a single District Court hearing. The notice of limited scope appearance for a single District Court hearing serves as both a notice of appearance and notice of completion of limited scope appearance. The limited scope appearance will automatically conclude at the end of the District Court hearing. The completion or termination of limited scope appearance requirements outlined in subpart (f)(4) do not apply to a limited scope appearance for a single District Court hearing. Nothing will preclude an attorney from making more than one limited scope appearance.

(6) Local Counsel or Covering Docket Calls. Nothing in this subpart (f) will apply where a party is represented for all purposes by counsel of record and another attorney appears in lieu of counsel of record for a particular proceeding or docket call.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

Rule 1:5A. Signature Defects.

(a) Signature Compliance and Defects. — If a pleading, motion, or other paper is not signed in compliance with Code § 8.01-271.1(A), it is defective. Such a defect renders the pleading, motion, or other paper voidable.

(b) Raising Signature Defects; Waiver. —

(1) Pursuant to paragraphs (E) and (F) of Code § 8.01-271.1, the issue of a signature defect must be raised in the trial court unless the signature defect occurs in an appellate filing. Signature defects in appellate filings, including the notice of appeal, must be raised in the appellate court where the appeal is taken.

(2) Failure to raise the issue of a signature defect in a pleading, motion or other paper, other than the notice of appeal, before the trial court's jurisdiction expires pursuant to Rule 1:1(a) and Rule 1:1B, waives any challenge based on such defect. Failure to raise the issue of a signature defect in appellate documents, including the notice of appeal, in the appellate court waives any challenge based on such defect.

(c) Curing Signature Defects; Failure to Cure. —

(1) A signature defect must be cured within 21 days after it is brought to the attention of the pleader or movant, as required under Code § 8.01-271.1(G). If a signature defect is timely and properly cured, the pleading, motion, or other paper is deemed valid and relates back to the date it was originally served or filed.

(2) If a signature defect is not timely and properly cured after it is brought to the attention of the pleader or movant, the pleading, motion, or other paper is invalid and must be stricken.

(d) Costs and Fees. — The court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, may require the person who signed the paper, the party represented by that person, or both, to reimburse any additional costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by other parties solely as a result of the signature defect.

(e) Statute of Limitations. — If a complaint is filed to commence a civil action under Rule 3:2(a) within the prescribed limitation period and is dismissed due to the failure to timely and properly cure a signature defect, the provisions of Code § 8.01-229(E)(1) govern the calculation of the limitation period. The time such action was pending will not be computed as part of the period within which such action may be brought, and another action may be brought within the remaining period.

Rule 1:6. Res Judicata Claim Preclusion.

(a) Definition of Cause of Action. A party whose claim for relief arising from identified conduct, a transaction, or an occurrence, is decided on the merits by a final judgment, is forever barred from prosecuting any second or subsequent civil action against the same opposing party or parties on any claim or cause of action that arises from that same conduct, transaction or occurrence, whether or not the legal theory or rights asserted in the second or subsequent action were raised in the prior lawsuit, and regardless of the legal elements or the evidence upon which any claims in the prior proceeding depended, or the particular remedies sought. A claim for relief pursuant to this rule includes those set forth in a complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party pleading.

(b) Effective Date. This rule applies to all Virginia judgments entered in civil actions commenced after July 1, 2006.

(c) Exceptions. The provisions of this Rule do not bar a party or a party's insurer from prosecuting separate personal injury and property damage suits arising out of the same conduct, transaction or occurrence, and do not bar a party who has pursued mechanic's lien remedies pursuant to Virginia Code § 43-1 et seq. from prosecuting a subsequent claim against the same or different defendants for relief not recovered in the prior mechanic's lien proceedings, to the extent heretofore permitted by law.

(d) Privity. The law of privity as heretofore articulated in case law in the Commonwealth of Virginia is unaffected by this Rule and remains intact. For purposes of this Rule, party or parties include all named parties and those in privity.

If the court sustains a motion to strike the evidence of either party in a civil case being tried before a jury, or the evidence of the Commonwealth in a criminal case being so tried, then the court should enter summary judgment or partial summary judgment in conformity with its ruling on the motion to strike.

If the court overrules a motion to strike the evidence and there is a hung jury, the moving party may renew the motion immediately after the discharge of the jury, and, if the court is of opinion that it erred in denying the motion, it should enter summary judgment or partial summary judgment in conformity with its ruling on the motion to strike.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE
RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 1:17. Electronic Filing and Service.

(a) Scope of Electronic Filing Rules. Pursuant to § 8.01-271.01 and Article 4.1 (§§ 17.1-258.2 et seq.) of Chapter 2 of Title 17.1 of the Code of Virginia, this Rule applies in any court that has established an electronic filing system under the standards and procedures set forth in subdivision (c) of this Rule, and applies in civil cases in circuit court as provided in Rule 3:3, in criminal cases in circuit court as provided in Rule 3A:23, in general district court proceedings as provided in Rule 7A:7(c), and in juvenile and domestic relations district court proceedings as provided in Rule 8:8(f).

(b) Definitions.

(1) "Electronic Document" means any defined set of textual matter, graphic content or other encoded information in an approved format, that can be read, printed, and stored or retained as electrical, magnetic or optically encoded signals in some medium and that can be transmitted by a data-link.

(2) "Data-link" refers to any means of electronic transmission of a document in a coded form such that the document can be received, read, printed, and stored by the recipient.

(3) "E-Filing Portal" means the electronic web site maintained by the Supreme Court of Virginia designated as the facility for electronically filing documents, or an alternative which meets the standards set forth in this Rule and is made available by individual circuit courts.

(4) "Electronic filing" means the official filing of an electronic document on the court's docket and case files in electronic form by transmission over a data-link.

(5) "Electronically Filed Case" means a case in which pleadings, motions, notices and other filings are made electronically in accordance with these rules.

(6) "Hyperlink" means an electronic connection or reference to another place in the document, such that when the hyperlink is selected the user is taken to the portion of the document to which the link refers. It is not in itself a part of the document.

(c) System Operational Standards. In addition to the obligations and procedures set forth in subdivision (d) of this Rule, electronic filing systems under this Rule must meet these requirements:

(1) Electronic documents must be stored without loss of content or material alteration of appearance.

(2) Files capable of carrying viruses into court computers must be scanned for viruses prior to being written to disk in the clerk's office.

(3) The electronic filing system must be capable of securing the document upon receipt so that it is protected from alteration.

(4) The electronic filing system must be capable of establishing the identity of a sender of a document by means of a registered user identity and password, or by digitally encrypted electronic signatures, or by any other means reasonably calculated to ensure identification to a high degree of certainty.

(5) Remote electronic access to documents submitted in an electronically filed case and stored electronically will be limited to judges, court personnel, any persons assisting such persons in the administration of the electronic filing system, active members of the Virginia State Bar and their authorized agents, and parties appearing pro se, who have complied with the registration requirements to use the electronic filing system.

(6) If the court accepts payment of fees by credit card, debit card, debit account, or electronic funds transfer, registration for the user identity must include submission of all information required to effect the payment of fees. Electronic submission of this information will be deemed a signature by the cardholder sender, authorizing the payment of document filing fees. This information must be kept confidential. There will be an electronic confirmation from the clerk of any charge to or the debit from the user's account.

(7) No unauthorized person is permitted access to other court networks, data or applications unrelated to electronic filing. Administrative access to computer equipment and networks handling electronic filing will be restricted to designated court employees or authorized maintenance personnel.

(8) Electronic filing systems must reasonably protect filed documents against system and security failures and must provide, at a minimum, for daily backup, periodic off-site backup storage if feasible, and prudent disaster recovery mechanisms.

(d) Electronic Service and Filing Practice and Procedures.

(1) In an Electronically Filed Case, all pleadings, motions, notices and other material filed with the court must be in the form of Electronic Documents except where otherwise expressly provided by statute or the Rules of Court, or where the court orders otherwise in an individual case for good cause shown.

(2) Each attorney admitted to practice in the Commonwealth is entitled to a registered User ID and password issued by the clerk, or access using any comparable identification system approved by the Supreme Court, for the electronic filing and retrieval of documents.

(3) The clerk must provide a means, in the courthouse or other designated location, for the parties, counsel and the public to review and copy electronic records from the electronic file during normal business hours.

(4) The format for electronically filed material must be the Portable Document Format (PDF). Notice will be provided if any other format is approved.

(5) (i) Subject to the provisions of subsections (d)(6) and (7) of this Rule, an electronic document must be filed by following the procedures of the applicable E-Filing Portal, and will be deemed filed on the date that it is received in the E-Filing Portal without regard to whether the filing occurred within or outside of standard business hours. If the electronic document is received in the E-Filing Portal on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or any day or part of a day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by an act of the General Assembly, then such document will be deemed filed on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or day or part of a day on which the clerk's office is closed.

(ii) Upon electronic filing of a document, an electronic confirmation will be transmitted to the filing party indicating that the document has been successfully filed through the E-Filing Portal. In addition, the court to which the document is directed will promptly transmit an electronic acknowledgement of its receipt of the electronically filed document, specifying the identity of the receiving court, the date the document was received by the court, and a court-assigned document reference or docketing number.

(6) A person who files a document electronically has the same responsibility as a person filing a document in paper form to ensure that the document is properly filed, complete, and readable. However,

(i) if technical problems at the E-Filing Portal result in a failure to timely file the electronic document, counsel must provide to the clerk of the court on the next business day all documentation which exists demonstrating the attempt to file the document through the E-Filing Portal, any delivery failure notice received in response to the attempt, and a copy of the document, and

(ii) in the event that the E-Filing Portal was not available due to technical problems during the last filing hours of a business day, the office of the clerk of the court to which the document is directed will be deemed to have been closed on that day solely with respect to that attempted filing and the provisions of Virginia Code § 1-210(B) and (C) will apply to that particular attempted filing for purposes of computing the last day for performing any act in a judicial proceeding or the filing of any legal action.

(7) Clerk's notice of defects in a filing; striking documents; court orders.

(i) Incorrect or missing fee. If the clerk of court determines that an electronically filed document is defective because of an incorrect or missing filing fee, and

(A) if the clerk has been provided by the filing party with a credit or payment account through which to obtain payment of fees, the clerk must immediately process payment of the correct fee through such credit or payment account; or

(B) if processing by the clerk of the proper payment through a credit or payment account authorized by the filing party is not feasible, notice must be sent by the clerk electronically to the filing party, and all other parties who have appeared in the case.

(ii) Document filed in the wrong case by counsel. If the clerk of court determines prior to acceptance that an electronic document has been filed by counsel under the wrong case or docket number, the clerk must notify the filing party as soon as practicable, by notice through the E- Filing system, by telephone, or by other effective means.

(iii) A copy of all notices transmitted by the clerk under this subpart (d)(7) must be retained in the permanent electronic case file maintained by the clerk. A copy of any document stricken must be retained by the clerk with a designation clearly reflecting that it was stricken and the date of such striking, as a record of its content and disposition.

(8) The clerk's office must accommodate the submission of non-electronic documents in an Electronically Filed Case if filing in electronic form cannot, as a practical matter, be achieved. Such documents must be imaged to facilitate the creation of a single electronic case file to the extent reasonably possible. An outsized document that is capable of being imaged must be retained in the form submitted.

(9) When an order is entered, the electronic record will be updated to identify the judge who directed entry of the order and the date it was entered, and a notification will be sent to counsel of record that the order has been entered, along with a copy of the order or an electronic link providing access to such order. If the entry of an order is done on a paper copy of the order, a digital image of such order will be made a part of the electronic record, and the endorsed original paper will be retained for the record.

(10) Hyperlinks between two portions of a filed document or between two or more documents filed in the same case, are permissible, but hyperlinks to other documents, or to external websites, are prohibited. A hyperlink is not itself a part of the official filed document and each hyperlink must contain a text reference to the target of the link.

(e) Application of, and Compliance with, Other Rules. In an Electronically Filed Case:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed by all parties, or ordered by the court in an individual case for good cause shown, all documents required to be served – after the initial service of process must be served by electronic transmission. Such service is effective as provided in Rule 1:12.

(2) Annotation by the clerk as provided in Rule 1:4(h) is not required to be made physically upon the face of the pleading and – if it is made by a separate document – it must specify the pleading to which such annotation pertains.

(3) An e-mail address of the counsel of record must be included in the electronic documents filed as required by Rule 1:4(l).

(4) The approved electronic identification accompanying the document when filed constitutes that person's signature on the document for purposes of Rule 1:5 and Virginia Code § 8.01-271.1.

(5) The provisions of Article 4.1 (§§ 17.1-258.2 et seq.) of Chapter 2 of Title 17.1 of the Code of Virginia apply where a document is to be notarized, sworn, attested, verified, or otherwise certified, or if any sworn signatures, stamps, seals or other authentications relating to the document are required by any statute or Rule, and an electronic or digitally imaged document with such accompanying entries must be filed in the clerk's office. Electronic notarization in compliance with the Virginia Notary Act (§§ 47.1-1 et seq.) may also be employed with the filing.

(6) An acceptance of service or a certificate of counsel that electronic copies were served as this Rule requires, showing the date of delivery, must electronically accompany the served papers and satisfies Rule 1:12.

(7) In compliance with Rule 1:13, drafts of orders, decrees and notices must be served on each counsel of record. Such service may be by electronic transmission and must make provision for electronic endorsement by multiple parties where applicable. Objections or other notations by the parties must be entered upon the drafts so circulated, or appended to such drafts by specific cross- reference or other unambiguous association. Endorsed drafts must be submitted electronically whenever possible, and must be accompanied by proof of service or acceptance of service when required by the rules of court. If there is no practical means of submitting an electronic or digitally imaged endorsed draft, the manually endorsed document must be filed in the clerk's office. The clerk must accommodate the imaging of the document into electronic form and must retain the original endorsed document.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE
RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 1:24. Requirements for Court Payment Agreements for the Collection of Fines and Costs.

The purposes of the statutory court collection process are (i) to facilitate the payment of fines, court costs, penalties, restitution and other financial responsibilities assessed against defendants convicted of a criminal offense or traffic infraction, (ii) to collect the monies due to the Commonwealth and localities as a result of these convictions, and (iii) to assure payment of court-ordered restitution to victims of crime. To achieve these purposes, this Rule is intended to ensure that all courts approve deferred and installment payment agreements consistent with §§ 19.2-354, 19.2-354.1, and the provisions of this Rule and to further the legal values of predictability, fairness, and similarity in the collection of fines, court costs, penalties, and restitution throughout the courts of the Commonwealth.

(a) Definitions. —

(1) “Fines and costs” mean all the fines, court costs, forfeitures, and penalties assessed in all cases by a single court against a defendant for the commission of crimes or traffic infractions. The term “fines and costs” also includes restitution unless the court orders a separate payment schedule for restitution.

(2) An “installment payment agreement” is an agreement in which the defendant agrees to make monthly or other periodic payments until the fines and costs are paid in full.

(3) A “deferred payment agreement” is an agreement in which the defendant agrees to pay the full amount of the fines and costs at the end of the agreement’s stated term and no installment payments are required.

(4) A “modified deferred payment agreement” is a deferred payment agreement in which the defendant also agrees to use best efforts to make monthly or other periodic payments.

(b) Access to payment alternatives. — Any defendant may enter into a deferred payment agreement, a modified deferred payment agreement or an installment payment agreement to pay fines and costs. The court may not deny a defendant the opportunity to enter into a deferred, modified deferred, or installment payment agreement solely because (i) the defendant previously defaulted under the terms of a payment agreement, (ii) the fines and costs have been referred for collection pursuant to § 19.2-349, (iii) a defendant has not established a payment history, (iv) of the category of offense for which the defendant was convicted or found not innocent, or (v) of the total amount of all fines and costs.

(c) Notice of payment alternatives. — The court must give the defendant written notice of deferred, modified deferred, and installment payment agreements and, if a community service program has been established, the availability of earning credit toward discharge of fines and costs through the performance of community service work.

(d) Conditions of a payment agreement. — All the fines and costs that a defendant owes for all cases in any single court may be incorporated into one payment agreement, unless otherwise ordered by the court in specific cases. A payment agreement must include only those outstanding fines and costs for which the limitations period set forth in § 19.2-341 has not run.

In determining the length of time to pay under a deferred, modified deferred, or installment payment agreement and the amount of the payments, a court must take into account the defendant's financial resources and obligations, including any fines and costs the defendant owes in other courts. If the defendant requests to enter into an installment agreement, the court may offer installment payments of (i) $25 per month, or a higher amount, depending on a defendant's ability to pay, which the court will determine using a written financial statement, on a form developed by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court, setting forth the defendant's financial resources and obligations or by conducting an oral examination of the defendant to determine his financial resources and obligations or (ii) less than $25 per month, if the defendant is determined to be indigent by the court pursuant to § 19.2-159. In the case of a defendant otherwise eligible to enter a payment plan under this rule, any resources exempted by subsection (h) may not be considered when determining the payment amount or the length of time to pay under any deferred, modified deferred, or installment payment agreement.

No court may require a defendant to make a down payment upon entering a deferred, modified deferred, or installment payment agreement, other than a subsequent payment agreement, in which case the court may require a down payment pursuant to subsection (g). Nothing in this rule prevents a defendant from voluntarily making a down payment upon entering any payment agreement.

Where available, the court may provide community service work as an option to defray fines and costs, especially when the defendant is indigent or otherwise unable to make meaningful payments. Any portion of the community service completed should be credited to the defendant's obligations. Community service may not be credited against any amount owed as restitution, the interest which has accrued on restitution, and any collection fee required.

At any time during the duration of a payment agreement, the defendant may request a modification of the agreement in writing, on a form provided by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court, and the court may grant such modification based on a good faith showing of need.

(e) Timeliness of payments. — Any payment which is received within 10 days of the date due is considered timely made.

(f) Combined payment agreements. — The court may offer a payment agreement combining an appropriate initial period during which no payment of fines and costs is required, followed by a period of installment payments. Such a combined payment plan may be appropriate when the defendant is incarcerated, but should not be limited only to these circumstances.

(g) Re-entry into a payment agreement after default. — A defendant who has defaulted on a payment agreement may petition the court for a subsequent payment agreement. In determining whether to approve the request for a subsequent payment agreement, the court must consider any change in the defendant's circumstances.

A court may require a down payment to enter into a subsequent payment agreement, provided that (i) if the fines and costs owed are $500 or less, the required down payment may not exceed 10 percent of such amount or (ii) if the fines and costs owed are more than $500, the required down payment may not exceed 5 percent of such amount or $50, whichever is greater.

(h) Exemptions. — Any defendant owing fines and costs whose sole financial resource is a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income is exempt from making any payments toward such fines and costs at least until such time that the defendant has a resource other than a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income. If the defendant informs the court that his sole financial resource is a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income, the case may not be referred to collections under § 19.2-349.

Courts must include in their payment plan policies developed under Code §§ 19.2-354 and 19.2-354.1 that when the court is informed that a defendant receives a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income, no payment toward fines and costs may be taken from such exempt resource.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE

Rule 1:25. Specialty Dockets.

(a) Definition of and Criteria for Specialty Dockets. —

(1) When used in this Rule, the term “specialty dockets” refers to specialized court dockets within the existing structure of Virginia's circuit and district court system offering judicial monitoring of intensive treatment, supervision, and remediation integral to case disposition.

(2) Types of court proceedings appropriate for grouping in a “specialty docket” are those which (i) require more than simply the adjudication of discrete legal issues, (ii) present a common dynamic underlying the legally cognizable behavior, (iii) require the coordination of services and treatment to address that underlying dynamic, and (iv) focus primarily on the remediation of the defendant in these dockets. The treatment, the services, and the disposition options are those which are otherwise available under law.

(3) Dockets which group cases together based simply on the area of the law at issue, e.g., a docket of unlawful detainer cases or child support cases, are not considered “specialty dockets.”

(b) Types of Specialty Dockets. — The Supreme Court of Virginia currently recognizes only the following three types of specialty dockets: (i) recovery court dockets as provided for in the Recovery Court Act, § 18.2-254.1, (ii) veterans dockets, and (iii) behavioral health dockets as provided for in the Behavioral Health Docket Act, § 18.2-254.3. Recovery court dockets offer judicial monitoring of intensive treatment and strict supervision in drug and drug-related cases. Veterans dockets offer eligible defendants who are veterans of the armed services with substance dependency or mental illness a specialized criminal specialty docket that is coordinated with specialized services for veterans. Behavioral health dockets offer defendants with diagnosed behavioral or mental health disorders judicially supervised, community-based treatment plans, which a team of court staff and mental health professionals design and implement.

(c) Authorization Process. — A circuit or district court which intends to establish one or more types of these recognized specialty dockets must petition the Supreme Court of Virginia for authorization before beginning operation of a specialty docket or, in the instance of an existing specialty docket, continuing its operation. A petitioning court must demonstrate sufficient local support for the establishment of this specialty docket, as well as adequate planning for its establishment and continuation.

(d) Expansion of Types of Specialty Dockets. — A circuit or district court seeking to establish a type of specialty docket not yet recognized under this rule must first demonstrate to the Supreme Court that a new specialty docket of the proposed type meets the criteria set forth in subsection (a) of this Rule. If this additional type of specialty docket receives recognition from the Supreme Court of Virginia, any local specialty docket of this type must then be authorized as established in subsection (c) of this Rule.

(e) Oversight Structure. — By order, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may establish a Specialty Docket Advisory Committee and appoint its members. The Chief Justice may also establish separate committees for each of the approved types of specialty dockets. The members of the Veterans Docket Advisory Committee, the Behavioral Health Docket Advisory Committee, and the committee for any other type of specialty docket recognized in the future by the Supreme Court will be chosen by the Chief Justice. The Recovery Court Advisory Committee established under Code § 18.2-254.1 constitutes the Recovery Court Docket Advisory Committee.

(f) Operating Standards. — The Specialty Docket Advisory Committee, in consultation with the committees created under subsection (e), will establish the training and operating standards for local specialty dockets.

(g) Financing Specialty Dockets. — Any funds necessary for the operation of a specialty docket will be the responsibility of the locality and the local court, but may be provided via state appropriations and federal grants.

Rule 1:26. File Format Requirements for Pleadings, Motions, Notices, Briefs and Exhibits Sought to be Filed or Admitted in Electronic or Digital Form.

Any digital or electronic pleading, motion, notice, brief, exhibit or other material (“electronic document”) made part of any court record is a public record unless sealed by court order or otherwise provided by law. The party filing, offering, or seeking the admission of an electronic document must ensure that the document is (i) readily accessible in an unencrypted, non-proprietary, and open-source format or (ii) accompanied by the computer software necessary to view the document if it is encrypted or stored in a proprietary file format.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE

Rule 1:27. Testimony by Audiovisual Means in Circuit Court Civil Cases.

(a) The court may permit a party in any civil trial or proceeding to present live testimony by means of audiovisual technology upon such conditions as the court may impose. Unless the court in its discretion allows a motion on shorter notice, such motion must be made, whether orally or in writing, at least 15 days in advance of the trial or hearing. Any party opposing a written motion must file any objections in writing 5 days after service of such motion, unless a different schedule is set by the court.

(b) Unless the courtroom or facility where the testimony will be presented has equipment meeting the standards of Code § 19.2-3.1, the party offering testimony of a witness by audiovisual means is responsible for providing the necessary equipment, and all necessary logistical arrangements, at no cost to the court. All costs and arrangements for the location where the witness will give testimony are also the responsibility of the party offering the testimony. Failure to ensure that the courtroom or facility where the trial or hearing is to be held—and the location where the witness would testify—are properly set up for such testimony will preclude the offering of such testimony by audiovisual means. Remedies and procedures to address the failure of the arrangements to function properly for some other reason, such as a power outage affecting the Virginia courtroom, are within the sound discretion of the presiding judge.

(c) Any oath administered to a party or witness testifying by means of audiovisual technology shall be deemed to have been administered within the Commonwealth.

(d) Presumptive cases for allowing remote testimony. — The court should enter an order permitting live testimony under this Rule as follows:

(1) Consent of All Parties. Upon consent of all parties for live testimony of any party, lay witness, or expert witness by means of any audiovisual technology; or,

(2) Distant and Other Specific Witnesses. If (i) a lay witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the Commonwealth, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the testimony, or if (ii) the witness is a superintendent of a hospital for the insane more than 30 miles from the place of trial, or is a physician, surgeon, dentist, chiropractor, registered nurse, physician's assistant or nurse practitioner who, in the regular course of his or her profession, treated or examined any party to the proceeding, or is in any public office or service the duties of which prevent his attending court; provided, however, that if the witness is subject to the jurisdiction of the court, the court may, upon a showing of good cause or sua sponte, order the witness to attend and to testify ore tenus.

II. Discovery

The parties must complete discovery, including depositions, by 30 days before trial; however, depositions taken in lieu of live testimony at trial will be permitted until 15 days before trial. "Complete" means that all interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admissions and other discovery must be served sufficiently in advance of trial to allow a timely response at least 30 days before trial. Depositions may be taken after the specified time period by agreement of counsel of record or for good cause shown, provided however, that the taking of a deposition after the deadline established herein will not provide a basis for continuance of the trial date or the scheduling of motions inconsistent with the normal procedures of the court. The parties have a duty to seasonably supplement and amend discovery responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e) of the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia. Seasonably means as soon as practical. No provision of this Order supersedes the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia governing discovery. Any discovery motion filed must contain a certification that counsel has made a good faith effort to resolve the matters set forth in the motion with opposing counsel.

III. Designation of Experts

If requested in discovery, plaintiff's, counter-claimant's, third party plaintiff's, and cross-claimant's experts must be identified on or before 90 days before trial. If requested in discovery, defendant's and all other opposing experts must be identified on or before 60 days before trial. If requested in discovery, experts or opinions responsive to new matters raised in the opposing parties, identification of experts must be designated no later than 45 days before trial. If requested, all information discoverable under Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia must be provided or the expert will not ordinarily be permitted to express any nondisclosed opinions at trial. The foregoing deadlines do not relieve a party of the obligation to respond to discovery requests within the time periods set forth in the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia, including, in particular, the duty to supplement or amend prior responses pursuant to Rule 4:1(e).

IV. Dispositive Motions

All dispositive motions should be presented to the court for hearing as far in advance of the trial date as practical. All counsel of record are encouraged to bring on for hearing all demurrers, special pleas, motions for summary judgment or other dispositive motions not more than 60 days after being filed.

V. Exhibit and Witness List

Counsel of record must exchange 15 days before trial a list specifically identifying each exhibit to be introduced at trial, copies of any exhibits not previously supplied in discovery, and a list of witnesses proposed to be introduced at trial. The lists of exhibits and witnesses must be filed with the Clerk of the Court simultaneously therewith but the exhibits should not then be filed. Any exhibit or witness not so identified and filed will not be received in evidence, except in rebuttal or for impeachment or unless the admission of such exhibit or testimony of the witness would cause no surprise or prejudice to the opposing party and the failure to list the exhibit or witness was through inadvertence. Any objections to exhibits or witnesses must state the legal reasons therefor except on relevancy grounds, and must be filed with the Clerk of the Court and a copy delivered to opposing counsel at least five days before trial or the objections will be deemed waived absent leave of court for good cause shown.

VI. Pretrial Conferences

Pursuant to Rule 4:13 of the Rules of Supreme Court of Virginia, when requested by any party or upon its own motion, the court may order a pretrial conference wherein motions in limine, settlement discussions or other pretrial motions which may aid in the disposition of this action can be heard.

VII. Motions in Limine

Absent leave of court, any motion in limine which requires argument exceeding five minutes must be duly noticed and heard before the day of trial.

VIII. Witness Subpoenas

Early filing of a request for witness subpoenas is encouraged so that such subpoenas may be served at least 10 days before trial.

IX. Continuances

Continuances will only be granted by the court for good cause shown.

X. Jury Instructions

Counsel of record, unless compliance is waived by the court, must, two business days before a civil jury trial date, exchange proposed jury instructions. At the commencement of trial, counsel of record must tender the court the originals of all agreed upon instructions and copies of all contested instructions with appropriate citations. This requirement does not preclude the offering of additional instructions at the trial.

XI. Deposition Transcripts to be Used at Trial

Counsel of record must confer and attempt to identify and resolve all issues regarding the use of depositions at trial. It is the obligation of the proponent of any deposition of any non-party witness who will not appear at trial to advise opposing counsel of record of counsel's intent to use all or a portion of the deposition at trial at the earliest reasonable opportunity. Other than trial depositions taken after completion of discovery under Paragraph II, designations of portions of non-party depositions, other than for rebuttal or impeachment, must be exchanged no later than 30 days before trial, except for good cause shown or by agreement of counsel. It becomes the obligation of the non-designating parties of any such designated deposition to file any objection or counter-designation within seven days after the proponent's designation. Further, it becomes the obligation of the non-designating parties to bring any objections or other unresolved issues to the court for hearing no later than 5 days before the day of trial.

PART ONE A FOREIGN ATTORNEYS

Rule 1A:1. Admission to Practice in This Commonwealth Without Examination

(a) Reciprocity — Any person who has been admitted to practice law before the court of last resort of any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia may file an application to be admitted to practice law in this Commonwealth without examination, if counsel licensed to practice law in this Commonwealth may be admitted in that jurisdiction without taking a bar examination.

(b) Application — An applicant for admission to practice law without examination in this Commonwealth must:

(1) File with the Secretary of the Virginia Board of Bar Examiners (the Board) an application under oath on a form furnished by the Board;

(2) Furnish a certificate, signed by the presiding judge of the court of last resort or other proper official for every jurisdiction in which the applicant is or has been licensed to practice law, stating:

(i) that the applicant is in good standing, and if not the reasons why;

(ii) the length of time the applicant has been or was licensed in that jurisdiction; and

(iii) any restriction or condition placed on the applicant's license to practice law in that jurisdiction.

(3) Certify in writing under oath that the applicant has completed 12 hours of instruction approved by the Virginia Continuing Legal Education Board on Virginia substantive and/or procedural law within the preceding six-month period;

(4) Certify in writing under oath that the applicant has read and is familiar with the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct;

(5) Complete the Applicant's Character and Fitness Questionnaire and furnish a report of the National Conference of Bar Examiners, or such other report as the Board may require, concerning the applicant's past practice and record, and pay the fee for such report; and

(6) Pay such filing fee as may be fixed from time to time by the Board.

(c) Board Review — Upon receipt of a completed application, the Board will determine in accordance with the regulations issued by the Supreme Court of Virginia whether the applicant has established by satisfactory evidence that he or she:

(1) Is a proper person to practice law; and

(2) Pursuant to Code § 54.1-3931, has been admitted to practice law before the court of last resort of any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia for at least five years; and

(3) Has practiced law for at least three of the immediately preceding five years and has made such progress in the practice of law that it would be unreasonable to require the applicant to take an examination. The Board may require the applicant to appear personally before the Board, the Character and Fitness Committee (the Committee) of the Board, or a member of either the Board or the Committee, and furnish any such additional information as may be required. If the applicant's license to practice law in any other jurisdiction is subject to any restriction or condition, the Board will determine whether the nature of such restriction or condition is inconsistent with the practice of law and, if so, will deny the application. If the Board determines that the applicant is qualified to be admitted to the practice of law in this Commonwealth without examination, the Board will approve the application and notify the applicant of its decision.

(d) Admission — Upon notification by the Board that the applicant's application has been approved, the applicant may be issued a certificate, pursuant to Code § 54.1-3931, to practice law in this Commonwealth if:

(1) A member of the Virginia State Bar who is qualified to practice before the Supreme Court moves the applicant's admission to practice law in this Commonwealth in open court;

(2) The motion is granted; and

(3) The applicant takes and subscribes to the oaths required of attorneys at law.

(e) Active Membership — Upon payment of applicable dues, and completion of other membership obligations set forth in Part 6, Section IV of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, the applicant will become an active member of the Virginia State Bar. An attorney admitted pursuant to the Rule is subject to the same membership obligations as other active members of the Virginia State Bar, and all legal services provided in Virginia by an attorney admitted pursuant to this Rule will be deemed the practice of law and will subject the attorney to all rules governing the practice of law in Virginia, including the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct. The rules set forth in Part 6, Section IV, governing how members may change their status to associate, judicial, disabled, retired or emeritus, apply to attorneys admitted pursuant to this Rule.

(f) An attorney admitted to practice law in this Commonwealth without examination under prior versions of this Rule is no longer subject to the requirement that he or she intends to practice law full time as a member of the Virginia State Bar.

Regulations Governing Applications for Admission to Virginia Bar Pursuant to Rule of the Supreme Court of Virginia 1A:1, effective December 1, 2018.

INTRODUCTION

Each person who has met the educational requirements and has proved that he or she satisfies the character and fitness requirements as established by the law of Virginia may seek admission to the Virginia State Bar by taking the Virginia Bar Examination. A primary purpose of the Virginia Bar Examination is to determine whether an applicant is able to demonstrate his or her current minimum competency to engage in the practice of law in Virginia.

In addition to admission to the Bar by examination, the Supreme Court of Virginia, in its discretion under Code § 54.1-3931, has determined that a person who has been admitted to practice law before the court of last resort of a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia for a minimum of five years, who has been admitted to the bar of a Reciprocal Jurisdiction, hereinafter defined, and who has been engaged in the lawful practice of law on a full-time basis for at least three of the immediately preceding five years, may seek to demonstrate that he or she has made such progress in the practice of law that it would be unreasonable to require the person to take an examination to demonstrate current minimum competency. In other words, an applicant's experience in the practice of law may, at the discretion of the Court, be accepted as adequate evidence of current minimum competency in lieu of the bar examination. For purposes of admission without examination, "full-time" means practicing law for a minimum of 32 hours per week.

The Supreme Court of Virginia has assigned to the Virginia Board of Bar Examiners (the "Board") the responsibility to assess the information furnished by an applicant for admission without examination and to determine, from the information so furnished, whether the applicant's experience in the practice of law is sufficient to demonstrate his or her current competence, good character, and fitness to practice law in Virginia.

In order to guide the Board in its determinations, the Court has adopted the following criteria to be applied by the Board in assessing applications for admission to the bar of Virginia without examination:

THRESHOLD REQUIREMENTS

1. Reciprocity. The Board will consider an application for admission without examination only from a person who has been admitted to practice before the court of last resort of a jurisdiction (i.e., a state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia) that permits lawyers licensed in Virginia to be admitted to practice without taking a bar examination in such jurisdiction (a “Reciprocal Jurisdiction”). The purpose of the reciprocity requirement is to encourage other jurisdictions to grant the same privilege to Virginia lawyers.

2. Minimum Period of Bar Admission. Before being eligible to apply for admission without examination, the applicant must have been admitted to practice law before the court of last resort of a state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, for at least five years.

3. Requirement of Minimum Current Practice. An applicant may apply for admission without examination only if the applicant has been engaged in the full-time practice of law for at least three of the last five years immediately preceding his or her application for admission to the Virginia State Bar. Except as provided in Threshold Requirement 4 below, the applicant must have been licensed to engage in the practice of law in the jurisdiction where such practice occurred. Practice from an office located in a foreign country will not be accepted as qualifying practice unless it is the full-time practice of the law of the United States and/or any of its states and territories. Persons holding a Virginia Corporate Counsel Certificate under Part I of Rule 1A:5 may receive credit as provided in such Rule. Persons holding a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel Certificate under Rule 1A:9 may receive credit as provided in such Rule.

4. Practice of law. For purposes of admission without examination, “practice of law” ordinarily means (i) private practice as a sole practitioner or for a law firm, legal services office, legal clinic, or similar entity; (ii) practice as an attorney for a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, trust, individual or other entity, provided such practice involved the primary duties of furnishing legal counsel, drafting legal documents and pleadings, interpreting and giving advice regarding the law, and preparing, trying or presenting cases before courts or administrative agencies; (iii) practice as an attorney for the federal or a state or local government with the same primary duties as described above regarding attorneys for a corporation; (iv) employment as a judge for the federal or a state government; (v) service as a judicial law clerk for a state or federal court; or (vi) service on active duty in a branch of the armed forces of the United States as a judge advocate or law specialist, as those terms are defined in the Uniform Code of Military Justice, 10 U.S.C. § 801, as amended, provided that such position requires a valid license to practice law and involves the same primary duties as described above regarding attorneys for a corporation. With the exception of the positions described in (iv) and (v) above, qualifying law practice must have involved an attorney-client relationship and, with the exception of the positions described in (iv), (v) and (vi) above, must have occurred subsequent to having been issued a license to engage in the practice of law in the jurisdiction where the law practice was conducted, unless the applicant establishes, by satisfactory evidence, that such practice is permitted by statute, rule, court order, or by written confirmation from the admitting or disciplinary authority of the jurisdiction where the practice occurred. The applicant must demonstrate that he or she meets the practice of law requirement to the satisfaction of the Board. The Board may require the applicant to produce substantiating evidence which may include, but is not limited to, a detailed description of legal services provided, letters from clients and/or opposing counsel, certification of a judge, samples of work product, and detailed time records. In addition, the Board may require the applicant to appear personally before the Board and furnish such additional information as may be required. For purposes of admission without examination, “practice of law” ordinarily does not mean document review work.

5. Legal Education. The applicant must have received either (i) a J.D. degree from a law school that was approved by the American Bar Association at the time of such applicant’s graduation, or (ii) a J.D. degree from a law school not approved by the American Bar Association at the time of such applicant’s graduation (including a J.D. degree from a foreign law school), and an LL.M. from a law school approved by the American Bar Association at the time of such applicant’s graduation, and passed a bar exam in a state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia.

6. Bar Examination History. The applicant must have failed no more than two bar examinations of any of the states or territories of the United States (including Virginia), or the District of Columbia, and must have failed no bar examination within the five years immediately preceding the application for admission to the Virginia State Bar.

7. Instruction in Virginia Law. The applicant must have completed twelve hours of instruction approved by the Virginia Continuing Legal Education Board on Virginia substantive and/or procedural law within six months immediately prior to filing an application and must have read and be familiar with the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct.

ASSESSMENT OF FITNESS AND PROGRESS

If an applicant provides satisfactory evidence that he or she meets all of the above threshold requirements, the Board will thereafter determine from the evidence provided by the applicant and the results of any investigation conducted by the Board or its designee whether such applicant (i) is a person of honest demeanor and good moral character and possesses the requisite fitness to perform the obligations and responsibilities of a practicing attorney, and (ii) has made such progress in the practice of law that it would be unreasonable to require the applicant to take an examination to demonstrate current minimum competency. The applicant has the burden to prove by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is a person of honest demeanor and good moral character and possesses the requisite fitness to perform the obligations and responsibilities of a practicing attorney and thus is a proper person to practice law in Virginia. If an applicant fails to answer any question on the Character and Fitness

Questionnaire or which is otherwise propounded by the Board, or to supply any requested documentary material, the Board may find that the applicant has not met the burden of proving his or her good moral character.

The primary purposes of character and fitness screening before admission to the Virginia Bar are to assure the protection of the public and safeguard the system of justice. An attorney should be one whose record of conduct justifies the trust of clients, adversaries, courts, and others with respect to the professional duties owed to them. A record manifesting a significant deficiency in the honesty, trustworthiness, diligence, or reliability of an applicant may constitute a basis for denial of admission. The revelation or discovery of any of the following may be treated as cause for further inquiry before the Board decides whether the applicant possesses the character and fitness to practice law:

- A. commission or conviction of a crime;
- B. violation of the honor code of the applicant's college or university, law school, or other academic misconduct;
- C. making of false statements or omissions, including failing to provide complete and accurate information concerning the applicant's past;
- D. misconduct in employment;
- E. other than an honorable discharge from any branch of the armed services;
- F. acts involving dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation;
- G. abuse of legal process;
- H. neglect of financial responsibilities;
- I. neglect of professional obligations;
- J. violation of an order of a court;
- K. denial of admission to the bar in another jurisdiction on character and fitness grounds;
- L. disciplinary action by a lawyer disciplinary agency or other professional disciplinary agency of any jurisdiction, including pending, unresolved disciplinary complaints against the applicant;
- M. commission of an act constituting the unauthorized practice of law, or unresolved complaints involving allegations of the unauthorized practice of law; or
- N. any other conduct which reflects adversely upon the character or fitness of an applicant.

The Board will determine whether the present character and fitness of an applicant qualifies the applicant for admission to the practice of law. In making this determination, the following factors will be considered in assigning weight and significance to the applicant's prior conduct:

- i. age of the applicant at the time of the conduct;
- ii. recency of the conduct;
- iii. reliability of the information concerning the conduct;
- iv. seriousness of the conduct;
- v. factors underlying the conduct;
- vi. cumulative effect of the conduct or information;

- vii. evidence of rehabilitation;
- viii. positive social contributions of the applicant since the conduct;
- ix. candor of the applicant in the admissions process; and
- x. materiality of any omissions or misrepresentations.

In addition, an application will not be approved unless the applicant is a member in good standing of the bar of the Reciprocal Jurisdiction at the time the Board receives the character report and conducts its review of that report. If the applicant's license has ever been suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction, it must be fully reinstated and in good standing (no pending disciplinary charges).

In evaluating whether an applicant has demonstrated satisfactory progress in the practice of law for admission to the practice of law in Virginia without examination, the Board considers whether the following requirements are evident from the information supplied by the applicant and from the investigative report:

1. Knowledge of the fundamental principles of law and the ability to recall that knowledge, to reason, to analyze, and to apply one's knowledge to relevant facts;
2. The ability to communicate clearly, candidly and civilly with clients, attorneys, courts, and others;
3. The ability to exercise good judgment in conducting one's professional business;
4. The ability to conduct oneself with a high degree of honesty, integrity, and trustworthiness in all professional relationships and with respect to all legal obligations;
5. The ability to conduct oneself with respect for and in accordance with the law and the Rules of Professional Conduct;
6. The ability to avoid acts that exhibit disregard for the health, safety and welfare of others;
7. The ability to conduct oneself diligently and reliably in fulfilling all obligations to clients, attorneys, courts, and others;
8. The ability to use honesty and good judgment in financial dealings on behalf of oneself, clients, and others;
9. The ability to comply with deadlines and time constraints; and
10. The ability to conduct oneself professionally and in a manner that engenders respect for the law and the profession.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE A

Rule 1A:4. Out-of-State Lawyers - When Allowed by Comity to Participate in a Case Pro Hac Vice.

1. Introduction. A lawyer who is not a member of the Virginia State Bar, but is currently licensed and authorized to practice law in another state, territory, or possession of the United States of America (hereinafter called an "out-of-state lawyer") may apply to appear as counsel pro hac vice in a particular case before any court, board or administrative agency (hereinafter called "tribunal") in the Commonwealth of Virginia upon compliance with this rule.

2. Association of Local Counsel. No out-of-state lawyer may appear pro hac vice before any tribunal in Virginia unless the out-of-state lawyer has first associated in that case with a lawyer who is an active member in good standing of the Virginia State Bar (hereinafter called "local counsel"). The name of local counsel must appear on all notices, orders, pleadings, and other documents filed in the case. Local counsel must personally appear and participate in pretrial conferences, hearings, trials, or other proceedings actually conducted before the tribunal. Local counsel associating with an out-of-state lawyer in a particular case must accept joint responsibility with the out-of-state lawyer to the client, other parties, witnesses, other counsel and to the tribunal in that particular case. Any pleading or other paper required to be served (whether relating to discovery or otherwise) is invalid unless it is signed by local counsel. The tribunal in which such case is pending has full authority to deal with local counsel exclusively in all matters connected with the pending case. If it becomes necessary to serve notice or process in the case, any notice or process served upon local counsel is valid as if served on the out-of-state lawyer.

3. Procedure for applying. Appearance pro hac vice in a case is subject to the discretion and approval of the tribunal where such case is pending. An out-of-state lawyer desiring to appear pro hac vice under this rule must comply with the procedures set forth herein for each case in which pro hac vice status is requested. For good cause shown, a tribunal may permit an out-of-state lawyer to appear pro hac vice on a temporary basis prior to completion by the out-of-state lawyer of the application procedures set forth herein. At the time such temporary admission is granted, the tribunal will specify a time limit within which the out-of-state lawyer must complete the application procedures, and any temporary pro hac vice admission is deemed revoked in the event the out-of-state lawyer fails to complete the application procedure within the time limit.

(a) Notarized Application. In order to appear pro hac vice as counsel in any matter pending before a tribunal in the Commonwealth of Virginia, an out-of-state lawyer must deliver to local counsel to file with the tribunal an original notarized application and a non-refundable application fee of $250.00 payable to the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Pro hac vice counsel must submit a notarized application with the non-refundable application fee of $250.00 for each separate case before a tribunal. The fee must be paid to the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia. The tribunal must file a copy of the notarized application, as well order granting pro hac vice admission in the case and the $250.00 fee, with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia. Original, notarized applications and orders granting, denying or revoking applications to appear pro hac vice must be retained in a separate file containing all applications. The clerk of the tribunal must maintain the application for a period of three years after completion of the case and all appeals.

(b) Motion to associate counsel pro hac vice. Local counsel must file a motion to associate the out-of-state lawyer as counsel pro hac vice with the tribunal where the case is pending, together with proof of service on all parties in accordance with the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. The motion of local counsel must be accompanied by: (1) the original, notarized application of the out-of-state lawyer; (2) a proposed order granting or denying the motion; and (3) the required application fee.

(c) Entry of Order. The order granting or denying the motion to associate counsel pro hac vice must be entered by the tribunal promptly and a copy of the order must be forwarded to the Clerk of the Supreme Court. An out-of-state lawyer may make no appearance in a case until the tribunal where the case is pending enters the order granting the motion to associate counsel pro hac vice unless temporary admission has been approved pursuant to this rule. The order granting pro hac vice status is valid until the case is concluded in the courts of this Commonwealth or a court revokes the pro hac vice admission.

4. Notarized Application. The notarized application required by this rule must be on a form approved by the Supreme Court of Virginia and available at the office of the clerk of the tribunal where the case is pending.

5. Discretion and Limitation on Number of Matters. The grant or denial of a motion pursuant to this rule by the tribunal is discretionary. The tribunal should deny the motion if the out-of-state lawyer has been previously admitted pro hac vice before any tribunal or tribunals in Virginia in twelve (12) cases within the last twelve (12) months preceding the date of the current application. In the enforcement of this limitation, the tribunal may consider whether the pending case is a related or consolidated matter for which the out-of-state lawyer has previously applied to appear pro hac vice. Before ruling on a pro hac vice motion, the tribunal will verify with the Supreme Court of Virginia the number of cases during the preceding twelve (12) months in which the out-of-state lawyer was admitted in Virginia pro hac vice.

6. Transfer of Venue and Appeal. The out-of-state lawyer's pro hac vice admission will be deemed to continue in the event the venue in the case or proceeding is transferred to another tribunal or is appealed; provided, however, that the tribunal having jurisdiction over such transferred or appealed case has the discretion to revoke the authority of the out-of-state lawyer to appear pro hac vice.

7. Duty to Report Status. An out-of-state lawyer admitted pro hac vice has a continuing obligation during the period of such admission to advise the tribunal promptly of any disposition made of pending disciplinary charges or the institution of any new disciplinary proceedings or investigations. The tribunal must advise the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia if the tribunal denies or revokes the out-of-state lawyer's permission to appear pro hac vice.

8. Record-keeping. The Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia will maintain an electronic database necessary for the administration and enforcement of this rule.

9. Disciplinary Jurisdiction of the Virginia State Bar. An out-of-state lawyer admitted pro hac vice pursuant to this rule is subject to the jurisdiction of all tribunals and agencies of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the Virginia State Bar, with respect to the laws and rules of Virginia governing the conduct and discipline of out-of-state lawyers to the same extent as an active member of the Virginia State Bar. An applicant or out-of-state lawyer admitted pro hac vice may be disciplined in the same manner as a member of the Virginia State Bar.

10. In-State Services Related to Out-of-State Proceedings. Subject to the requirements and limitations of Rule 5.5 of the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct, an out-of-state lawyer may provide the following services without the entry of a pro hac vice order:

(a) In connection with a proceeding pending outside of Virginia, an out-of-state lawyer admitted to appear in that proceeding may render legal services in Virginia pertaining to or in aid of such proceeding.

(b) In connection with a case in which an out-of-state lawyer reasonably believes he is eligible for admission pro hac vice under this rule: (1) the out-of-state lawyer may consult in Virginia with a member of the Virginia State Bar concerning a pending or potential proceeding in Virginia; (2) the out-of-state lawyer may, at the request of a person in Virginia contemplating or involved in a proceeding in Virginia, consult with that person about that person's retention of the out-of-state lawyer in connection with that proceeding; and (3) on behalf of a client residing in Virginia or elsewhere, the out-of-state lawyer may render legal services in Virginia in preparation for a potential case to be filed in Virginia.

(c) An out-of-state lawyer may render legal services to prepare for and participate in an ADR process, regardless of where the ADR process or proceeding is expected to take place or actually takes place.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

(6) the requisite documentation establishing the applicant's compliance with the immigration laws of the United States; and

(7) such other evidence as to the applicant's educational and professional qualifications, good moral character and general fitness, and compliance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this rule as the Board may require.

(c) Reciprocal Treatment of Members of the Bar of this Commonwealth. In considering whether to certify an applicant to practice as a foreign legal consultant, the Board may in its discretion take into account whether a member of the Bar would have a reasonable and practical opportunity to establish an office and give legal advice to clients in the applicant's country of admission. Any member of the Bar who is seeking or has sought to establish an office or give advice in that country may request the Board to consider the matter, or the Board may do so sua sponte.

(d) Scope of Practice. A person certified to practice as foreign legal consultant under this Rule may render legal services in the Commonwealth only with regard to matters involving the law of foreign nation(s) in which the person is admitted to practice or international law. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "international law" means a body of laws, rules or legal principles that are based on custom, treaties or legislation and that control or affect (1) the rights and duties of nations in relation to other nations or their citizens, or (2) the rights and obligations pertaining to international transactions.

The practice permitted under this rule does not authorize the foreign legal consultant to appear in court.

(e) Rights and Obligations. Subject to the scope of practice limitations set forth in paragraph (d) of this rule, a person certified as a foreign legal consultant under this rule is entitled and subject to:

(1) the rights and obligations contained in the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct as set forth in Part 6, Section II of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia; and the procedure for disciplining attorneys as set forth in Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia

(2) the rights and obligations of a member of the Bar with respect to:

(i) affiliation in the same law firm with one or more members of the bar of this Commonwealth, including by:

(A) employing one or more members of the Bar;

(B) being employed by one or more members of the Bar or by any partnership or other limited liability entity authorized to practice law pursuant to Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 14 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, which such entity includes an active member of the Bar or which maintains an office in this Commonwealth;

(C) being a director, partner, member, manager or shareholder in any partnership or other professional limited liability entity authorized by Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 14 to practice law in this Commonwealth which includes an active member of the Bar or which maintains an office in this Commonwealth;

(ii) employment as in-house counsel under Part II of Rule 1A:5;

(iii) attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege and similar professional privileges.

(3) No time spent practicing as a foreign legal consultant will be considered in determining eligibility for admission to the Virginia bar without examination.

(f) Disciplinary Provisions. A person certified to practice as a foreign legal consultant under this Rule is subject to professional discipline in the same manner and to the same extent as any member of the Bar and to this end:

(1) Every person certified to practice as a foreign legal consultant under these Rules:

(i) is subject to regulation by the Bar and to admonition, reprimand, suspension, removal or revocation of his or her certificate to practice in accordance with the rules of procedure for disciplinary proceedings set forth in Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia; and

(ii) must execute and file with the Bar, in such form and manner as the Bar may prescribe:

(A) his or her commitment to observe the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct and any other rules of court governing members of the bar to the extent they may be applicable to the legal services authorized under paragraph (d) of this Rule;

(B) a written undertaking to notify the Bar of any change in such person's good standing as a member of any foreign legal profession referred to in paragraph (a)(1) of this rule and of any final action of any professional body or governmental authority referred to in paragraph (b)(2) of this rule imposing any disciplinary censure, suspension, or other sanction upon such person; and

(C) a duly acknowledged instrument, in writing, setting forth his or her address in this Commonwealth which must be both his or her address of record with the Bar and such person's actual place of business for rendering services authorized by this rule. Such address must be one where process can be served and the foreign legal consultant has a duty to promptly notify the Membership Department of the Bar in writing of any changes in his or her address of record.

(g) Application and Renewal Fees. An applicant for a certificate as a foreign legal consultant under this rule must pay to the Virginia Board of Bar Examiners the application fee and costs as may be fixed from time to time by the Board. A person certified as a foreign legal consultant must pay an annual fee to the Virginia State Bar which will also be fixed by the Supreme Court of Virginia. A person certified as a foreign legal consultant who fails to complete and file the renewal form supplied by the Bar or pay the annual fee will have his or her certificate as a foreign legal consultant administratively suspended in accordance with the procedures set out in Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 19 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia.

(h) Revocation of Certificate for Non-Compliance. In the event that the Bar determines that a person certified as a foreign legal consultant under this rule no longer meets the requirements under this rule, it will revoke the certificate granted to such person hereunder.

(i) Reinstatement. Any foreign legal consultant whose authority to practice is suspended may be reinstated upon evidence satisfactory to the Bar that such person is in full compliance with this rule; however, a reinstatement of a foreign legal consultant's certificate following a suspension for non-compliance with paragraph (g) of this rule is governed by Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 19 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia; and reinstatement of a foreign legal consultant's certificate following a disciplinary suspension or revocation is governed by Part Six, Section IV, Paragraph 13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia.

(j) Admission to Bar. In the event that a person certified as a foreign legal consultant under this rule is subsequently admitted as a member of the Bar under the provisions of the rules governing such admission, the certificate granted to such person hereunder is deemed superseded by the admission of such person to the Bar.

(k) Regulations. The Bar and the Board may adopt regulations as needed to implement their respective responsibilities under this rule.

(l) Effective Date. This rule becomes effective on January 1, 2009.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

The Board having certified that all prerequisites have been complied with, the applicant for provisional admission will, upon payment of applicable dues and completion of the other membership obligations set forth in Part 6, Section IV of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, become an active member of the Virginia State Bar. An attorney provisionally admitted pursuant to this Rule is subject to the same membership obligations as other active members of the Virginia State Bar, and all legal services provided in Virginia by a lawyer admitted pursuant to this Rule are deemed the practice of law and subject the attorney to all rules governing the practice of law in Virginia, including the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct.

(i) The spouse’s discharge, separation or retirement from active duty in the United States Uniformed Services, or the spouse’s no longer being on military orders stationed in the Commonwealth of Virginia or the National Capitol region as defined by the Department of Defense;

(iii) The military spouse dies.

5. Notices Required. —

(a) An attorney provisionally admitted under this Rule must provide written notice to the Virginia State Bar of any Event of Termination within thirty days of the occurrence thereof.

(ii) file in each matter pending before any court or tribunal in this Commonwealth a notice that the attorney will no longer be involved in the matter, which must include the substitution of such other attorney licensed to practice law in Virginia selected by the client, as counsel in the place of the provisionally admitted attorney.

6. Benefits and Responsibilities. — An attorney provisionally admitted under this Rule is entitled to the benefits and be subject to all responsibilities and obligations of active members of the Virginia State Bar, and is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts and agencies of the Commonwealth of Virginia and to the Virginia State Bar with respect to the laws and rules of this Commonwealth governing the conduct and discipline of attorneys to the same extent as an active member of the Virginia State Bar. The period of time a lawyer practices law under a Military Spouse Provisional Certificate issued pursuant to this rule will be considered in determining whether the lawyer has fulfilled the active practice of law requirement for admission to practice law in Virginia without examination pursuant to Rule 1A:1 and any guidelines approved by the Supreme Court of Virginia for review of applications for admission without examination.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART ONE A
FOREIGN ATTORNEYS

Rule 1A:9. Virginia Legal Aid Counsel.

Introduction

Notwithstanding any rule of this Court to the contrary, any person employed in Virginia as a lawyer exclusively for a Virginia Licensed Legal Aid Society, for the purpose of providing free and reduced fee legal services, and who is not and has not been a fully admitted member of the Virginia State Bar, may be issued a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate as provided in this rule. For purposes of this rule, “Legal Aid Employer” is a Virginia Licensed Legal Aid Society. A person holding a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate shall be considered an active member of the Virginia State Bar for all matters undertaken on behalf of the clients of a Legal Aid Employer. Nothing in this rule shall be interpreted to prevent Legal Aid Societies from employing lawyers for practice before courts or tribunals who are permitted by law to so appear and practice by the rules of those courts or tribunals, nor does this rule otherwise determine whether a lawyer must be admitted to the Virginia State Bar. See Rule of Professional Conduct 5.5.

a. A lawyer admitted to the practice of law in a state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia (for purposes of this rule, a “State”), may apply to the Virginia Board of Bar Examiners (“Board”) for a certificate as a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel (“Legal Aid Counsel Certificate”) to practice in Virginia when the lawyer is employed by a Legal Aid Employer in Virginia.

b. Required Evidence. Each applicant for a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate must file with the Secretary of the Board an application under oath on a form furnished by the Board and must submit evidence satisfactory to the Board that the applicant:

(1) has been admitted by examination to practice law before the court of last resort of any State;

(2) holds a Juris Doctor degree from a law school that was accredited by the American Bar Association at the time of the lawyer’s graduation;

(3) is currently an active member of the bar and in good standing in at least one State, and is in good standing in all jurisdictions where the applicant has been admitted;

(4) has practiced law continuously in another jurisdiction for at least two years preceding the lawyer’s application for a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate under this Rule;

(5) is not currently subject to lawyer discipline or the subject of a pending disciplinary matter in any jurisdiction;

(6) possesses the good moral character and general fitness to practice law in Virginia, and has submitted all requested information, in a manner and to the extent established by the Board, including all required supporting documents;

(7) has read and is familiar with the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct;

(8) has paid such fees as may be set by the Board to cover the costs of the character and fitness investigation and the processing of the application; and

(9) has filed an affidavit, upon a form furnished by the Board, from an officer of the applicant's Legal Aid Employer attesting that the applicant will be employed as legal counsel to provide free and reduced fee legal services exclusively on behalf of the Legal Aid Employer; that the applicant will be supervised for a minimum of two years by a licensed attorney employed by the Legal Aid Employer; that the nature of the applicant's employment will conform to the requirements of this rule; and that the Legal Aid Employer will notify the Virginia State Bar in writing immediately upon the termination of the applicant's employment.

c. Provisional Status. From the date on which the Board receives an application for a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel Certificate until the applicant is notified that either (i) the lawyer's application is rejected; or (ii) the lawyer is eligible to be issued a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate, the applicant may be employed in Virginia as Virginia Legal Aid Counsel on a provisional basis by a Legal Aid Employer. After receiving provisional approval from the Board, the applicant may practice on a provisional basis, including appearing in court without supervision; provided, however, that the Board may suspend an applicant's provisional status pending completion of the character and fitness review. To appear in court while on provisional status, the applicant must first take the oath required of attorneys which can be administered by a judge pursuant to Virginia Code § 54.1-3903.

d. Admission. Upon a finding by the Board that the applicant has complied with the requirements of Part (b) of this rule, the Board will notify the applicant that the applicant is eligible to be issued a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate. After the applicant has taken and subscribed to the oath required of attorneys and administered pursuant to Virginia Code § 54.1-3903, the applicant will be issued a Legal Aid Counsel Certificate, which will permit the applicant to practice law in Virginia solely as provided in Part (e) of this rule. The applicant may take the required oath by appearing before the Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia at an appointed date and time.

e. Scope. The practice of a lawyer certified pursuant to this rule will be limited to employment by the Legal Aid Employer furnishing the affidavit required by Part (b)(9) of this rule, including appearing before a Virginia court or tribunal as counsel for clients of the Legal Aid Employer. No lawyer certified pursuant to this rule may (i) undertake to represent any person other than a client of the applicant's Legal Aid Employer before a Virginia court or tribunal; (ii) offer or provide legal services in Virginia to any person other than a client of the applicant's Legal Aid Employer; or (iii) hold themselves out to be authorized to provide legal services or advice in Virginia to any person other than a client of the applicant's Legal Aid Employer. For purposes of this rule, a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel may appear in court without the presence of a supervisor.

f. Rights and Obligations. Upon registration with the Virginia State Bar, a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel will immediately become an active member of the Virginia State Bar, with the applicant's practice limited as provided in Part (e) of this rule, and must pay to the Virginia State Bar the annual dues required of active members of the Virginia State Bar.

(1) All legal services provided in Virginia by a lawyer practicing pursuant to this rule will be deemed the practice of law in Virginia and will subject the lawyer to all rules and regulations governing the practice of law in Virginia and the jurisdictional authority of the Virginia State Bar.

(2) A Virginia Legal Aid Counsel will be subject to the same membership obligations as other active members of the Virginia State Bar, including Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements. A Virginia Legal Aid Counsel must use as the address of record with the Virginia State Bar a business address in Virginia of the Legal Aid that employs the lawyer.

(3) A Virginia Legal Aid Counsel must promptly report to the Virginia State Bar any change in employment, change in bar membership status in any State, or the imposition of any disciplinary sanction in any State or by any federal court or agency before which the lawyer has been admitted to practice.

(4) The period of practice as a Virginia Legal Aid Counsel will be considered in determining whether the lawyer has fulfilled the active practice of law requirement for admission to practice law in Virginia without examination pursuant to Rule 1A:1 and any guidelines approved by the Supreme Court of Virginia for review of applications for admission without examination.

g. Termination. A lawyer's authority to practice law pursuant to this rule will be automatically suspended when (i) employment by the Legal Aid Employer is terminated, (ii) the lawyer fails to comply with any provision of this rule, or (iii) when the lawyer is suspended or disbarred in any State or by any federal court or agency before which the lawyer has been admitted to practice. Any Virginia Legal Aid Counsel whose authority to practice is suspended pursuant to (i) above will be reinstated upon evidence satisfactory to the Virginia State Bar that the lawyer is in full compliance with the requirements of this rule. Any Virginia Legal Aid Counsel whose authority to practice is suspended pursuant to (ii) above may be reinstated by compliance with applicable provisions of Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 19 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. Any Virginia Legal Aid Counsel whose authority to practice is suspended or terminated under (iii) above must petition for reinstatement pursuant to Part 6, Section IV, Paragraph 13-25 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia.

h. The Board and the Virginia State Bar may adopt regulations as needed to implement the requirements of this rule.

Promulgated by Order dated January 11, 2022; effective March 12, 2022.

(b) Relevancy conditioned on proof of connecting facts. Whenever the relevancy of evidence depends upon proof of connecting facts, the court may admit the evidence upon or, in the court's discretion, subject to, the introduction of proof sufficient to support a finding of the connecting facts.

(c) Hearing of jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions in all criminal cases must be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters in all cases must be so conducted whenever a statute, rule, case law or the interests of justice require, or when an accused is a witness and so requests.

Adopted and promulgated by Order dated June 1, 2012; effective July 1, 2012.

VIRGINIA RULES OF EVIDENCE

ARTICLE I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 2:107. Ultrahazardous Items as Exhibits

(a) Ultrahazardous items may not be brought into any courtroom as exhibits without leave of the court for good cause shown. Ultrahazardous items are those substances or devices the presence of which in the courtroom, notwithstanding reasonable safety precautions, could pose a significant threat to human health, including, but not limited to, explosives, explosive devices, biological or chemical toxins, and highly potent controlled substances such as fentanyl and carfentanil that are toxic by their nature or quantity.

(b) Photographs or reasonable facsimiles of ultrahazardous items are admissible in any proceeding, hearing or trial to the same extent as if such ultrahazardous items themselves were being introduced as evidence. Such photographs must fairly and accurately depict the ultrahazardous items and clearly include scale for the size of the items depicted. "Reasonable facsimiles" are models that substantially replicate the actual ultrahazardous items in appearance and are of a scale of 1:1. All facsimiles must be clearly labeled as facsimiles. This rule does not excuse the party offering such evidence from proving chain of custody but that party is not required to produce ultrahazardous items to establish chain of custody. Regardless of whether a party offers photographs or facsimiles of ultrahazardous items under this rule, a party may offer properly authenticated photographs of ultrahazardous items as part of its proof on the issue of chain of custody.

(c) In any trial or hearing in which a party intends to offer photographs or facsimiles of ultrahazardous items into evidence, that party must:

1. Provide by mail, delivery, or otherwise, notice of such intent and a copy of such photographs or a description of the proposed facsimiles to counsel of record for the other party, or directly to a party who is proceeding pro se, at no charge, no later than 28 days before the hearing or trial, and promptly permit the other party to inspect the proposed facsimile; and
2. File a copy of the notice and photographs or description of the proposed facsimiles with the clerk of the court hearing the matter on the day that the notice is provided to the other party.

(d) If the opposing party objects to the introduction of a photograph or proposed facsimile, that party must file written notice of its objection with the court hearing the matter, with a copy to the other party, no later than 14 days after the notice and photographs required under subsection (c) were filed with the clerk by the other party. Upon filing of a timely objection, the court must conduct a pre-trial hearing to determine whether the photograph or proposed facsimile may be introduced as evidence, unless the parties with the concurrence of the court agree to consider the objection during the trial.

(e) If either party wishes that an ultrahazardous item itself be introduced as evidence in lieu of photographs or facsimiles, that party must file a motion with the court hearing the matter, with a copy to the other party. Such a motion by the Commonwealth or plaintiff must be filed no more than 28 days before the trial or hearing, and if by the defendant or respondent, no more than 14 days after the notice and photographs required under subsection (c) were filed with the clerk by the other party.

Upon timely motion, the court must conduct a pre-trial hearing to determine whether good cause exists to allow ultrahazardous items themselves to be brought into the courtroom and introduced as evidence.

(1) Character trait of accused. Evidence of a pertinent character trait of the accused offered by the accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same;

(2) Character trait of victim. Except as provided in Rule 2:412, evidence of a pertinent character trait or acts of violence by the victim of the crime offered by an accused who has adduced evidence of self defense, or by the prosecution (i) to rebut defense evidence, or (ii) in a criminal case when relevant as circumstantial evidence to establish the death of the victim when other evidence is unavailable; or

Rule 2:412. ADMISSIBILITY OF COMPLAINING WITNESS' PRIOR SEXUAL CONDUCT; CRIMINAL SEXUAL ASSAULT CASES; RELEVANCE OF PAST BEHAVIOR (derived from Code § 18.2-67.7).

(a) In prosecutions under Article 7, Chapter 4 of Title 18.2 of the Code of Virginia, under clause (iii) or (iv) of § 18.2-48, or under §§ 18.2-370, 18.2-370.01, or 18.2-370.1, general reputation or opinion evidence of the complaining witness' unchaste character or prior sexual conduct must not be admitted. Unless the complaining witness voluntarily agrees otherwise, evidence of specific instances of his or her prior sexual conduct may be admitted only if it is relevant and is:

1. Evidence offered to provide an alternative explanation for physical evidence of the offense charged which is introduced by the prosecution, limited to evidence designed to explain the presence of semen, pregnancy, disease, or physical injury to the complaining witness' intimate parts; or
2. Evidence of sexual conduct between the complaining witness and the accused offered to support a contention that the alleged offense was not accomplished by force, threat or intimidation or through the use of the complaining witness' mental incapacity or physical helplessness, provided that the sexual conduct occurred within a period of time reasonably proximate to the offense charged under the circumstances of this case; or
3. Evidence offered to rebut evidence of the complaining witness' prior sexual conduct introduced by the prosecution.

(b) Nothing contained in this Rule prohibits the accused from presenting evidence relevant to show that the complaining witness had a motive to fabricate the charge against the accused. If such evidence relates to the past sexual conduct of the complaining witness with a person other than the accused, it may not be admitted and may not be referred to at any preliminary hearing or trial unless the party offering same files a written notice generally describing the evidence prior to the introduction of any evidence, or the opening statement of either counsel, whichever first occurs, at the preliminary hearing or trial at which the admission of the evidence may be sought.

(c) Evidence described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this Rule may not be admitted and may not be referred to at any preliminary hearing or trial until the court first determines the admissibility of that evidence at an evidentiary hearing to be held before the evidence is introduced at such preliminary hearing or trial. The court must exclude from the evidentiary hearing all persons except the accused, the complaining witness, other necessary witnesses, and required court personnel. If the court determines that the evidence meets the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) of this Rule, is admissible before the judge or jury trying the case in the ordinary course of the preliminary hearing or trial. If the court initially determines that the evidence is inadmissible, but new information is discovered during the course of the preliminary hearing or trial which may make such evidence admissible, the court must determine in an evidentiary hearing whether such evidence is admissible.

Rule 2:504. Spousal Testimony and Marital Communications Privileges (Rule 2:504(a) derived from Code § 8.01-398; and Rule 2:504(b) derived from Code § 19.2-271.2).

(a) Privileged Marital Communications in Civil Cases.

1. Persons married to each other are competent witnesses to testify for or against each other in all civil actions.

2. In any civil proceeding, a person has a privilege to refuse to disclose, and to prevent anyone else from disclosing, any confidential communication between such person and his or her spouse during their marriage, regardless of whether such person is married to that spouse at the time he or she objects to disclosure. This privilege may not be asserted in any proceeding in which the spouses are adverse parties, or in which either spouse is charged with a crime or tort against the person or property of the other or against the minor child of either spouse. For the purposes of this Rule, “confidential communication” means a communication made privately by a person to his or her spouse that is not intended for disclosure to any other person.

(b) Spousal Testimony in Criminal Cases.

1. In criminal cases persons married to each other are allowed, and, subject to the Rules of Evidence governing other witnesses, may be compelled to testify in behalf of each other, but neither may be compelled to be called as a witness against the other, except (i) in the case of a prosecution for an offense committed by one against the other, against a minor child of either, or against the property of either; (ii) in any case where either is charged with forgery of the name of the other or uttering or attempting to utter a writing bearing the allegedly forged signature of the other; or (iii) in any proceeding relating to a violation of the laws pertaining to criminal sexual assault (§§ 18.2-61 through 18.2-67.10), crimes against nature (§ 18.2-361) involving a minor as a victim and provided the defendant and the victim are not married to each other, incest (§ 18.2-366), or abuse of children (§§ 18.2-370 through 18.2-371). The failure of either spouse to testify, however, creates no presumption against the accused, and may not be the subject of any comment before the court or jury by any attorney.

2. Except in the prosecution for a criminal offense as set forth in subsections (b)(1)(i), (ii) and (iii) above, in any criminal proceeding, a person has a privilege to refuse to disclose, and to prevent anyone else from disclosing, any confidential communication between such person and his or her spouse during their marriage, regardless of whether the person is married to that spouse at the time the person objects to disclosure. For the purposes of this Rule, “confidential communication” means a communication made privately by a person to his or her spouse that is not intended for disclosure to any other person.

VIRGINIA RULES OF EVIDENCE

ARTICLE V. PRIVILEGES

Rule 2:505. Healing Arts Practitioner and Patient Privilege (derived from Code § 8.01-399).

The scope and application of the privilege between a patient and a physician or practitioner of the healing arts in a civil case are as set forth in any specific statutory provisions, including Code § 8.01-399, as amended from time to time, which presently provides:

(a) Except at the request or with the consent of the patient, or as provided in this section, no duly licensed practitioner of any branch of the healing arts is permitted to testify in any civil action, respecting any information that he may have acquired in attending, examining or treating the patient in a professional capacity.

(b) If the physical or mental condition of the patient is at issue in a civil action, the diagnoses, signs and symptoms, observations, evaluations, histories, or treatment plan of the practitioner, obtained or formulated as contemporaneously documented during the course of the practitioner's treatment, together with the facts communicated to, or otherwise learned by, such practitioner in connection with such attendance, examination or treatment may be disclosed but only in discovery pursuant to the Rules of Court or through testimony at the trial of the action. In addition, disclosure may be ordered when a court, in the exercise of sound discretion, deems it necessary to the proper administration of justice. However, no order may be entered compelling a party to sign a release for medical records from a health care provider unless the health care provider is not located in the Commonwealth or is a federal facility. If an order is issued pursuant to this section, it must be restricted to the medical records that relate to the physical or mental conditions at issue in the case. No disclosure of diagnosis or treatment plan facts communicated to, or otherwise learned by, such practitioner may occur if the court determines, upon the request of the patient, that such facts are not relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action or do not appear to be reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Only diagnosis offered to a reasonable degree of medical probability is admissible at trial.

(c) This section will not (i) be construed to repeal or otherwise affect the provisions of § 65.2-607 relating to privileged communications between physicians and surgeons and employees under the Workers' Compensation Act; (ii) apply to information communicated to any such practitioner in an effort unlawfully to procure a narcotic drug, or unlawfully to procure the administration of any such drug; or (iii) prohibit a duly licensed practitioner of the healing arts, or his agents, from disclosing information as required by state or federal law.

(d) Neither a lawyer nor anyone acting on the lawyer's behalf may obtain, in connection with pending or threatened litigation, information concerning a patient from a practitioner of any branch of the healing arts without the consent of the patient, except through discovery pursuant to the Rules of Supreme Court as herein provided. However, the prohibition of this subsection does not apply to:

1. Communication between a lawyer retained to represent a practitioner of the healing arts, or that lawyer's agent, and that practitioner's employers, partners, agents, servants, employees, co-employees or others for whom, at law, the practitioner is or may be liable or who, at law, are or may be liable for the practitioner's acts or omissions;

2. Information about a patient provided to a lawyer or his agent by a practitioner of the healing arts employed by that lawyer to examine or evaluate the patient in accordance with Rule 4:10 of the Rules of Supreme Court; or

3. Contact between a lawyer or his agent and a nonphysician employee or agent of a practitioner of healing arts for any of the following purposes: (i) scheduling appearances, (ii) requesting a written recitation by the practitioner of handwritten records obtained by the lawyer or his agent from the practitioner, provided the request is made in writing and, if litigation is pending, a copy of the request and the practitioner's response is provided simultaneously to the patient or his attorney, (iii) obtaining information necessary to obtain service upon the practitioner in pending litigation, (iv) determining when records summoned will be provided by the practitioner or his agent, (v) determining what patient records the practitioner possesses in order to summons records in pending litigation, (vi) explaining any summons that the lawyer or his agent caused to be issued and served on the practitioner, (vii) verifying dates the practitioner treated the patient, provided that if litigation is pending the information obtained by the lawyer or his agent is promptly given, in writing, to the patient or his attorney, (viii) determining charges by the practitioner for appearance at a deposition or to testify before any tribunal or administrative body, or (ix) providing to or obtaining from the practitioner directions to a place to which he is or will be summoned to give testimony.

(e) A clinical psychologist duly licensed under the provisions of Chapter 36 (§ 54.1-3600 et seq.) of Title 54.1 is considered a practitioner of a branch of the healing arts within the meaning of this section.

(f) Nothing herein prevents a duly licensed practitioner of the healing arts, or his agents, from disclosing any information that he may have acquired in attending, examining or treating a patient in a professional capacity where such disclosure is necessary in connection with the care of the patient, the protection or enforcement of a practitioner's legal rights including such rights with respect to medical malpractice actions, or the operations of a health care facility or health maintenance organization or in order to comply with state or federal law.

(a) In general. Subject to the provisions of Rule 2:403, the credibility of a witness may be impeached by any party other than the one calling the witness, with any proof that is relevant to the witness's credibility. Impeachment may be undertaken, among other means, by:

(i) introduction of evidence of the witness's bad general reputation for the traits of truth and veracity, as provided in Rule 2:608(a) and (b);

(ii) evidence of prior conviction, as provided in Rule 2:609;

(v) evidence of bias as provided in Rule 2:610;

(vi) prior inconsistent statements as provided in 2:613;

Impeachment pursuant to subdivisions (a)(i) and (ii) of this Rule may not be undertaken by a party who has called an adverse witness.

(b) Specific instances of conduct; extrinsic proof. Except as otherwise provided in this Rule, by other principles of evidence, or by statute, (1) specific instances of the conduct of a witness may not be used to attack or support credibility; and (2) specific instances of the conduct of a witness may not be proved by extrinsic evidence.

(a) Examining witness concerning prior oral statement.

(i) Prior oral statements of witnesses. In examining a witness in any civil or criminal case concerning a prior oral statement, the circumstances of the supposed statement, sufficient to designate the particular occasion, must be mentioned to the witness, and the witness must be asked whether the statement was made.

(ii) Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent oral statement of witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent oral statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is first given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement and the opposing party is given an opportunity to interrogate the witness thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party opponent.

Extrinsic evidence of a witness' prior inconsistent statement is not admissible unless the witness denies or does not remember the prior inconsistent statement. Extrinsic evidence of collateral statements is not admissible.

(b) Contradiction by prior inconsistent writing.

(i) General rule. In any civil or criminal case, a witness may be cross-examined as to previous statements made by the witness in writing or reduced to writing, relating to the subject matter of the action, without such writing being shown to the witness; but if the intent is to contradict such witness by the writing, his or her attention must, before such contradictory proof can be given, be called to the particular occasion on which the writing is supposed to have been made; the witness may be asked whether he or she made a writing of the purport of the one to be offered, and if the witness denies making it, or does not admit its execution, it must then be shown to the witness, and if the witness admits its genuineness, the witness must be allowed to make an explanation of it; but the court may, at any time during the trial, require the production of the writing for its inspection, and the court may then make such use of it for the purpose of the trial as it may think best.

(ii) Personal Injury or Wrongful Death Cases. Notwithstanding the general principles stated in this subpart (b), in an action to recover for personal injury or wrongful death, no ex parte affidavit or statement in writing other than a deposition, after due notice, of a witness and no extrajudicial recording made at any time other than simultaneously with the wrongful act or negligence at issue of the voice of such witness, or reproduction or transcript thereof, as to the facts or circumstances attending the wrongful act or neglect complained of, may be

(d) Prior statements. When a party or non-party witness testifies either live or by deposition, a prior statement (whether under oath or not) is hearsay if offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matters it asserts, but may be received in evidence for all purposes if the statement is admissible under any hearsay exception provided in Rules 2:803 or 2:804. In addition, if not excluded under another Rule of Evidence or a statute, a prior hearsay statement may also be admitted as follows:

(1) Prior inconsistent statements. A prior statement that is inconsistent with the hearing testimony of the witness is admissible for impeachment of the witness's credibility when offered in compliance with Rule 2:613.

(A) the witness has been impeached using a prior inconsistent statement as provided in Rule 2:607, Rule 2:613 and/or subpart (d)(1) of this Rule 801, or

(B) (i) the witness has been impeached based on alleged improper influence, or a motive to falsify testimony, such as bias, interest, corruption or relationship to a party or a cause, or by an express or implied charge that the in-court testimony is a recent fabrication; and

(ii) the proponent of the prior statement shows that it was made before any litigation motive arose for the witness to make a false statement.

(5) Recorded recollection. Except as provided by statute, a memorandum or record concerning a matter about which a witness once had firsthand knowledge made or adopted by the witness at or near the time of the event and while the witness had a clear and accurate memory of it, if the witness lacks a present recollection of the event, and the witness vouches for the accuracy of the written memorandum. If admitted, the memorandum or record may be read into evidence but may not itself be received as an exhibit unless offered by an adverse party.

(6) Records of a Regularly Conducted Activity. A record of acts, events, calculations, or conditions if:

(A) the record was made at or near the time of the acts, events, calculations, or conditions by--or from information transmitted by-- someone with knowledge;

(C) making and keeping the record was a regular practice of that activity;

(D) all these conditions are shown by the testimony of the custodian or another qualified witness, or by a certification that complies with Rule 2:902(6) or with a statute permitting certification; and

(E) neither the source of information nor the method or circumstances of preparation indicate a lack of trustworthiness.

(7) Reserved.

(9) Records of vital statistics. Records or data compilations, in any form, of births, fetal deaths, deaths, or marriages, if the report was made to a public office pursuant to requirements of law.

(10) Absence of entries in public records and reports.

An affidavit signed by an officer, or the deputy thereof, deemed to have custody of records of this Commonwealth, of another state, of the United States, of another country, or of any political subdivision or agency of the same, other than those located in a clerk's office of a court, stating that after a diligent search, no record or entry of such record is found to exist among the records in such office is admissible as evidence that the office has no such record or entry.

(b) Criminal Cases. In any criminal hearing or trial, an affidavit signed by a government official who is competent to testify, deemed to have custody of an official record, or signed by such official's designee, stating that after a diligent search, no record or entry of such record is found to exist among the records in such official's custody, is admissible as evidence that the office has no such record or entry, provided that if the hearing or trial is a proceeding other than a preliminary hearing the procedures set forth in subsection G of § 18.2-472.1 for admission of an affidavit have been satisfied, mutatis mutandis, and the accused has not objected to the admission of the affidavit pursuant to the procedures set forth in subsection H of § 18.2-472.1, mutatis mutandis. Nothing in this subsection (b) affects the admissibility of affidavits in civil cases under subsection (a) of this Rule.

(11) Records of religious organizations. Statements of births, marriages, divorces, deaths, legitimacy, ancestry, relationship by blood or marriage, or other similar facts of personal or family history, contained in a regularly kept record of a religious organization.

(12) Marriage, baptismal, and similar certificates. Statements of fact contained in a certificate that the maker performed a marriage or other ceremony or administered a sacrament, made by a clergyman, public official, or other person authorized by the rules or practices of a religious organization or by law to perform the act certified, and purporting to have been issued at the time of the act or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(13) Family records. Statements of fact concerning personal or family history contained in family bibles, genealogies, charts, engravings on rings, inscriptions on family portraits, engravings on urns, crypts, or tombstones, or the like.

(14) Records of documents affecting an interest in property. The record of a document purporting to establish or affect an interest in property, as proof of the content of the original recorded document and its execution, and delivery by each person by whom it purports to have been executed, if the record is a record of a public office and an applicable statute authorizes the recording of documents of that kind in that office.

(15) Statements in documents affecting an interest in property. (17) Market quotations. Whenever the prevailing price or value of any goods regularly bought and sold in any established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of such market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown.

(18) Learned treatises. See Rule 2:706.

(21) Judgment as to personal, family, or general history, or boundaries. Judgments as proof of matters of personal, family or general history, or boundaries, essential to the judgment, if the same would be provable by evidence of reputation.

(22) Statement of identification by witness. The declarant testifies at the trial or hearing and is subject to cross-examination concerning the statement, and the statement is one of identification of a person.

(23) Recent complaint of sexual assault. In any prosecution for criminal sexual assault under Article 7 (§ 18.2-61 et seq.) of Chapter 4 of Title 18.2, a violation of §§ 18.2-361, 18.2-366, 18.2-370 or § 18.2-370.1, the fact that the person injured made complaint of the offense recently after commission of the offense is admissible, not as independent evidence of the offense, but for the purpose of corroborating the testimony of the complaining witness.

(24) Price of goods. In shoplifting cases, price tags regularly affixed to items of personalty offered for sale, or testimony concerning the amounts shown on such tags.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART TWO
VIRGINIA RULES OF EVIDENCE

ARTICLE VIII. HEARSAY

Rule 2:803.1. Statements by Child Describing Acts Relating to Offense Against Children (Derived from Code § 19.2-268.3).

(a) Proof of an out-of-court statement made by a child who is under 13 years of age at the time of trial or hearing, and who is the alleged victim of an offense against children as provided in Code § 19.2-268.3(A), which statement describes any act directed against the child relating to such alleged offense, may not be excluded as hearsay under Rule 2:802 if both of the following apply:

(1) The court finds, in a hearing conducted prior to a trial, that the time, content, and totality of circumstances surrounding the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability so as to render it inherently trustworthy. In determining such trustworthiness, the court may consider, among other things, the following factors:

- (i) The child's personal knowledge of the event;
- (ii) The age, maturity, and mental state of the child;
- (iii) The credibility of the person testifying about the statement;
- (iv) Any apparent motive the child may have to falsify or distort the event, including bias or coercion;
- (v) Whether the child was suffering pain or distress when making the statement; and
- (vi) Whether extrinsic evidence exists to show the defendant's opportunity to commit the act; and

(2) The child:

- (i) Testifies; or
- (ii) Is declared by the court to be unavailable as a witness; provided, however, that if the child has been declared unavailable, such statement may be admitted pursuant to this section only if there is corroborative evidence of the act relating to an alleged offense against children.

(b) At least 14 days prior to the commencement of the proceeding in which a statement will be offered as evidence, the party intending to offer the statement must notify the opposing party, in writing, of the intent to offer the statement and must provide or make available copies of the statement to be introduced.

(c) This provision does not limit the admission of any statement offered under any other hearsay exception or applicable rule of evidence.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

VIRGINIA RULES OF EVIDENCE

ARTICLE VIII. HEARSAY

Rule 2:804. HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS APPLICABLE WHERE THE DECLARANT IS UNAVAILABLE (Rule 2:804(b)(5) derived from Code § 8.01-397).

(a) Applicability. The hearsay exceptions set forth in subpart (b) hereof are applicable where the declarant is dead or otherwise unavailable as a witness.

(b) Hearsay exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule:

(1) Former testimony. Testimony given under oath or otherwise subject to penalties for perjury at a prior hearing, or in a deposition, if it is offered in reasonably accurate form and, if given in a different proceeding, the party against whom the evidence is now offered, or in a civil case a privy, was a party in that proceeding who examined the witness by direct examination or had the opportunity to cross-examine the witness, and the issue on which the testimony is offered is substantially the same in the two cases.

(2) Statement under belief of impending death. In a prosecution for homicide, a statement made by a declarant who believed when the statement was made that death was imminent and who had given up all hope of survival, concerning the cause or circumstances of declarant's impending death.

(3) Statement against interest. (A) A statement which the declarant knew at the time of its making to be contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or to tend to subject the declarant to civil liability. (B) A statement which the declarant knew at the time of its making would tend to subject the declarant to criminal liability, if the statement is shown to be reliable.

(4) Statement of personal or family history. If no better evidence is available, a statement made before the existence of the controversy, concerning family relationships or pedigree of a person, made by a member of the family or relative.

(5) Statement by party incapable of testifying. Code § 8.01-397, entitled "Corroboration required and evidence receivable when one party incapable of testifying," presently provides:

In an action by or against a person who, from any cause, is incapable of testifying, or by or against the committee, trustee, executor, administrator, heir, or other representative of the person so incapable of testifying, no judgment or decree may be rendered in favor of an adverse or interested party founded on his uncorroborated testimony. In any such action, whether such adverse party testifies or not, all entries, memoranda, and declarations by the party so incapable of testifying made while he was capable, relevant to the matter in issue, may be received as evidence in all proceedings including without limitation those to which a person under a disability is a party. The phrase "from any cause" as used in this section does not include situations in which the party who is incapable of testifying has rendered himself unable to testify by an intentional self-inflicted injury.

For the purposes of this section, and in addition to corroboration by any other competent evidence, an entry authored by an adverse or interested party contained in a business record may be competent evidence for corroboration of the testimony of an adverse or interested party. If authentication of the business record is not admitted in a request for admission, such business record may be authenticated by a person other than the author of the entry who is not an adverse or interested party whose conduct is at issue in the allegations of the complaint.

ARTICLE IX. AUTHENTICATION

Rule 2:902. SELF-AUTHENTICATION (Rule 2:902(6) derived from Code § 8.01-390.3 and Code § 8.01-391(D)).

Additional proof of authenticity as a condition precedent to admissibility is not required with respect to the following:

(1) Domestic public records offered in compliance with statute. Public records authenticated or certified as provided under a statute of the Commonwealth.

(2) Foreign public documents. A document purporting to be executed or attested in his official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to make the execution or attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (a) of the executing or attesting person, or (b) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution or attestation or is in a chain of certification of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the court may for good cause shown order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

(3) Presumptions created by law. Any signature, document, or other matter declared by any law of the United States or of this Commonwealth, to be presumptively or prima facie genuine or authentic.

(4) Medical records and medical bills in particular actions. Where authorized by statute, medical records and medical bills, offered upon the forms of authentication specified in the Code of Virginia.

(5) Specific certificates of analysis and reports. Certificates of analysis and official reports prepared by designated persons or facilities, when authenticated in accordance with applicable statute.

(6) Certified Records of a Regularly Conducted Activity.

(a) In any proceeding where a business record is material and otherwise admissible, authentication of the record and the foundation required by subdivision (6) of Rule 2:803 may be laid by (i) witness testimony, (ii) a certification of the authenticity of and foundation for the record made by the custodian of such record or other qualified witness either by affidavit or by declaration pursuant to Code § 8.01-4.3, or (iii) a combination of witness testimony and a certification.

(b) The proponent of a business record must (i) give written notice to all other parties if a certification under this section will be relied upon in whole or in part in authenticating and laying the foundation for admission of such record and (ii) provide a copy of the record and the certification to all other parties, so that all parties have a fair opportunity to challenge the record and certification. The notice and copy of the record and certification must be provided no later than 15 days in advance of the trial or hearing, unless an order of the court specifies a different time. Objections must be made within five days thereafter, unless an order of the court specifies a different time. If any party timely objects to reliance upon the certification, the authentication and foundation required by subdivision (6) of Rule 2:803 must be made by witness testimony unless the objection is withdrawn.

(c) A certified business record that satisfies the requirements of this section is self-authenticating and requires no extrinsic evidence of authenticity.

(d) A copy of a business record may be offered in lieu of an original upon satisfaction of the requirements of Code § 8.01-391(D) by witness testimony, a certification, or a combination of testimony and a certification.

Rule 2:1005. ADMISSIBILITY OF COPIES (derived from Code § 8.01-391).

In addition to admissibility of copies of documents as provided in Rules 2:1002 and 2:1004, and by statute, copies may be used in lieu of original documents as follows:

(a) Whenever the original of any official publication or other record has been filed in an action or introduced as evidence, the court may order the original to be returned to its custodian, retaining in its stead a copy thereof. The court may make any order to prevent the improper use of the original.

(b) If any department, division, institution, agency, board, or commission of this Commonwealth, of another state or country, or of the United States, or of any political subdivision or agency of the same, acting pursuant to the law of the respective jurisdiction or other proper authority, has copied any record made in the performance of its official duties, such copy is as admissible into evidence as the original, whether the original is in existence or not, provided that such copy is authenticated as a true copy either by the custodian of said record or by the person to whom said custodian reports, if they are different, and is accompanied by a certificate that such person does in fact have the custody.

(c) If any court or clerk's office of a court of this Commonwealth, of another state or country, or of the United States, or of any political subdivision or agency of the same, has copied any record made in the performance of its official duties, such copy is admissible into evidence as the original, whether the original is in existence or not, provided that such copy is authenticated as a true copy by a clerk or deputy clerk of such court.

(d) If any business or member of a profession or calling in the regular course of business or activity has made any record or received or transmitted any document, and again in the regular course of business has caused any or all of such record or document to be copied, the copy is as admissible in evidence as the original, whether the original exists or not, provided that such copy is satisfactorily identified and authenticated as a true copy by a custodian of such record or by the person to whom said custodian reports, if they be different, and is accompanied by a certificate that said person does in fact have the custody. Copies in the regular course of business are deemed to include reproduction at a later time, if done in good faith and without intent to defraud. Copies in the regular course of business include items such as checks which are regularly copied before transmission to another person or bank, or records which are acted upon without receipt of the original when the original is retained by another party.

(e) The original of which a copy has been made may be destroyed unless its preservation is required by law, or its validity has been questioned.

(f) The introduction in an action of a copy under this Rule precludes neither the introduction or admission of the original nor the introduction of a copy or the original in another action.

(g) Copy, as used in these Rules, includes photographs, microphotographs, photostats, microfilm, microcard, printouts or other reproductions of electronically stored data, or copies from optical disks, electronically transmitted facsimiles, or any other reproduction of an original from a process which forms a durable medium for its recording, storing, and reproducing.

(a) These rules are promulgated pursuant to § 2.2-4026 of the Code of Virginia. They apply to the review of, by way of direct appeal from, the adoption of a regulation or the decision of a case by an agency.

(b) All terms used in this part that are defined in Chapter 40, Article 1 of Title 2.2 are used with the definitions therein contained. Every agency may designate some individual to perform the function of "agency secretary." If there is no designated "agency secretary," that term means the executive officer of the agency.

(c) The term "party" means any person affected by and claiming the unlawfulness of a regulation, or a party aggrieved who asserts a case decision is unlawful or any other affected person or aggrieved person who appeared in person or by counsel at a hearing, as defined in § 2.2-4001, with respect to the regulation or case decision as well as the agency itself. Whenever a case decision disposes of an application for a license, permit or other benefit, the applicant, licensee or permittee is a necessary party to any proceeding under this part.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART TWO A APPEALS PURSUANT TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS ACT

Rule 2A:2. Notice of Appeal.

(a) Any party appealing from a regulation or case decision must file with the agency secretary, within 30 days after adoption of the regulation or after service of the final order in the case decision, a notice of appeal signed by the appealing party or that party's counsel. With respect to appeal from a regulation, the date of adoption or readoption is the date of publication in the Register of Regulations. In the event that a case decision is required by § 2.2-4023 or by any other provision of law to be served by mail upon a party, 3 days will be added to the 30-day period for that party. Service under this Rule is sufficient if sent by registered or certified mail to the party's last address known to the agency.

(b) The notice of appeal must identify the regulation or case decision appealed from, must state the names and addresses of the appellant and of all other parties and their counsel, if any, must specify the circuit court to which the appeal is taken, and must conclude with a certificate that a copy of the notice of appeal has been mailed to each of the parties. Any copy of a notice of appeal that is sent to a party's counsel or to a party's registered agent, if the party is a corporation, will be deemed adequate and will not be a cause for dismissal of the appeal; provided, however, sending a notice of appeal to an agency's counsel will not satisfy the requirement that a notice of appeal be filed with the agency secretary. The omission of a party whose name and address cannot, after due diligence, be ascertained will not be cause for dismissal of the appeal.

(c) Any final agency case decision as described in § 2.2-4023 must advise the party of the time for filing a notice of appeal under this Rule.

Rule 2A:3. Record on Appeal.

(a) If a formal hearing was held before the agency, the appellant must deliver to the agency secretary with his notice of appeal, or within 30 days thereafter, a transcript of the testimony if it was taken down in writing, or if it was not taken down in writing, a statement of the testimony in narrative form. If the agency secretary deems the statement inaccurate, he may append a further statement specifying the inaccuracies.

(b) The agency secretary must prepare and certify the record as soon as possible after the notice of appeal and transcript or statement of testimony is filed and served. Once the court has entered an order overruling any motions, demurrers and other pleas filed by the agency, or if none have been filed within the time provided by Rule 3:8 for the filing of a response to the process served under Rule 2A:4, the agency secretary must, as soon as practicable or within such time as the court may order, transmit the record to the clerk of the court named in the notice of appeal. In the event of multiple appeals in the same proceeding, only one record need be prepared and it must be transmitted to the clerk of the court named in the first notice of appeal filed. If there are multiple appeals to different courts from the same regulation or case decision, all such appeals will be transferred to and heard by the court having jurisdiction that is named in the notice of appeal that is the first to be filed. The agency secretary must notify all parties in writing when the record is transmitted, naming the court to which it is transmitted. Papers filed in any other clerk's office must be forwarded by such clerk to the proper clerk's office.

(c) The record on appeal from an agency proceeding consists of all notices of appeal, any application or petition, all orders or regulations promulgated in the proceeding by the agency, the opinions, the transcript or statement of the testimony filed by appellant, and all exhibits accepted or rejected, together with such other material as may be certified by the agency secretary to be a part of the record.

(d) Upon the adoption of standards for the preparation of electronic or digital records for use in appeals, records under this Rule must comply with such standards.

(e) In the event the agency secretary determines that the record is so voluminous that its certification and filing pursuant to part (b) of this Rule would be unduly burdensome upon the agency or upon the clerk of the court, the agency may, prior to and in lieu of filing the entire record, move the court for leave to file an index to such record. A party must have the opportunity to respond to the agency's motion within 10 days of filing the motion. Thereafter, if the court grants the agency's motion, the record, or such parts thereof as the parties may agree upon or as the court may determine, must be filed in the form of a joint appendix or in such other form as the court may direct. The agency must nevertheless retain the entire record and make it available to the parties on reasonable request during the pendency of the appeal.

Rule 2A:4. Petition for Appeal.

(a) Within 30 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, the appellant must file a petition for appeal with the clerk of the circuit court named in the first notice of appeal to be filed. Such filing must include within such 30-day period both the payment of all fees and the taking of all steps provided in Rules 3:2, 3:3 and 3:4 to cause a copy of the petition for appeal to be served (as in a civil action) on the agency secretary and on every other party. The petition may be filed electronically as provided under Rule 1:17.

(b) The petition for appeal must designate the regulation or case decision appealed from, specify the errors assigned, state the reasons why the regulation or case decision is deemed to be unlawful and conclude with a specific statement of the relief requested.

(2) Except for Rule 4:15 where applicable under this Rule, the provisions of Part Four do not apply to appeals under this part and, unless ordered by the court, depositions may not be taken.

(4) When the case is submitted and the record has been filed as provided in Rule 2A:3, the court will establish by order a schedule for briefing and argument of the issues raised in the petition for appeal.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:1. Scope.

There is one form of civil case, known as a civil action. These Rules apply to all civil actions, in the circuit courts, whether the claims involved arise under legal or equitable causes of action, unless otherwise provided by law. These rules apply in cases appealed or removed to such courts from inferior courts whenever applicable to such cases. These Rules do not apply in petitions for a writ of habeas corpus. In matters not covered by these Rules, the established practices and procedures are continued.

Whenever in this Part Three the words "action" or "suit" appear they refer to a civil action, which may include legal and equitable claims.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:2. Commencement of Civil Actions.

(a) Commencement. — A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint in the clerk's office. When a statute or established practice requires, a proceeding may be commenced by a pleading styled "Petition." Upon filing of the pleading, the action is then instituted and pending as to all parties defendant thereto. The statutory writ tax and clerk's fees must be paid before the summons is issued.

(b) Caption. — The complaint must be captioned with the name of the court and the full style of the action, which must include the names of all the parties. The requirements of Code § 8.01-290 may be met by giving the address or other data after the name of each defendant.

(c) Form and Content of the Complaint. —

(i) It is sufficient for the complaint to ask for the specific relief sought. Without more it will be understood that all defendants mentioned in the caption are made parties defendant and required to answer the complaint; that proper process against them is requested; that answers under oath are waived, except when required by law, and that all relief authorized by law and demanded in the complaint may be granted. No formal conclusion is necessary.

(ii) Every complaint requesting an award of money damages must contain an ad damnum clause stating the amount of damages sought. Leave to amend the ad damnum clause is available under Rule 1:8.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:3. Filing of Pleadings; Return of Certain Writs.

(a) Filing Generally. — The clerk must receive and file all pleadings when tendered, without order of the court. The clerk must note and attest the date of filing thereon. In an Electronically Filed Case, the procedures of Rule 1:17 apply to the notation by the clerk of the date of filing. Any controversy over whether a party who has filed a pleading has a right to file it will be decided by the court.

(b) Electronic Filing. — In any circuit court which has established an electronic filing system pursuant to Rule 1:17:

(1) Any civil action for which electronic filing is available in the circuit court may be designated as an Electronically Filed Case upon consent of all parties in the case. Such designation must be made promptly, complying with all filing and procedural requirements for making such designations as may be prescribed by such circuit court.

(2) Except where service and/or filing of an original paper document is expressly required by these rules, all pleadings, motions, notices and other filings in an Electronically Filed Case must be formatted, served and filed as specified in the requirements and procedures of Rule 1:17; provided, however, that when any document listed below is filed in the case, the filing party must notify the clerk of court that the original document must be retained.

(i) Any pleading or affidavit required by statute or rule to be sworn, verified or certified as provided in Rule 1:17(d)(5).

(ii) Any last will and testament or other testamentary document, whether or not it is holographic.

(iii) Any contract or deed.

(iv) Any prenuptial agreement or written settlement agreement, including any property settlement agreement.

(v) Any check or other negotiable instrument.

(vi) Any handwritten statement, waiver, or consent by a defendant or witness in a criminal proceeding.

(vii) Any form signed by a defendant in a criminal proceeding, including any typed statements or a guilty plea form.

(viii) Any document that cannot be converted into an electronic document in such a way as to produce a clear and readable image.

(c) Return of writs. — No writ may be returnable more than 90 days after its date unless a longer period is provided by statute.

(d) Additional summonses. — The clerk must on request issue additional summonses, dating them as of the day of issuance.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:4. Copies of Complaint.

(a) Copies for Service. — Except in cases where service is waived pursuant to Code § 8.01-286.1, the plaintiff must furnish the clerk when the complaint is filed with as many paper copies thereof as there are defendants upon whom it is to be served. In an Electronically Filed Case, the plaintiff must file the complaint electronically and furnish paper copies to the clerk as provided in this Rule.

(b) Exhibits. — It is not required that physical copies of exhibits filed with the complaint be furnished or served. Unless an individual case is exempted by order of the court for good cause shown, an electronic or digitally imaged copy of all exhibits that are incorporated by reference in the pleading must be filed with the complaint. Upon the adoption of standards for the preparation of electronic or digital records for use in appeals, exhibits under this Rule must comply with such standards.

(c) Additional copies. — A deficiency in the number of copies of the complaint will not affect the pendency of the action.

(1) If the plaintiff fails to furnish the required number of copies, the clerk may request that additional copies be furnished by the plaintiff as needed, and if the plaintiff fails to do so promptly, the clerk may bring the fact to the attention of the judge, who will notify the plaintiff's counsel, or the plaintiff personally if no counsel has appeared for plaintiff, to furnish them by a specified date. If the required copies are not furnished on or before that date, the court may enter an order dismissing the suit.

(2) Additionally, in an Electronically Filed Case, if the clerk has been provided by the plaintiff with a credit or payment account through which to obtain payment of fees for duplication of required copies of filings, the clerk must promptly prepare additional copies of the pleading as needed, and process payment through such credit or payment account; or, if processing by the clerk of the proper payment for duplication of additional copies of the pleading through a credit or payment account authorized by the filing party is not feasible, the clerk may proceed as provided in subpart (c)(1) of this Rule.

Pleadings in response under this Rule – other than an answer – are limited to the following, and are deemed responsive only to the specific count or counts addressed therein: a demurrer, plea, motion to dismiss, motion for a bill of particulars, motion craving oyer, and a written motion asserting any preliminary defense permitted under Code § 8.01-276. If a defendant files no other pleading in response than the answer, it must be filed within the applicable 21-day, 60-day, or 90-day period specified in this Rule. An answer must respond to the paragraphs of the complaint. A general denial of the entire complaint or plea of the general issue is not permitted.

(a1) Limitation on Serial Pleading. — After filing any pleading or pleadings as an initial response to a complaint or amended complaint, a defendant may not, without leave of court for good cause shown, file a demurrer, plea, or motion described in subsection (a) except as provided under subsection (b) of this rule or under another rule of court or statute that expressly allows such a pleading or motion to be filed at any other time without leave of court.

(b) Response After Demurrer, Plea or Motion. — When the court has entered its order overruling all motions, demurrers and other pleas filed by a defendant as a responsive pleading, such defendant must, unless the defendant has already done so, file an answer within 21 days after the entry of such order, or within such other time as the court may prescribe. If the court grants a motion craving oyer, unless the defendant has already filed an answer or another responsive pleading, the defendant must file an answer or another responsive pleading within 21 days after plaintiff files the document(s) for which oyer was granted, or within such other time as the court may prescribe. If the court overrules a motion objecting to personal jurisdiction or defective process filed as a defendant's sole initial responsive pleading, then the defendant must file an answer or another responsive pleading within 21 days after entry of the court's order overruling the motion, or within such other time as the court may prescribe.

Rule 3:12. Joinder of Additional Parties.

(a) Persons to Be Joined if Feasible. — A person who is subject to service of process may be joined as a party in the action if (1) in the person's absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) the person claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in the person's absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede the person's ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of the claimed interest of the person to be joined. If such a person should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, the person may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff.

(b) Method of Joinder. — A motion to join an additional party may, subject to the provisions of Rule 1:9, be filed with the clerk within 21 days after service of the complaint and must be served on the party sought to be joined who is thereafter subject to all provisions of these Rules, except the provisions requiring payment of writ tax and clerk's fees.

(c) Determination by Court Whenever Joinder Not Feasible. — If a person as described in subdivision (a) hereof cannot be made a party, the court must determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to the absent person or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(d) Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder. — A pleading asserting a claim for relief must state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in subdivision (a) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

Rule 3:13. Third-Party Practice.

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. — At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may file and serve a third-party complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave therefore if the third-party complaint is filed not later than 21 days after the third-party plaintiff serves an original pleading in response. Otherwise the third-party plaintiff must obtain leave therefore on motion after notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, must make defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rules 3:7 and 3:8. The third-party defendant may plead counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Rules 3:9 and 3:10. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses that the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may, at plaintiff's option, within 21 days after service of the third-party complaint upon the third-party defendant, assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon may assert defenses as provided in Rules 3:7 and 3:8 and any counterclaims and cross-claims, including claims against the plaintiff, as provided in Rules 3:9 and 3:10. Any party may move to strike the third-party complaint, or for its severance or separate trial. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party defendant for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. — When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, the plaintiff may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances that under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(b) Notice to the Attorney General. — A party who files a pleading or written motion challenging the constitutionality of a statute or regulation of the Commonwealth or of a provision of the Constitution of Virginia must promptly (1) file with the court a notice stating the nature of the challenge and identifying the filing in which it was raised and (2) serve a copy of the notice and the filing on the Attorney General by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to Notices of Constitutional Challenges, Office of the Attorney General, 202 North Ninth Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, or by electronic mail to noticesofappeal@oag.state.va.us.

(c) Time to Intervene. — The Attorney General, on behalf of the Commonwealth, may intervene in such action by filing a motion to intervene within 30 days after being served with a copy of the notice required by subsection (b), unless the court extends the time to intervene.

(d) Further proceedings. — Before the expiration of the time to intervene in subsection (c), or if the party has failed to give the notice required by subsection (b) within 10 days after notice of such failure has been received by the party in writing, the court may reject the constitutional challenge but may not enter a final judgment holding the statute, regulation, or constitutional provision unconstitutional.

A new party may be added, on motion of the plaintiff by order of the court at any stage of the case as the ends of justice may require. The motion, accompanied by a properly executed proposed amended complaint, must be served on the existing parties as required by Rule 1:12. If the motion is granted, the amended pleading accompanying the motion will be deemed filed in the clerk's office as of the date of the court's order permitting such amendment and all the provisions of Rule 3:4 apply as to the new parties, but no writ tax, clerk's fee or deposit for costs is required. Rule 3:17. Substitution of Parties.

(a) Substitution of a successor. — If a person becomes incapable of prosecuting or defending because of death, disability, conviction of felony, removal from office, or other cause, a successor in interest may be substituted as a party in such person's place.

(b) Motion, Consent, Procedure. — Substitution may be made on motion of the successor or of any party to the suit. If the successor does not make or consent to the motion, the party making the motion may file the motion and a proposed amended pleading effecting the substitution in the clerk's office and serve a copy of the motion and the proposed amended pleading upon the party to be substituted in the manner prescribed by the Code of Virginia for serving original process upon such party. Unless the movant and the party to be substituted agree otherwise, or the court orders a different schedule, the party sought to be substituted must file a written response to the motion for substitution within 21 days after service of the motion and proposed amended pleading upon the party sought to be substituted.

(c) Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office. — An action does not abate when a public officer who is a party in an official capacity dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office while the action is pending. The officer's successor is automatically substituted as a party. Later proceedings should be in the substituted party's name. Any misnomer not affecting the parties' substantial rights will be disregarded. The court may order substitution at any time, but the absence of such an order does not affect the substitution.

Rule 3:18. General Provisions as to Pleadings.

(b) Allegation of negligence. — An allegation of negligence or contributory negligence is sufficient without specifying the particulars of the negligence.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:19. Default.

(a) Failure Timely to Respond. — A defendant who fails to timely file a responsive pleading as prescribed in Rule 3:8 is in default. A defendant in default is not entitled to notice of any further proceedings in the case except as provided in subsection (c) below; and written notice of any further proceedings must be given to counsel of record, if any, until default judgment is entered against such defendant. The defendant in default is deemed to have waived any right to trial of issues by jury.

(b) Relief from Default. — Prior to the entry of judgment, for good cause shown the court may grant leave to a defendant who is in default to file a late responsive pleading. Relief from default may be conditioned by the court upon such defendant reimbursing any extra costs and fees, including attorney fees, incurred by the plaintiff solely as a result of the delay in the filing of a responsive pleading by the defendant.

(c) Default Judgment and Damages. —

(1) Except in suits for divorce or annulling a marriage, the court will, on motion of the plaintiff, enter judgment for the relief appearing to the court to be due. Written notice of such motion must be mailed to the defendant's last known address, if known or reasonably available to plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel, or otherwise to the service-of-process address for defendant. If plaintiff is unable to provide such notice, the motion must contain a certification that plaintiff has made reasonable, good faith, efforts to provide notice to the defendant. When service of process is effected by posting, no judgment by default will be entered until the requirements of Code § 8.01-296(2)(b) have been satisfied.

(2) If the relief demanded is unliquidated damages, the court will hear evidence and fix the amount thereof, unless the plaintiff demands trial by jury, in which event, a jury will be impaneled to fix the amount of damages.

(3) If a defendant participates in the hearing to determine the amount of damages such defendant may not offer proof or argument on the issues of liability, but may (i) object to the plaintiff's evidence regarding damages, (ii) offer evidence regarding the quantum of damages, (iii) participate in jury selection if a jury will hear the damage inquiry, (iv) submit proposed jury instructions regarding damages, and (v) make oral argument on the issues of damages.

(d) Relief from Default Judgment. —

(1) Within 21 Days. — During the period provided by Rule 1:1 for the modification, vacation or suspension of a judgment, the court may by written order relieve a defendant of a default judgment after consideration of the extent and causes of the defendant's delay in tendering a responsive pleading, whether service of process and actual notice of the claim were timely provided to the defendant, and the effect of the delay upon the plaintiff. Relief from default may be conditioned by the court upon the defendant reimbursing any extra costs and fees, including attorney fees, incurred by the plaintiff solely as a result of the delay in the filing of a responsive pleading by the defendant.

(2) After 21 Days. — A final judgment no longer within the jurisdiction of the trial court under Rule 1:1 may not be vacated by that court except as provided in Virginia Code §§ 8.01-428 and 8.01-623.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:20. Motion for Summary Judgment.

Any party may make a motion for summary judgment at any time after the parties are at issue, except in an action for divorce or for annulment of marriage. If it appears from the pleadings, the orders, if any, made at a pretrial conference, the admissions, if any, in the proceedings, that the moving party is entitled to judgment, the court shall grant the motion. Summary judgment, interlocutory in nature, may be entered as to the undisputed portion of a contested claim or on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages. Summary judgment may not be entered if any material fact is genuinely in dispute. No motion for summary judgment or motion to strike the evidence will be sustained when based in whole or in part upon any discovery depositions under Rule 4:5, unless all parties to the action agree that such deposition may be so used, or unless the motion is brought in accordance with the provisions of subsection B of § 8.01-420. As further provided in subsection C of § 8.01-420, depositions and affidavits may be used to support or oppose a motion for summary judgment in any action where the only parties to the action are business entities and the amount at issue is $50,000 or more.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:21. Jury Trial of Right.

(a) Jury Trial Situations Unchanged. — The right of trial by jury as declared by the Constitution of Virginia, or as given by an applicable statute or other authority, is unchanged by these rules, and will be implemented as established law provides. Established practice for the trial and decision of equitable claims by the judge alone is continued.

(b) Demand. — Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury in the complaint or by (1) serving upon other parties a demand therefore in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to the issue, and (2) filing the demand with the trial court. Such demand may be endorsed upon a pleading of the party. In an Electronically Filed Case, endorsement of such demand may be made as provided in Rule 1:17. The court may set a final date for service of jury demands. Leave to file amended pleadings will not extend the time for serving and filing a jury demand unless the order granting leave to amend expressly so states.

(c) Specification of Issues. — In the demand a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party is deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within 10 days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(d) Waiver. — Absent leave of court for good cause shown, the failure of a party to serve and file a demand as required by this rule constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:22. Trial by Jury or by the Court.

(a) By Jury. — When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Rule 3:21, the action will be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded must be by jury, unless (1) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the court or by an oral stipulation made in open court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the court sitting without a jury; or (2) the court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury on some or all of those issues does not exist under applicable law.

(b) By the Court. — Except as otherwise provided in this Rule, issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Rule 3:21, and issues as to which a right of trial by jury does not exist, will be tried by the court.

(c) Statutory Jury Rights in Certain Equitable Claims. —

(1) In an equitable claim where no right to a jury trial otherwise exists, where impaneling of an advisory jury pursuant to Code § 8.01-336(E) to hear an issue will be helpful to the court concerning disputed fact issues, such a jury may be seated. Decision on such claims and issues will be made by the judge.

(2) Where a jury trial on a defendant's plea in an equitable claim is authorized under Code § 8.01-336(D), trial of the issues presented by the plea will be by a jury whose verdict on those issues has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

(d) Party Consent to Jury. — As to any claim not triable of right by a jury, the court, with the consent of the parties, may (i) order trial of any claim or issue with an advisory jury or, (ii) a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

(e) Trial by Mixed Jury and Non-Jury Claims. — In any case when there are both jury and non-jury issues to be tried, the court must adopt trial procedures and a sequence of proceedings to assure that all issues properly heard by the jury are decided by it, and applicable factual determinations by the jury will be used by the judge in resolving the non-jury issues in the case.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:22A. Examination of Prospective Trial Jurors (Voir Dire).

(a) Examination. — After the prospective jurors are sworn on the voir dire, the court must question them individually or collectively to determine whether anyone:

(1) Is related by blood, adoption, or marriage to the accused or to the Plaintiff or Defendant;

(2) Is an officer, director, agent or employee of the Plaintiff or Defendant;

(3) Has any interest in the trial or the outcome of the case;

(4) Has acquired any information about the case or the parties from the news media or other sources and, if so, whether such information would affect the juror's impartiality in the case;

(5) Has expressed or formed any opinion about the case;

(6) Has a bias or prejudice against the Plaintiff or Defendant; or

(7) Has any reason to believe the juror might not give a fair and impartial trial to the Plaintiff and Defendant based solely on the law and the evidence.

Thereafter, the court, and counsel as of right, may examine on oath the venire, and any prospective juror, and ask questions relevant to the qualifications as an impartial juror. A party objecting to a juror may introduce competent evidence in support of the objection.

(b) Challenge for Cause. — The court, on its own motion or following a challenge for cause, may excuse a prospective juror if it appears the juror is not qualified, and another will be drawn or called and placed in the juror's stead for the trial of that case.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:23. Use of and Proceedings Before a Commissioner in Chancery.

(a) Commissioners in chancery may be appointed in cases in circuit court, including uncontested divorce cases, only when (1) there is agreement by the parties with concurrence of the court or (2) upon motion of a party or the court on its own motion with a finding of good cause shown in each individual case.

(b) Upon entry of a decree by the court referring any matter to a commissioner in chancery, the clerk must mail or deliver to the commissioner a copy of the decree of reference. Unless the decree prescribes otherwise, the commissioner must promptly set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys, and must notify the parties or their attorneys of the time and place so set. It is the duty of the commissioner to proceed with all reasonable diligence to execute the decree of reference.

(c) A commissioner may require the production of evidence upon all matters embraced in the decree of reference including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents and writings applicable thereto. The commissioner has the authority to call witnesses or the parties to the action to testify and may examine them upon oath. The commissioner may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the decree of reference; but when a party so requests, the commissioner must cause a record to be made of all proffered evidence which is excluded by the commissioner as inadmissible.

(d) The commissioner must prepare a report stating his findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to the matters submitted by the decree of reference. The commissioner must file the report, together with all exhibits admitted in evidence and a transcript of the proceedings and of the testimony, with the clerk of the court. In an Electronically Filed Case, filing as required in this Rule must be in accord with the requirements of Rule 1:17. The commissioner must mail or deliver to counsel of record and to parties not represented by counsel, using the last address shown in the record, written notice of the filing of the report. Provided, however, that in divorce cases a copy of the report must accompany the notice. Provided, further, that no such notice or copy will be given parties who have not appeared in the proceeding.

PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:24. Appeal of Orders of Quarantine or Isolation Regarding Communicable Diseases of Public Health Threat.

(a) Where an order of quarantine has been issued relating to a communicable disease of public health threat pursuant to § 32.1-48.09, the provisions of § 32.1-48.010, and related sections of Article 3.02 of Title 32.1 of the Code of Virginia, govern any appeal of such order to the appropriate circuit court.

(c) The circuit court must hold hearings under this rule in a manner to protect the health and safety of individuals subject to any such order or quarantine or isolation, court personnel, counsel, witnesses, and the general public. To this end, the circuit court may take measures including, but not limited to, ordering the hearing to be held by telephone or video conference or ordering those present to take appropriate precautions, including wearing personal protective equipment.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:25. Claims for Attorney Fees.

(a) Scope of Rule. — This rule applies to claims for attorney fees, excluding (i) attorney fees under § 8.01-271.1 of the Code of Virginia, and (ii) attorney fees in domestic relations cases.

(b) Demand. — A party seeking to recover attorney fees must demand them in the complaint filed pursuant to Rule 3:2, in a counterclaim filed pursuant to Rule 3:9, in a cross-claim filed pursuant to Rule 3:10, in a third-party pleading filed pursuant to Rule 3:13, or in a responsive pleading filed pursuant to Rule 3:8. The demand must identify the basis upon which the party relies in requesting attorney fees.

(c) Waiver. — The failure of a party to file a demand as required by this rule constitutes a waiver by the party of the claim for attorney fees, unless leave to file an amended pleading seeking attorney fees is granted under Rule 1:8.

(d) Procedure. — Upon the motion of any party, the court must, or upon its own motion, the court may, in advance of trial, establish a procedure to adjudicate any claim for attorney fees.

Last amended by Order dated June 13, 2022; effective August 12, 2022.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Rule 3:26. — Temporary Restraining Orders and Preliminary Injunctions.

(a) Application. — This rule applies only in cases in which a statute does not specify different criteria for issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction. As used in this rule, the term preliminary injunction is interchangeable with temporary injunction, interim injunction, and interlocutory injunction.

(b) Temporary Restraining Orders. — If the equities of a case warrant doing so and adequate notice to opposing parties has been given by the movant, a court may issue a temporary restraining order of brief duration for the limited purpose of preserving the status quo between the parties pending a hearing on a motion for a preliminary injunction. A temporary restraining order may be issued without written or oral notice to the adverse party or its attorney only if:

- i. specific facts in an affidavit, a verified complaint, or sworn testimony clearly show that immediate and irreparable harm will result to the movant before the adverse party can be heard in opposition; and
- ii. the movant or the movant's attorney certifies in writing any efforts made to give notice and the reasons why it should not be required.

(c) Threshold Requirement for Preliminary Injunctions. — A court may issue a preliminary injunction only if it first determines that the movant will more likely than not suffer irreparable harm without the preliminary injunction.

(d) Additional Requirements for Preliminary Injunctions. — If the irreparable-harm threshold has been met, the court must determine whether the following factors support the issuance of a preliminary injunction:

- i. whether the movant has asserted a legally viable claim based on credible facts (not mere allegations) demonstrating that the underlying claim will more likely than not succeed on the merits;
- ii. whether the balance of hardships—that is, the harm to the movant without the preliminary injunction compared with the harm to the nonmovant with the preliminary injunction—favors granting the preliminary injunction; and

iii. whether the public interest, if any, supports the issuance of a preliminary injunction.

A preliminary injunction may be issued only if it is supported by factors (i) and (ii), and it is not contrary to the public interest in factor (iii).

(e) Exceptional Cases. — Notwithstanding subsection (d)(i), in rare cases in which the likely irreparable harm to the movant is severe and any corresponding harm to the nonmovant is slight, a preliminary injunction may be issued upon a clear showing that the underlying claim has substantial merit warranting interim relief, even if the court cannot determine at the time that the movant will likely succeed on the merits.

(f) Injunction Bond and Duration of Injunction. — This rule does not affect the requirements for an injunction bond before a preliminary injunction or temporary restraining order may take effect, see Code §§ 8.01-630 through 8.01-633, or the requirement for the preliminary injunction or restraining order to specify the time during which it remains in effect, see Code § 8.01-624.

(C) Agree that a specific sentence is the appropriate disposition of the case.

In any such discussions under this Rule, the court may not participate.

(2) If a plea agreement has been reached by the parties, it must, in every felony case, be reduced to writing, signed by the attorney for the Commonwealth, the defendant, and, in every case, his attorney, if any, and presented to the court. The court must require the disclosure of the agreement in open court or, upon a showing of good cause, in camera, at the time the plea is offered. If the agreement is of the type specified in subdivision (c) (1) (A) or (C), the court may accept or reject the agreement, or may defer its decision as to the acceptance or rejection until there has been an opportunity to consider a presentence report. If the agreement is of the type specified in subdivision (c) (1) (B), the court must advise the defendant that, if the court does not accept the recommendation or request, the defendant nevertheless has no right to withdraw his plea, unless the Commonwealth fails to perform its part of the agreement. In that event, the defendant has the right to withdraw his plea.

(3) If the court accepts the plea agreement, the court must inform the defendant that it will embody in its judgment and sentence the disposition provided for in the agreement.

(4) If the agreement is of the type specified in subdivision (c) (1) (A) or (C) and if the court rejects the plea agreement, the court must inform the parties of this fact, and advise the defendant personally in open court or, on a showing of good cause, in camera, that the court will not accept the plea agreement. Thereupon, neither party will be bound by the plea agreement. The defendant has the right to withdraw his plea of guilty or plea of nolo contendere and the court must advise the defendant that, if he does not withdraw his plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable to him than that contemplated by the plea agreement; and the court must further advise the defendant that, if he chooses to withdraw his plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, his case will be heard by another judge, unless the parties agree otherwise.

(5) Upon rejecting a plea agreement, a judge must immediately recuse himself from any further proceedings on the same matter unless the parties agree otherwise.

(6) Except as otherwise provided by law, evidence of a plea of guilty later withdrawn, or a plea of nolo contendere, or of an offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged, or any other crime, or of statements made in connection with and relevant to any of the foregoing pleas or offers, is not admissible in the case-in-chief in any civil or criminal proceeding against the person who made the plea or offer. But evidence of a statement made in connection with and relevant to a plea of guilty, later withdrawn, a plea of nolo contendere, or any offer to plead guilty or nolo contendere to the crime charged or to any other crime, is admissible in any criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement, if the statement was made by the defendant under oath and on the record. In the event that a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere is withdrawn in accordance with this Rule, the judge having received the plea may take no further part in the trial of the case, unless the parties agree otherwise.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A
CRIMINAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Rule 3A:9. Pleadings and Motions for Trial; Defenses and Objections.

(a) Pleadings and Motions. — Pleadings in a criminal proceeding are the indictment, information, warrant or summons on which the accused is to be tried and the plea of not guilty, guilty or nolo contendere. Defenses and objections made before trial that heretofore could have been made by other pleas or by demurrers and motions to quash must be made only by motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief, as provided in these Rules.

(b) The Motion Raising Defenses and Objections. —

(1) Defenses and Objections That Must Be Raised Before Trial. Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of the prosecution or in the written charge upon which the accused is to be tried, other than that it fails to show jurisdiction in the court or to charge an offense, must be raised by motion made within the time prescribed by paragraph (c) of this Rule. The motion must include all such defenses and objections then available to the accused. Failure to present any such defense or objection as herein provided constitutes a waiver thereof. Lack of jurisdiction or the failure of the written charge upon which the accused is to be tried to state an offense may be noticed by the court at any time during the pendency of the proceeding.

(2) Defenses and Objections That May Be Raised Before Trial. In addition to the defenses and objections specified in subparagraph (b) (1) of this Rule, any defense or objection that is capable of determination without the trial of the general issue may be raised by motion before trial. Failure to present any such defense or objection before the jury returns a verdict or the court finds the defendant guilty constitutes a waiver thereof.

(3) Form of Motion. Any motion made before trial must be in writing if made in a circuit court, unless the court for good cause shown permits an oral motion. A motion must state with particularity the grounds or grounds on which it is based.

(4) Hearing on Motion. A motion before trial raising defenses or objections must be determined before the trial unless the court orders that it be deferred for determination at the trial of the general issue. An issue of fact must be heard and determined by the court, unless a jury trial is required by constitution or statute.

(5) Effect of Determination. If a motion is determined adversely to the accused, his plea may stand or he may plead over or, if the accused has not previously pleaded, he must be permitted to plead. The motion need not be renewed if the accused properly saves the point for the purpose of appeal when the court first determines the motion.

(c) Time of Filing Notice or Making Motion. — A motion referred to in subparagraph (b) (1) must be filed or made before a plea is entered and, in a circuit court, at least 7 days before the day fixed for trial, or, if the motion raises speedy trial or Double Jeopardy grounds as specified in Code § 19.2-266.2 A (ii), at such time prior to trial as the grounds for the motion or objection arise, whichever occurs last. A copy of such motion must, at the time of filing, be submitted to the judge of the circuit court who will hear the case, if known.

(d) Relief From Waiver. — For good cause shown the court may grant relief from any waiver provided for in this Rule.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A

Rule 3A:10. Trial Together of More Than One Accused or More Than One Offense.

(a) More Than One Accused - Joinder of Defendants. — On motion of the Commonwealth, for good cause shown, the court should order persons charged with participating in contemporaneous and related acts or occurrences or in a series of acts or occurrences constituting an offense or offenses to be tried jointly unless such joint trial would constitute prejudice to a defendant.

(b) More Than One Accused - Severance of Defendants. — If the court finds that a joint trial would constitute prejudice to a defendant, the court must order severance as to that defendant or provide such other relief as justice requires.

(c) An Accused Charged With More Than One Offense. — The court may direct that an accused be tried at one time for all offenses then pending against him, if justice does not require separate trials and (i) the offenses meet the requirements of Rule 3A:6 (b) or (ii) the accused and the Commonwealth's attorney consent thereto.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A
CRIMINAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Rule 3A:11. Discovery and Inspection.

(a) General Provisions. — (1) This Rule applies to any prosecution for a felony in a circuit court and to any misdemeanor brought on direct indictment.

(2) The constitutional and statutory duties of the Commonwealth's attorney to provide exculpatory and/or impeachment evidence to an accused supersede any limitation or restriction on discovery provided pursuant to this Rule.

(3) A party may satisfy the requirement to permit the opposing party to inspect and copy or photograph a document, recorded statement or recorded confession by providing an actual duplicate, facsimile or copy of the document, recorded statement or recorded confession to the opposing party in compliance with the applicable time limits and redaction standards set forth in this Rule.

(4) Any material or evidence disclosed or discovered pursuant to this Rule and filed with the clerk of court must be placed under seal until it is either admitted as an exhibit at a trial or hearing or the court enters an order unsealing the specified material or evidence.

(b) Discovery by the Accused. — Upon written motion of an accused a court must order the Commonwealth's attorney to: (1) Permit the accused to inspect and review any relevant reports prepared by law enforcement officers and made in connection with the particular case, including any written witness statements or written summaries of oral statements contained within such reports, that are known to the Commonwealth's attorney to be in the possession, custody or control of the Commonwealth. Nothing in this Rule requires that the Commonwealth provide the accused with copies of the relevant law enforcement reports, although it may do so in its discretion. The court's order providing for inspection and review of these reports is subject to the provisions of subparts (c)(1) and (c)(2) of this Rule regarding redaction and restrictions on dissemination of designated material.

(2) Permit the accused to inspect, review and copy or photograph any relevant:

(A) written or recorded statements or confessions, or the substance of any oral statements or confessions, made by the accused to any law enforcement officer, that are known to the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody or control of the Commonwealth;

(B) written or recorded statements or confessions, or the substance of any oral statements or confessions, made by the accused to any person other than a law enforcement officer, that the Commonwealth intends to introduce into evidence against the accused at trial;

(C) written or recorded statements, or the substance of any oral statements, made by a co-defendant or co-conspirator that the Commonwealth intends to introduce into evidence against the accused at trial; and

(D) written reports of autopsy examinations, ballistic tests, fingerprint analyses, handwriting analyses, blood, urine and breath tests, other scientific reports, and written reports of a physical or mental examination of the accused or the alleged victim made in connection with the particular case, that are known by the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth.

(3) Permit the accused to inspect, review and copy or photograph designated books, papers, documents, tangible objects, recordings, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof, that are known by the Commonwealth's attorney to be within the possession, custody, or control of the Commonwealth, upon a showing that the items sought may be material to preparation of the accused's defense and that the request is reasonable.

(4)(A) Notify the accused in writing of the Commonwealth's intent to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing and to provide the accused with: (i) any written report of the expert witness setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions, or, if there is no such report, a written summary of the expected expert testimony setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions, and (ii) the witness's qualifications and contact information.

(B) Nothing in subparts (b)(4)(A)(i) and (ii) of this Rule renders inadmissible an expert witness's testimony at the trial or sentencing further explaining the opinions, bases and reasons disclosed pursuant to this Rule, or the expert witness's qualifications, just because the further explanatory language was not included in the notice and disclosure provided under this Rule.

Providing a copy of a certificate of analysis from the Virginia Department of Forensic Science or any other agency listed in Virginia Code § 19.2-187, signed by hand or by electronic means by the person performing the analysis or examination, satisfies the requirements of subparts (b)(4)(A)(i) and (ii) of this Rule.

(5) Provide to the accused a list of the names and, if known, the addresses of all persons who are expected to testify on behalf of the Commonwealth at trial or sentencing. This provision is subject to subpart (c)(1) of this Rule and to any protective orders entered by the court pursuant to subpart (g).

(6) This Rule does not authorize the discovery or inspection of the work product of the Commonwealth's attorney, including internal reports, witness statements, memoranda, correspondence, legal research or other internal documents prepared by the office of the Commonwealth's attorney or its agents in anticipation of trial.

(7) This Rule does not authorize the discovery of the names and/or personal identifying information of confidential informants whom the Commonwealth does not intend to call at trial and with regard to whose identity the Commonwealth asserts it holds a privilege.

(c) Redaction and Restricted Dissemination Material. — (1) With regard to any material or evidence provided pursuant to this Rule,

(A) the Commonwealth may redact the residential address, telephone number, email address and place of employment of any witness or victim, or any member of a witness's or victim's family, who satisfies the conditions outlined in §19.2-11.2 of the Code of Virginia. The Commonwealth may redact the date of birth and Social Security Number of any person whose information is contained in material or evidence provided pursuant to this Rule; and

(B) If the Commonwealth redacts personal identifying information pursuant to this subpart of the Rule, the accused may file a motion seeking disclosure of the redacted information. Should the court find good cause for disclosure, it may order the Commonwealth to provide the redacted information. In its discretion, the court ordering the provision of redacted personal identifying information may order that the information be identified as "Restricted Dissemination Material" pursuant to subpart (c)(2) of this Rule.

(2) The Commonwealth may designate evidence or material disclosed pursuant to this Rule as “Restricted Dissemination Material” by prominently stamping or otherwise marking such items as “Restricted Dissemination Material.”

(A) The Commonwealth may designate any evidence or material subject to disclosure pursuant to this Rule as “Restricted Dissemination Material,” without supporting certification, if the accused’s attorney agrees to the designation.

(B) In the absence of an agreement by the attorney for the accused, the attorney for the Commonwealth may designate any evidence or material as “Restricted Dissemination Material” by stamping or otherwise marking it as such and providing a certification in writing, upon information and belief, that: (i) the designated material relates to the statement of a child victim or witness; or (ii) disclosure of the designated material may result in danger to the safety or security of a witness or victim, danger of a witness being intimidated or tampered with, or a risk of compromising an ongoing criminal investigation or confidential law enforcement technique.

(C) Except as otherwise provided by order of the court or these Rules, “Restricted Dissemination Material” may only be disclosed to the accused’s attorney, the agents or employees of the accused’s attorney, or to an expert witness. The accused’s attorney may orally communicate the content of “Restricted Dissemination Material” to the accused or allow the accused to view the content of such material but must not provide the accused with copies of material so designated. “Restricted Dissemination Material” may not otherwise be reproduced, copied or disseminated in any way.

(D) If the Commonwealth designates evidence or material as “Restricted Dissemination Material” pursuant to subpart (c)(2)(B) of this Rule, the accused may at any time file a motion seeking to remove that designation from such evidence or material. Should the court find good cause to remove the designation, it may order that the evidence or material no longer be designated as “Restricted Dissemination Material.”

(E) Within 21 days of the entry of a final order by the trial court, or upon the termination of the representation of the accused, the accused’s attorney must return to the court all originals and copies of any “Restricted Dissemination Material” disclosed pursuant to this Rule. The court must maintain such returned “Restricted Dissemination Material” under seal. Any material sealed pursuant to this subpart must remain available for inspection by counsel of record. For good cause shown, the court may enter an order allowing additional access to the sealed material as the court in its discretion deems appropriate.

(F) In any case in which an accused is not represented by an attorney, the Commonwealth may file a motion seeking to limit the scope of discovery pursuant to this Rule. For good cause shown, the court may order any limitation or restriction on the provision of discovery to an accused who is unrepresented by an attorney as the court in its discretion deems appropriate.

(d) Discovery by the Commonwealth. — If the court grants disclosure to the accused under subpart (b) of this Rule, it must also order the accused to: (1) Permit the Commonwealth to inspect and copy or photograph any written reports of autopsy examinations, ballistic tests, fingerprint analyses, handwriting analyses, blood, urine and breath analyses, and other scientific testing within the accused’s possession, custody or control that the defense intends to proffer or introduce into evidence at trial or sentencing.

(2) Disclose whether the accused intends to introduce evidence to establish an alibi and, if so, disclose the place at which the accused claims to have been at the time the alleged offense was committed.

(3) Permit the Commonwealth to inspect, copy or photograph any written reports of physical or mental examination of the accused made in connection with the particular case if the accused intends to rely upon the defense of insanity pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 19.2; provided, however, that no statement made by the accused in the course of such an examination disclosed pursuant to this Rule may be used by the Commonwealth in its case-in-chief, whether the examination was conducted with or without the consent of the accused.

(4)(A) Notify the Commonwealth in writing of the accused's intent to introduce expert opinion testimony at trial or sentencing and to provide the Commonwealth with: (i) any written report of the expert witness setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions, or, if there is no such report, a written summary of the expected expert testimony setting forth the witness's opinions and the bases and reasons for those opinions, and (ii) the witness's qualifications and contact information.

(B) Nothing in subparts (d)(4)(A)(i) and (ii) of this Rule renders inadmissible an expert witness's testimony at the trial or sentencing further explaining the opinions, bases and reasons disclosed pursuant to this Rule, or the expert witness's qualifications, just because the further explanatory language was not included in the notice and disclosure provided under this Rule.

Providing a copy of a certificate of analysis from the Virginia Department of Forensic Science or any other agency listed in Virginia Code § 19.2-187, signed by hand or by electronic means by the person performing the analysis or examination, satisfies the requirements of subparts (d)(4)(A)(i) and (ii) of this Rule.

(5) Provide to the Commonwealth a list of the names and, if known, the addresses of all persons who are expected to testify on behalf of the accused at trial or sentencing. The accused's attorney may redact the personal identifying information of any witness if so authorized by a protective order entered by the court pursuant to subpart (g) of this Rule.

(e) Time of Motion. — A motion by the accused under this Rule must be made at least 10 calendar days before the day fixed for trial. The motion must identify all relief sought pursuant to this Rule. A subsequent motion may be made only upon a showing of cause why such motion would be in the interest of justice.

(f) Time, Place and Manner of Discovery and Inspection. — The order granting relief under this Rule must specify in writing the time, place and manner of making the discovery and inspection ordered. The court in its discretion may prescribe such terms and conditions as are reasonable and just.

(g) Protective Order. — (1) Upon the motion of either party and for good cause, the court may enter a protective order with regard to the discovery or inspection required by this Rule. The court in its discretion may order any condition that it deems necessary to the orderly adjudication of the case or to the fair administration of justice. These conditions may include, but are not limited to:

(A) a requirement that the parties not disclose the contents of any material or evidence disclosed or discovered pursuant to this Rule in any public forum, including any website;

(B) a requirement that the parties not disclose the contents of any material or evidence disclosed or discovered pursuant to this Rule to any third-party who is not an agent or employee of the parties or an expert witness;

(C) authorization to either party to withhold the residential address, telephone number, email address or place of employment of any witness not covered by the terms of subpart (c)(1) of this Rule; or

(D) authorization for either party in appropriate circumstances to withhold from disclosure or place additional restrictions on dissemination of information otherwise discoverable but not exculpatory.

(2) Should either party believe in good faith that the terms of a protective order entered by the court have been violated, such party may move the court to enforce the order and to impose any necessary and appropriate sanction authorized by Virginia law.

(h) Continuing Duty to Disclose; Failure to Comply. — If, after disposition of a motion under this Rule, counsel or a party discovers before or during trial additional material previously requested or falling within the scope of an order previously entered, that is subject to discovery or inspection under this Rule but has not previously been disclosed, the party must promptly notify the other party or their counsel or the court of the existence of the additional material. If at any time during the pendency of the case it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with this Rule or with an order issued pursuant to this Rule, the court must order such party to permit the discovery or inspection of materials not previously disclosed, and may grant such other relief authorized by Virginia law as it may in its discretion deem appropriate.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A

Rule 3A:12. Subpoena.

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses. — (1) A subpoena for the attendance of a witness to testify before a court not of record may be issued by the judge, clerk, magistrate, attorney for the Commonwealth or by the attorney for the accused.

(2) A subpoena for the attendance of a witness to testify before a circuit court or a grand jury may be issued by the clerk or attorney for the Commonwealth and, for the attendance of a witness to testify before a circuit court, by the attorney for the accused as well.

(3) A subpoena must (i) be directed to an appropriate officer or officers, (ii) name the witness to be summoned, (iii) state the name of the court and the title, if any, of the proceeding, (iv) command the officer to summon the witness to appear at the time and place specified in the subpoena for the purpose of giving testimony, and (v) state on whose application the subpoena was issued.

(4) No subpoena or subpoena duces tecum may be issued in any criminal case or proceeding, including any proceeding before any grand jury, which is (i) directed to a member of the bar of this Commonwealth or any other jurisdiction, and (ii) compels production or testimony concerning any present or former client of the member of the bar, unless the subpoena request has been approved in all specifics, in advance, by a judge of the circuit court wherein the subpoena is requested after reasonable notice to the attorney who is the subject of the proposed subpoena. The proceedings for approval may be conducted in camera, in the judge's discretion, and the judge may seal such proceedings. Such subpoena request must be made by the attorney for the Commonwealth for the jurisdiction involved, either on motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth or upon request to the attorney for the Commonwealth by the foreman of any grand jury. An accused may also initiate such a subpoena request.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence and of Objects Before a Circuit Court. — (1) Upon notice to the adverse party and on affidavit by the party applying for the subpoena that the requested writings or objects are material to the proceedings and are in the possession of a person not a party to the action, the judge or the clerk may issue a subpoena duces tecum for the production of writings or objects described in the subpoena. Such subpoena may command either (i) that the person to whom it is addressed must appear with the items described either before the court or the clerk, or (ii) that such person must deliver the items described to the clerk. The subpoena may direct that the writing or object be produced at a time before the trial or before the time when it is to be offered in evidence. The term "material to the proceedings" as used in this subpart (b) does not require that the subpoenaed writings or objects be admissible at trial or that they be exculpatory.

(2) Any subpoenaed writings and objects, regardless of which party sought production of them, must be available for examination and review by all parties and counsel. Subpoenaed writings or objects will be received by the clerk and must be placed under seal and will not be open for examination and review except by the parties and counsel unless otherwise directed by the court. The clerk must adopt procedures to ensure compliance with this subpart of the Rule. Until such time as the subpoenaed materials are admitted into evidence they must remain under seal unless the court orders that some or all of such materials be unsealed.

(3) Where subpoenaed writings and objects are of such nature or content that disclosure to other parties would be unduly prejudicial, the court, upon written motion and notice to all parties, may grant such relief as it deems appropriate, including: (i) quashing the subpoena in whole or in part, (ii) prohibiting or limiting disclosure, removal and copying, (iii) redacting confidential or immaterial information, (iv) prohibiting or restricting further disclosure by parties to the litigation, and/or (v) ordering return of all copies of the subpoenaed material upon completion of the litigation. Such motions may be brought by a party to the litigation, by the entity or individual subpoenaed, or by the entity or individual who is the subject of the subpoenaed material.

(4) If a subpoena requires the production of information that is stored in an electronic format, the person to whom it is addressed must produce a tangible copy of the information. If a tangible copy cannot be reasonably produced, the subpoenaed person must permit the parties to review the information on a computer or by other electronic means during normal business hours, provided that the information can be accessed and isolated. If a tangible copy cannot reasonably be produced and the information is commingled with information other than that requested in the subpoena and cannot reasonably be isolated, the person to whom the subpoena is addressed may file a motion to quash the subpoena or a motion for limitations on disclosure or other appropriate relief.

(c) Service and Return. — A subpoena may be executed anywhere in the Commonwealth by an officer authorized by law to execute the subpoena in the place where it is executed. The officer executing a subpoena must make return thereof to the court named in the subpoena.

(d) Contempt. — Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a properly served subpoena may be deemed a contempt of the court to which the subpoena is returnable.

(e) Recognizance of a Witness. — If it appears that the testimony of a person is material in any criminal proceeding, a judicial officer may require him to give a recognizance for his appearance.

(f) Photocopying of Subpoenaed Documents. — Subject to the provisions of subpart (b) of this Rule, removal and photocopying of subpoenaed documents by any party or counsel must be permitted. The court will direct a procedure for removal, photocopying and return of such documents.

(g) Undue Burden. — Where subpoenaed material is so voluminous that its production would place an undue burden on the subpoenaed entity, the court may order that the subpoena duces tecum be satisfied by making the writings and documents reasonably available for inspection by the requesting party, subject to review by the court.

(h) Virginia Freedom of Information Act. — In accordance with Virginia Code § 2.2-3703.1, the provisions of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act do not govern a court's determinations with regard to the applicability of this Rule.

(i) Subpoena Issued to a Party. — In a criminal proceeding, a subpoena duces tecum may not be used to obtain material from a party. Nor may a subpoena duces tecum be used to obtain material from an agency or entity participating in, or charged with responsibility for, the investigation or prosecution of a criminal case such that the agency and its employees are deemed agents of the Commonwealth. A subpoenaed agency or entity claiming party status may move for relief from a subpoena on that basis and – if the court quashes the subpoena – discovery will be governed by Rule 3A:11 and orders issued pursuant to that Rule. For purposes of this rule, the Department of Forensic Science and the Division of Laboratory Consolidated Services are not parties.

(j) In Camera Review. — In determining whether a protective order should issue, or other relief be granted, a court may in its discretion review subpoenaed material in camera.

(k) Confidentiality Provisions of Code §19.2-11.2. — Where the confidentiality provisions of Virginia Code §19.2-11.2 apply, any material produced pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum must be treated in accordance with the provisions of that statute.

(l) Health Records Privacy. — Any subpoena duces tecum seeking health records, or records concerning the provision of health services, as those terms are defined by Virginia Code § 32.1-127.1:03, are subject to the procedures and requirements of § 32.1-127.1:03(H), including the provisions for objecting to disclosure by a motion to quash.

(m) Decision of the Court. — A court must state on the record, or in writing, its reasons for making a decision pursuant to this Rule.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A
CRIMINAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Rule 3A:13. Trial by Jury or by Court.

(a) Right to Jury; Duty of Court in Nonjury Trial. — The accused is entitled to a trial by jury only in a circuit court on a plea of not guilty.

(b) Waiver of Jury in Circuit Court. — If an accused who has pleaded not guilty in a circuit court consents to trial without a jury, the court may, with the concurrence of the Commonwealth's attorney, try the case without a jury. The court may determine before trial that the accused's consent was voluntarily and intelligently given, and his consent and the concurrence of the court and the Commonwealth's attorney must be entered of record.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A

Rule 3A:14. Trial Jurors.

(a) Examination. — After the prospective jurors are sworn on the voir dire, the court must question them individually or collectively to determine whether anyone:

(1) Is related by blood, adoption, or marriage to the accused or to a person against whom the alleged offense was committed;

(2) Is an officer, director, agent or employee of the accused;

(3) Has any interest in the trial or the outcome of the case;

(4) Has acquired any information about the alleged offense or the accused from the news media or other sources and, if so, whether such information would affect his impartiality in the case;

(5) Has expressed or formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused;

(6) Has a bias or prejudice against the Commonwealth or the accused; or

(7) Has any reason to believe the juror might not give a fair and impartial trial to the Commonwealth and the accused based solely on the law and the evidence.

Thereafter, the court, and counsel as of right, may examine on oath any prospective juror and ask any questions relevant to the qualifications as an impartial juror. A party objecting to a juror may introduce competent evidence in support of the objection.

(b) Challenge for Cause. — The court, on its own motion or following a challenge for cause, may excuse a prospective juror if it appears the juror is not qualified, and another must be drawn or called and placed in the juror's stead for the trial of that case.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART THREE A

Rule 3A:14.1 Confidentiality of Juror Personal Information.

(a) Motion for Order Regulating Disclosure of Jurors' Personal Information. — As provided in Code § 19.2-263.3, on motion of any party or its own motion, and only upon a finding of good cause sufficient to warrant departure from the norm of open proceedings, the court may issue an order which may include provisions:

(1) regulating the disclosure of the names and home addresses of jurors or prospective jurors in a criminal trial. The court may limit or preclude dissemination of such information to particular persons, but in no event may such information be denied to counsel for either party or a pro se defendant; and/or

(2) requiring that during the course of the trial, counsel for the parties, and the jurors themselves, must refer to jurors by number and not by name.

Under this Rule, a finding of "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, a determination by the court in a particular case that if personal information of jurors or prospective jurors is disclosed there is a reasonable possibility of bribery, tampering, physical injury, harassment, intimidation of a juror, or any other material interference with the proper discharge of the jury's functions, such as a reasonably perceived threat to the jury's safety, well-being, or capacity to properly focus upon and perform its trial and deliberative duties.

(b) Additional Personal Information. — Additional personal information of a juror who has been impaneled in a criminal case may be released only to the counsel for the defendant, a pro se defendant, and the attorney for the Commonwealth.

(c) Modification of Order. — (1) An order under this Rule regulating the disclosure of the names and home addresses of the jurors in a criminal case may be modified by the court in the exercise of its discretion and for good cause shown, and such information may be disseminated to a person having a legitimate interest or need for the information, with such restrictions upon its use and further dissemination as may be deemed appropriate by the court.

(2) The court may, upon motion of either party or its own motion, and for good cause shown, issue an order authorizing the disclosure of any additional personal information of a juror to any other person. Such order may be modified and may place restrictions on the use and further dissemination of such disclosed information.

(d) Additional Personal Information. — For purposes of this Rule, "additional personal information" means any information other than name and home address collected by the court, clerk, or jury commissioner at any time, including but not limited to, a juror's age, occupation, business addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, and any other identifying information that would assist another in locating or contacting the juror.

(b) Motion to Set Aside Verdict. — If the jury returns a verdict of guilty, the court may, on motion of the accused made not later than 21 days after entry of a final order, set aside the verdict for error committed during the trial or if the evidence is insufficient as a matter of law to sustain a conviction.

(c) Judgment of Acquittal or New Trial. — The court must enter a judgment of acquittal if it strikes the evidence or sets aside the verdict because the evidence is insufficient as a matter of law to sustain a conviction. RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:1. General Provisions Governing Discovery.

(a) Discovery Methods. — Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents, electronically stored information, or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission.

(b) Scope of Discovery. — Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these Rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) In General. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Subject to the provisions of Rule 4:8 (g), the frequency or extent of use of the discovery methods set forth in subdivision (a) may be limited by the court if it determines that: (i) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive; (ii) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity by discovery in the action to obtain the information sought; or (iii) the discovery is unduly burdensome or expensive, taking into account the needs of the case, the amount in controversy, limitations on the parties' resources, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. The court may act upon its own initiative after reasonable notice to counsel of record or pursuant to a motion under subdivision (c).

(2) Insurance Agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person (which includes any individual, corporation, partnership or other association) carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance will not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

(3) Trial Preparation: Materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b)(4) of this Rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision (b)(1) of this Rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court must protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 4:12(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (A) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (B) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(4) Trial Preparation: Experts; Costs - Special Provisions for Eminent Domain Proceedings. Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision (b)(1) of this Rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

(A) (i) A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

(ii) A party may depose any person who has been identified as an expert whose opinion may be presented at trial, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b)(4)(C) of this Rule concerning fees and expenses.

(iii) Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision (b)(4)(C) of this Rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

(iv) Drafts of expert reports, disclosures, or interrogatory responses called for by subdivision (b)(4)(A)(i) of this Rule are not discoverable except on a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impractical for the party seeking discovery to obtain otherwise discoverable information contained in the draft by other means. The party seeking discovery of such information bears the burden of proving such exceptional circumstances.

(v) Communications between a party's attorney and any expert witness expected to testify at trial are not discoverable except to the extent that such communications relate to compensation for the expert's work on the case or identify facts or assumptions that the expert considered or relied upon in forming the opinions to be expressed.

(vi) In ordering discovery of any material covered by subdivisions (b)(4)(A)(iv) or (b)(4)(A)(v) of this Rule, the court must in all events protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

(B) A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

(C) Unless manifest injustice would result, (i) the court must require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent and expenses incurred in responding to discovery under subdivisions (b)(4)(A)(ii), (b)(4)(A)(iii), and (b)(4)(B) of this Rule; and (ii) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (b)(4)(A)(iii) of this Rule the court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision (b)(4)(B) of this Rule the court must require, the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

(D) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b)(4)(C) of this Rule, the condemnor in eminent domain proceedings, when it initiates discovery, must pay all reasonable costs thereof, including the cost and expense of those experts discoverable under subdivision (b) of this Rule. The condemnor will be deemed to have initiated discovery if it uses, or gives notice of the use of, any discovery method before the condemnee does so, even though the condemnee subsequently engages in discovery.

(5) Limitations on Discovery in Certain Proceedings. In any proceeding (1) for separate maintenance, divorce, or annulment of marriage, (2) for the exercise of the right of eminent domain, or (3) for a writ of habeas corpus or in the nature of coram nobis; (a) the scope of discovery extends only to matters which are relevant to the issues in the proceeding and which are not privileged; and (b) no discovery is allowed in any proceeding for a writ of habeas corpus or in the nature of coram nobis without prior leave of the court, which may deny or limit discovery in any such proceeding. In any proceeding for divorce or annulment of marriage, a notice to take depositions must be served in the Commonwealth by an officer authorized to serve the same, except that, in cases where such suits have been commenced and an appearance has been made on behalf of the defendant by counsel, notices to take depositions may be served in accordance with Rule 1:12.

(6) Claims of Privilege or Protection of Trial Preparation Materials.

(i) When a party withholds information otherwise discoverable under these rules by claiming that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation material, the party must make the claim expressly and must describe the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced or disclosed in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the applicability of the privilege or protection.

(ii) If a party believes that a document or electronically stored information that has already been produced is privileged or its confidentiality is otherwise protected the producing party may notify any other party of such claim and the basis for the claimed privilege or protection. Upon receiving such notice, any party holding a copy of the designated material must sequester or destroy its copies thereof, and may not duplicate or disseminate such material pending disposition of the claim of privilege or protection by agreement, or upon motion by any party. If a receiving party has disclosed the information before being notified of the claim of privilege or other protection, that party must take reasonable steps to retrieve the designated material. The producing party must preserve the information until the claim of privilege or other protection is resolved.

(7) Electronically Stored Information. A party need not provide discovery of electronically stored information (“ESI”) from sources that the party identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the party from whom discovery is sought has the burden of showing that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 4:1(b)(1). The court may specify conditions for the discovery, including allocation of the reasonable costs thereof.

If the party receiving a discovery request anticipates that it will require the production of ESI and that an ESI protocol is needed, then within 21 days of being served with the request, or within 28 days of service of requests served with the Complaint, the receiving party should propose an ESI protocol that addresses: (A) an initial list of custodians or the person(s) with knowledge of the party’s custodians and the location of ESI, (B) a date range, (C) production specifications, (D) search terms, and (E) the identification and return of inadvertently revealed privileged materials. If the proposed protocol is not acceptable, the parties must in good faith attempt to meet within 15 days from service of the protocol on the party requesting the ESI. If, after 15 days from service of the protocol, the parties are unable to agree to limits on the discovery of the ESI, on motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the court will, in its discretion, determine appropriate limitations or conditions on the ESI request, if any, including allocation of the reasonable costs thereof.

(8) Pre-Motion Negotiation. A motion under this Rule must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.

(c) Protective Orders. — Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action, and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending or alternatively, on matters relating to a deposition, the court in the county or city where the deposition is to be taken, may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (1) that the discovery not be had; (2) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court. If the subpoena duces tecum seeks a nonparty's financial records or a nonparty's records protected by the attorney-client privilege, such nonparty may move for a protective order, and for such other relief permitted by this subsection, in accordance with Code § 8.01-420.9.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Rule 4:12(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(d) Sequence and Timing of Discovery. —

(1) Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, will not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

(2) Discovery continues after a demurrer, plea or dispositive motion addressing one or more claims or counter-claims has been filed and while such motion is pending decision – unless the court in its discretion orders that discovery on some or all issues in the action should be suspended.

(e) Supplementation of Responses. — A party who has responded to a request for discovery is under a duty to supplement or correct the response to include information thereafter acquired in the following circumstances.

(1) A party is under a duty promptly to amend and/or supplement all responses to discovery requests directly addressed to (A) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (B) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and the substance of the expert's testimony, when additional or corrective information becomes available.

(2) A party is under a duty promptly to amend and/or supplement all other prior responses to interrogatories, requests for production, or requests for admission if the party learns that any such response is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

(3) A court may order, or the parties may agree to provide, supplementation in addition to that required in subsections (1) and (2) of this subpart (e).

(4) A party may supplement a prior discovery response by filing an updated response labelled "Supplemental" or "Amended", or by otherwise notifying all other parties of the updated information in writing, signed by counsel of record.

(f) Service Under This Part. — Except for the service of the notice required under Rule 4:2(a)(2), any notice or document required or permitted to be served under this Part Four must be served as provided in Rule 1:12 except that any notice or document permitted to be served with the initial pleading may be served (or accepted) in the same manner as such pleading.

(g) Signing of Discovery Requests, Responses, and Objections. — Every request for discovery or response or objection thereto made by a party represented by an attorney must be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address must be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney must sign the request, response, or objection, and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that the signer has read the request, response, or objection, and that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief formed after a reasonable inquiry it is: (1) consistent with these Rules and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; (2) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (3) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. General or blanket objections to discovery requests are prohibited. If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it will be stricken unless it is signed no later than 21 days after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection, and a party is not obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed.

(1) Raising Signature Defects; Waiver. —

(a) The issue of a signature defect must be raised in the trial court prior to the entry of the final order;

(b) A party waives an objection to a signature defect in a discovery request, response, or objection by failing to raise the issue in the trial court in time for the defect to be corrected.

(2) Effect of Curing Signature Defects. If a signature defect is timely cured, the discovery request, response, or objection is deemed valid and relates back to the date it was originally served. When a party objects to a signature defect in a discovery request, however, the objecting party's time to respond to the discovery request runs from the date the signature defect is cured.

If a certification is made in violation of the rule, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, may impose upon the person who made the certification, the party on whose behalf the request, response, or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:2. Depositions Before Action or Pending Appeal.

(a) Before Action. —

(1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in any court of this Commonwealth may file a verified petition in the circuit court in the county or city of the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition must be entitled in the name of the petitioner and must show: (A) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in a court of this Commonwealth but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought; (B) the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein; (C) the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it; (D) the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and (E) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and must ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner must thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 21 days before the date of hearing the notice must be served either within the Commonwealth in the manner provided for service of a complaint or without the Commonwealth in the manner provided by Code § 8.01-320; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and may appoint, for persons not so served, an attorney who will represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, may cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a person under a disability, a guardian ad litem must be appointed to attend on his behalf.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it will make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions will be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these Rules. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena, and the court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 4:9 and 4:10. For the purpose of applying these Rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending will be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Cost. The cost of such depositions must be paid by the petitioner, except that the other parties in interest who produce witnesses on their behalf or who make use of witnesses produced by others must pay their proportionate part of the cost of the transcribed testimony and evidence taken or given on behalf of each of such parties.

(5) Filing. The depositions must be certified as prescribed in Rule 4:5 and then returned to and filed by the clerk of the court which ordered its taking.

(6) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these Rules or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the courts of the state in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in a court of this Commonwealth in accordance with the provisions of Rule 4:1.

(b) Pending Appeal. — If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a court of record or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in that court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the court in which the judgment was rendered for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending therein. The motion must show (1) the names and addresses of persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each; and (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 4:9 and 4:10, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these Rules for depositions taken in pending actions.

(c) Perpetuation of Testimony. — This Rule provides the exclusive procedure to perpetuate testimony.

Rule 4:4. Stipulations Regarding Discovery.

Unless the court orders otherwise, the parties may by written stipulation (1) provide that depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions and (2) modify the procedures provided by these Rules for other methods of discovery, including discovery of electronically stored information. RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR

Rule 4:5. Depositions Upon Oral Examination.

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken. — After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition before the expiration of the period within which a defendant may file a responsive pleading under Rule 3:8, except that leave is not required (1) if a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition, or (2) if special notice is given as provided in subdivision (b)(2) of this Rule. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

(a1) Taking of Depositions. — (i) Party Depositions. A deposition of a party, or any witness designated under Rule 4:5(b)(6) to testify on behalf of a party, must be taken in the county or city in which suit is pending, in an adjacent county or city, at a place upon which the parties agree, or at a place that the court in such suit may, for good cause, designate. Good cause may include the expense or inconvenience of a non-resident party defendant appearing in one of the locations specified in this subsection. The restrictions as to parties set forth in this subdivision (a1)(i) do not apply where no responsive pleading has been filed or an appearance otherwise made.

(ii) Non-party Witness Depositions. Unless otherwise provided by the law of the jurisdiction where a non-party witness resides, a deposition of a non-party witness must be taken in the county or city where the non-party witness resides, is employed, or has a principal place of business; at a place upon which the witness and the parties to the litigation agree; or at a place that the court may, for good cause, designate.

(iii) Taking Depositions Outside the State. Within another state, or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, or in a foreign country, depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or, where applicable, the law of the United States, or (2) before a person appointed or commissioned by the court in which the action is pending, and such a person has the power by virtue of such appointment or commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to a letter rogatory. A commission or letter rogatory will be issued upon application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A commission or letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in (here name the state, territory, or country)." Witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify at deposition taken outside this state by process issued and served in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction where the deposition is taken or, where applicable, the law of the United States. Upon motion, the courts of this State may issue a commission or letter rogatory requesting the assistance of the courts or authorities of the foreign jurisdiction.

(iv) Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act. Depositions and related documentary production sought in Virginia pursuant to a subpoena issued under the authority of a foreign jurisdiction are subject to the provisions of the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act, Virginia Code §§ 8.01-412.8 through 8.01-412.15.

(b) Notice of Examination: General Requirements; Special Notice; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization. —

(1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination must give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice must state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena must be attached to or included in the notice.

(2) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice (A) states that the person to be examined is about to go out of the Commonwealth, or is about to go out of the United States, or is bound on a voyage to sea, and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the period for filing a responsive pleading under Rule 3:8, and (B) sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney must sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true.

If a party shows that when he was served with notice under this subdivision (b)(2) he was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against him.

(3) The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or otherwise provided by court order or by law, only the witness, the parties, their respective counsel including such counsel's staff, experts identified pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A), and those involved with the administration of the deposition (such as court reporters and translators) may attend the deposition, given the private nature of discovery. Counsel of record for the parties and counsel for any non-party deponent must timely confer regarding any other attendees who are requested by a party or by the deponent to be present at the deposition. A party seeking to exclude any person from attending a deposition – or seeking authorization for any person to attend a deposition – must move for an order in the discretion of the circuit court.

(5) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Rule 4:9 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Rule 4:9 applies to the request.

(6) A party may in the notice name as the deponent a public or private corporation, or a partnership, an association, governmental agency, or other entity, and must describe and designate with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. The organization so named must designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or designate other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and it may set out the matters on which each person designated will testify. Before or promptly after the notice or subpoena is served, the serving party and the organization must confer in good faith about the matters for examination. A subpoena must advise a nonparty organization of its duty to make this designation and to confer with the serving party. The persons so designated must testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization on the topics specified in the notice of deposition. Except as provided in Virginia Code § 8.01-420.4:1, this subdivision (b)(6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these Rules and Virginia law.

(7) Unless the court orders otherwise, a deposition may be taken by telephone, video conferencing, or teleconferencing. A deposition taken by telephone, video conferencing, or teleconferencing must be taken before an appropriate officer in the locality where the deponent is present to answer questions propounded to him.

(c) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. —

(1) Unless the parties agree otherwise, examination of a witness at deposition is begun by the party noticing the deposition. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken must put the witness on oath and must personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony must be transcribed. The preservation or waiver of objections during the deposition is governed by the provisions of Rule 4:7.

(2) An objection at the time of the examination—whether to evidence, to a party's conduct, to the officer's qualifications, to the manner of taking the deposition, or to any other aspect of the deposition—must be noted on the record, but the examination still proceeds; the testimony is taken subject to any objections. Any objection must be stated concisely in a nonargumentative and nonsuggestive manner. A person may instruct a deponent not to answer only when necessary to preserve a privilege or protection for attorney work-product pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(3), to enforce a limitation ordered by the court, or to present a motion under subsection (d).

(3) In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he must transmit them to the officer, who must propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination. — At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the county or city where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Rule 4:1(c). If the order made terminates the examination, it may be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition is suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Rule 4:12(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(e) Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing. — When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition must be submitted to the witness for examination and must be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make must be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition must then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within 21 days of its submission to him, the officer must sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 4:7(d)(4) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing. —

(1) The officer must prepare an electronic or digitally imaged copy of the deposition transcript, including signatures and any changes as provided in subsection (e) of this Rule, and must certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. In a divorce or annulment case, the officer must then promptly file the electronic or digitally imaged deposition in the office of the clerk, notifying all other parties of such action. In all other cases, the officer must then lodge the deposition with the attorney for the party who initiated the taking of the deposition, notifying the clerk and all parties of such action. Depositions taken pursuant to this Rule or Rule 4:6 (except depositions taken in divorce and annulment cases) may not be filed with the clerk until the court so directs, either on its own initiative or upon the request of any party prior to or during the trial. Any such filing must be made electronically unless otherwise ordered by the judge.

Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, must, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that (A) the person producing the materials may substitute copies to be marked for identification, if he affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals, and (B) if the person producing the materials requests their return, the officer must mark them, give each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, and return them to the person producing them, and the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to and returned with the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the court, pending final disposition of the case.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer must furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition must give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

(g) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses. —

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney fees.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:6. Depositions Upon Written Questions.

(a) Serving Questions; Notice. — After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

A party desiring to take the deposition upon written questions must serve them upon every other party with a notice stating (1) the name and address of the person who is to answer them, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs, and (2) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Rule 4:5(b)(6).

Within 21 days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within 10 days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve recross questions upon all other parties. The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. — A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served must be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who must proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rule 4:5(c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and to prepare, certify, and file the electronic or digitally imaged deposition or lodge the deposition with the attorney for the party who initiated the taking of the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received.

(c) Notice of Filing. — When the deposition is filed, the party taking it must promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:7. Use of Depositions in Court Proceedings.

(a) Use of Depositions. — At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition taken in a civil action may be used for any purpose in supporting or opposing an equitable claim; provided, however, that such a deposition may be used on an issue heard by an advisory jury empaneled pursuant to Code § 8.01-336(E) or a hearing ore tenus only as provided by subdivision (a)(4) of this Rule.

(2) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(3) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under Rule 4:5(b)(6) or 4:6(a) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(4) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose in any action upon a claim arising at law, issue heard by an advisory jury empaneled pursuant to Code § 8.01-336(E), or hearing ore tenus upon an equitable claim if the court finds: (A) that the witness is dead; or (B) that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of this Commonwealth, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or (C) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or (D) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or (E) that the witness is a judge, or is a superintendent of a hospital for the insane more than 30 miles from the place of trial, or is a physician, surgeon, dentist, chiropractor, or registered nurse who, in the regular course of his profession, treated or examined any party to the proceeding, or is in any public office or service the duties of which prevent his attending court provided, however, that if the deponent is subject to the jurisdiction of the court, the court may, upon a showing of good cause or sua sponte, order him to attend and to testify ore tenus; or (F) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(5) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

(6) No deposition may be read in any action against a person under a disability unless it be taken in the presence of the guardian ad litem appointed or attorney serving pursuant to § 8.01-9, or upon questions agreed on by the guardian or attorney before the taking.

(7) In any action, the fact that a deposition has not been offered in evidence prior to an interlocutory decree or order does not prevent its thereafter being so offered except as to matters ruled upon in such interlocutory decree or order; provided, however, that such deposition may be read as to matters ruled upon in such an interlocutory decree or order if the principles applicable to after- discovered evidence would permit its introduction.

Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and when there are pending in the same court several actions or suits between the same parties, depending upon the same facts, or involving the same matter of controversy, in whole or in part, a deposition taken in one of such actions or suits, upon notice to the same party or parties, may be read in all, so far as it is applicable and relevant to the issue; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of this or any other state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken in the one action may be used in the other as if originally taken therefor.

(b) Form of Presentation; Objections to Admissibility. — A party may offer deposition testimony pursuant to this Rule in stenographic or nonstenographic form. Except as otherwise directed by the court, if all or part of a deposition is offered, the offering party must provide the court with a transcript of the portions so offered in either form or in electronic or digitally imaged form. Except as provided in Rule 1:18 and subject to the provisions of subdivision (d)(3) of this Rule, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(c) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions. — A party does not make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this does not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition under subdivision (a)(3) of this Rule. At the trial or hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

(d) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions. —

(1) As to Notice. — All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.

(2) As to Disqualification of Officer. — Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(3) As to Taking of Deposition. —

(A) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(B) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(C) Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Rule 4:6 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within 5 days after service of the last questions authorized.

(4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. — Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 4:5 and 4:6 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

(e) Limitation on Use of Depositions. — No motion for summary judgment or to strike the evidence may be sustained when based in whole or in part upon any depositions under Rule 4:5, unless such use of depositions is permitted by § 8.01-420.

(f) Record. — Depositions become a part of the record only to the extent that they are offered in evidence.

PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:7A. Audio-Visual Depositions.

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken by Audio-Visual Means. — Any depositions permitted under these Rules may be taken by audio-visual means including, but not limited to, videoconferencing and teleconferencing, as authorized by and when taken in compliance with law.

(b) Procedure. —

(1) The deposition must begin with an oral or written statement on camera which includes (i) each operator's name and business address or, if applicable, the identity of the video conferencing or teleconferencing proprietor and locations participating in the video conference or teleconference; (ii) the name and business address of the operator's employer; (iii) the date, time and place of the deposition; (iv) the caption of the case; (v) the name of the witness; (vi) the party on whose behalf the deposition is being taken; (vii) with respect to video conferencing or teleconferencing, the identities of persons present at the deposition and the location of each such person; and (viii) any stipulations by the parties; and

(2) In addition, all counsel present on behalf of any party or witness must identify themselves on camera. The oath for witnesses must be administered on camera. If the length of a deposition requires the use of more than one recording unit, the end of each unit and the beginning of each succeeding unit must be announced on camera. At the conclusion of a deposition, a statement must be made on camera that the deposition is concluded. A statement may be made on camera setting forth any stipulations made by counsel concerning the custody of the audio-visual recording and exhibits or other pertinent matters; and

(3) All objections must be made as in the case of stenographic depositions.

(c) Editing. — No audio-visual deposition may be edited except pursuant to a stipulation of the parties or pursuant to order of the court and only as and to the extent directed in such stipulation and/or order. In any case where the parties stipulate or the court orders the audio-visual recording to be edited prior to its use, the original recording may not be altered and the editing must be done on a copy or copies.

(d) Recording and Transcription. —

(1) Any deposition may be recorded by audio-visual means without a stenographic record. The audio-visual recording is an official record of the deposition. A transcript prepared by a court reporter will also be deemed an official record of the deposition. Any party may make, at its own expense, a simultaneous stenographic or audio record of the deposition. Upon request and at his own expense, any party is entitled to an audio or audio-visual copy of the audio-visual recording.

(2) If an appeal is taken in the case, the appellant must cause to be prepared and filed with the clerk a written transcript of that portion of an audio-visual deposition made a part of the record in the trial court to the extent germane to an issue on appeal. The appellee may designate additional portions to be so prepared by the appellant and filed.

(e) Use. — An audio-visual deposition may be used for any purpose and under any circumstances in which a stenographic deposition may be used.

(f) Submission to the Witness; Changes; Signing. — A stenographic deposition transcript prepared for an audio-visual deposition is subject to the provisions of Rule 4:5(e), but Rule 4:5(e) does not apply to the audio-visual recording itself. The other provisions of Rule 4:5 apply to the extent practicable.

(g) Filing. — Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, the original audio-visual recording of a deposition, any copy edited pursuant to stipulation or an order of the court, and exhibits may be filed only in accord with Rule 4:5(f)(1).

PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:8. Interrogatories to Parties.

(a) Availability; Procedures for Use. — Any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who must furnish such information as is available to the party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the complaint upon that party.

(b) Form. — The party answering the interrogatories must restate each question, by photocopying it or otherwise, then insert the word "Answer" and immediately thereafter state the response to that question. The answering party must attach the necessary oath and certificate of service to the answers.

(c) Filing. —

(1) Interrogatories and answers or objections thereto should not be filed unless the court directs such filing on its own initiative or upon the request of any party prior to or during the trial.

(2) When the propriety or sufficiency of any interrogatory, answer or objection, or the service thereof, is challenged, or any other issue concerning such discovery is presented to the court for decision, copies of the relevant items, including any applicable certificates of service, must be made available to the court by counsel.

(3) In an Electronically Filed Case, submission of interrogatories, answers, objections and certificates of service as provided in subdivisions (c)(1) and (c)(2) of this Rule may be made by filing an electronic or digitally imaged copy thereof, unless the court directs otherwise.

(d) Answers. — Each interrogatory must be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, except to the extent it is objected to, in which event the reasons for any objection must be stated with specificity. Any part of an interrogatory that is not objected to must be answered. The answers must be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them. The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served must serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within 21 days after the service of the interrogatories, except that a defendant may serve answers or objections within 28 days after service of the complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Rule 4:12(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer

(e) Scope; Use. — Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 4:1(b), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the rules of evidence and for the purposes of Rule 3:20. Only such interrogatories and the answers thereto as are offered in evidence will become a part of the record.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.

(f) Option to Produce Business Records. — Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records, including electronically stored information, of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification must be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained. A specification of electronically stored information may be made under this Rule if the information will be made available in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(g) Limitation on Interrogatories. — No party may serve upon any other party, at any one time or cumulatively, more than thirty written interrogatories, including all parts and sub-parts without leave of court for good cause shown.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:9. Production by Parties of Documents, Electronically Stored Information, and Things; Entry on Land for Inspection and Other Purposes; Production at Trial.

(a) Scope. — Any party may serve on any other party a request (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect, copy, test, or sample any designated documents or electronically stored information (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, and other data or data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent into reasonably usable form), or to inspect, copy, test, or sample any designated tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 4:1(b) and which are in the possession, custody, or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (2) to produce any such documents or electronically stored information to the court in which the proceeding is pending at the time of trial; or (3) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 4:1(b).

(b) Procedure. —

(i) Initiation of the Request. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the complaint upon that party. The request must set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request must specify a reasonable time, place, period and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. The request may specify the form or forms in which electronically stored information is to be produced.

(ii) Response. The party upon whom the request is served must serve a written response within 21 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 28 days after service of the complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response must state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, including an objection to the requested form or forms for producing electronically stored information, stating the reasons for the objection with specificity. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part must be specified and production must be permitted as to the remaining parts. An objection must state whether any responsive materials are being withheld on the basis of that objection. If objection is made to the requested form or forms for producing electronically stored information - or if no form was specified in the request - the responding party must state the form or forms it intends to use. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Rule 4:12(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested. A motion under this Rule must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.

(iii) Organization, Reasonable Accessibility, and Forms of Production. Unless the parties otherwise agree, or the court otherwise orders:

(A) Production of Documents. A party who produces documents for inspection must either produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the request.

(B) Electronically Stored Information.

(1) Responses to a request for production of electronically stored information are subject to the provisions of Rules 4:1(b)(7) and 4:1(b)(8).

(2) If a request does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, or if a responding party objects to the requested form or forms of production, a responding party must produce the information as it is ordinarily maintained if it is reasonably usable in such form or forms, or must produce the information in another form or forms in which it is reasonably usable. A party need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(iv) Proceedings Under the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act. Production of documents and electronic records sought in Virginia pursuant to a subpoena issued under the authority of a foreign jurisdiction are subject to the provisions of the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act, Virginia Code §§ 8.01-412.8 through 8.01-412.15.

(c) Proceedings on Failure or Refusal to Comply. — If a party fails or refuses to obey an order made under section (b) of this Rule, the court may proceed as provided by Rule 4:12(b)(2).

(d) Filing. — Requests to a party pursuant to this Rule and responses or objections should be filed as provided in Rule 4:8(c).

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:9A. Production from Non-Parties of Documents, Electronically Stored Information, and Things and Entry on Land for Inspection and Other Purposes; Production at Trial.

(a) Issuance of a Subpoena Duces Tecum. — Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this Rule, a subpoena duces tecum may be issued:

(1) By the clerk of court. Upon written request therefor filed with the clerk of the court in which the action or suit is pending by counsel of record for any party or by a party having no counsel in any pending case, with a certificate that a copy thereof has been served pursuant to Rule 1:12 upon counsel of record and to parties having no counsel, the clerk must issue to a person not a party therein a subpoena duces tecum subject to this Rule.

(2) By an attorney. In a pending civil proceeding, a subpoena duces tecum may be issued by an attorney-at-law as an officer of the court if he or she is an active member of the Virginia State Bar at the time of issuance. An attorney may not issue a subpoena duces tecum in those civil proceedings excluded in Virginia Code § 8.01-407. An attorney-issued subpoena duces tecum must be signed as if a pleading and must contain the attorney's address, telephone number and Virginia State Bar identification number. A copy of any attorney-issued subpoena duces tecum must be mailed or delivered to the clerk's office of the court in which the case is pending on the day of issuance with a certificate that a copy thereof has been served pursuant to Rule 1:12 upon counsel of record and to parties having no counsel. If time for compliance with an attorney-issued subpoena duces tecum is less than fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena, the person to whom the subpoena is directed may serve on the party issuing the subpoena a written objection setting forth any grounds upon which such production, inspection, copying, sampling or testing should not be had. If an objection is made, the party issuing the subpoena is not entitled to the requested production, inspection, copying, sampling or testing, except pursuant to an order of the court in which the civil proceeding is pending. If an objection is made, the party issuing the subpoena may, upon notice to the person to whom the subpoena is directed, move for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, sampling or testing. Upon a timely motion, the court may quash, modify or sustain the subpoena as provided above in subsection (c) of this Rule.

(b) Content of Subpoena Duces Tecum; Objections. — Subject to paragraph (d) of this Rule, a subpoena duces tecum will command the person to whom it is directed, or someone acting on his behalf, to produce the documents, electronically stored information, or designated tangible things (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, and other data or data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent into reasonably usable form) designated and described in said request, and to permit the party filing such request, or someone acting in his behalf, to inspect and copy, test, or sample any designated tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 4:1(b) which are in the possession, custody or control of such person to whom the subpoena is directed, at a time and place and for the period specified in the subpoena. A subpoena may specify the form or forms in which electronically stored information is to be produced.

(c) Responding to a Subpoena; Objections; Production of Documents and Electronically Stored Information. —

(1) Production of Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or must organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) Electronically Stored Information.

(A) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources the responder identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel production or to quash a subpoena, the person from whom production is sought under the subpoena must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order production of responsive material from such sources if the subpoenaing party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 4:1(b)(1). The court may specify conditions for the production of such information, including allocation of the reasonable costs thereof.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding thereto must produce the information as it is ordinarily maintained if it is reasonably usable in such form or forms, or must produce the information in another form or forms in which it is reasonably usable. A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(3) Objections and Procedures. The court, upon written motion promptly made by the person so required to produce, or by the party against whom such production is sought, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena, or the method or form for production of electronically stored information, if the subpoena would otherwise be unduly burdensome or expensive, (2) condition denial of the motion to quash or modify upon the advancement by the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of some or all of the reasonable cost of producing the documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things so designated and described or (3) direct that the documents and tangible things subpoenaed, including electronically stored information (unless another location for production is agreed upon by the requesting and producing parties), be returned only to the office of the clerk of the court through which such documents and tangible things are subpoenaed in which event, upon request of any party in interest, or his attorney, the clerk of such court must permit the withdrawal of such documents and tangible things by such party or his attorney for such reasonable period of time as will permit his inspection, photographing, or copying thereof. If the subpoena duces tecum seeks a nonparty's financial records or a nonparty's records protected by the attorney-client privilege, such nonparty may move to quash or modify the subpoena, and for such other relief permitted by this subsection, in accordance with Code § 8.01-420.9.

(4) Pre-Motion Negotiation. A motion under this Rule must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.

(d) Certain Officials. — No request to produce made pursuant to paragraph (b) above may be served, and no subpoena provided for in paragraph (c) above may issue, until prior order of the court is obtained when the party upon whom the request is to be served or the person to whom the subpoena is to be directed is the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Attorney General of this Commonwealth, or a judge of any court thereof; the President or Vice President of the United States; any member of the President's Cabinet; any Ambassador or Consul; or any Military Officer on active duty holding the rank of Admiral or General.

(e) Certain Health Records. Patient health records protected by the privacy provisions of Code Section 32.1-127.1:03 may be disclosed only in accordance with the provisions and procedures prescribed by that statute.

(f) Copies of Documents and Other Subpoenaed Information. —

(1) Documents. When one party to a civil proceeding subpoenas documents, the subpoenaing party, upon receipt of the subpoenaed documents, must, if requested, provide true and full copies of the same to any party or to the attorney for any other party in accordance with Code § 8.01-417(B).

(2) Electronically stored information. When one party to a civil proceeding subpoenas and obtains electronically stored information, the subpoenaing party must, if requested, provide true and full copies of the same to any party or that party's attorney, in the form the subpoenaing party received the information, upon reimbursement of the proportionate cost of obtaining such materials.

(g) Proceedings on Failure or Refusal to Comply. — If a non-party, after being served with a subpoena issued under the provisions of this Rule, fails or refuses to comply therewith, he may be proceeded against as for contempt of court as provided in § 18.2-456.

Last amended by Order dated June 18, 2025; effective July 1, 2025.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:10. Physical and Mental Examination of Persons.

(a) Order for Examination. — When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending, upon motion of an adverse party, may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by one or more health care providers, as defined in § 8.01-581.1, employed by the moving party or to produce for examination the person in the party's custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties, must specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made, and must fix the time for filing the report and furnishing the copies.

(b) Out-of-State Examiners. — Examiners named in such an order must be licensed to practice in, and must be residents of or have an office in, this Commonwealth. However, notwithstanding the reference to licensure by this Commonwealth in the definition of health care providers in § 8.01-581.1, the court may, in the exercise of its sound discretion and upon determining that the ends of justice will be served, order an examination by one who is not licensed to practice in, is not a resident of, and does not have an office in, this Commonwealth but who is duly licensed in his or her jurisdiction.

(c) Report of Examiner. —

(1) A written report of the examination must be made by the examiner to the court and filed with the clerk thereof before the trial and a copy furnished to each party. The report must be detailed, setting out the findings of the examiner, including results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. In an Electronically Filed Case, the report of examination must be filed in electronic or digital image form as provided in Rule 1:17.

(2) The written report of the examination so filed with the clerk may be read into evidence if offered by the party who submitted to the examination. A party examined who takes the deposition of any examiner who has conducted an examination ordered pursuant to this Rule, waives any privilege that might have been asserted in that action or in any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine the party in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

(3) This subdivision applies to examination made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subdivision does not preclude discovery of a report of a health care examiner or the taking of a deposition of such examiner in accordance with the provisions of any other Rule.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:11. Requests for Admission.

(a) Request for Admission. — A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 4:1(b) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents must be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the complaint upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested must be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within 21 days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may allow, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant is not required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of 28 days after service of the complaint upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefor must be stated. The answer must specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial must fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he must specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of Rule 4:12(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it will order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this Rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pretrial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Rule 4:12(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(b) Effect of Admission. — Any matter admitted under this Rule is conclusively established unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of Rule 4:13 governing amendment of a pretrial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this Rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission by him for any other purpose nor may it be used against him in any other proceeding.

(c) Filing. — Except as provided in Rules 3:3 and 1:17, requests for admissions and answers or objections should be served and filed as provided in Rule 4:8.

(d) Part of Record. — Only such requests for admissions and the answers thereto as are offered in evidence become a part of the record.

(e) Limitation on Number of Requests. —

(1) Requests for admission not related to genuineness of documents. Unless all parties agree, or the court grants leave for good cause shown, no party may serve upon any other party, at any one time or cumulatively, more than 30 requests for admission, including all parts and subparts, that do not relate to the genuineness of documents. Leave to propound additional requests should be liberally granted in the interests of justice.

(2) Requests for admission relating to the genuineness of documents. The number of requests for admissions relating to the genuineness of documents will not be limited unless the court enters a protective order pursuant to the provisions of Rule 4:1(c) upon a finding that justice so requires in order to protect the responding party from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense.

Last amended by Order dated November 23, 2020; effective March 1, 2021.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FOUR
PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:12. Failure to Make Discovery; Sanctions.

(a) Motion for Order Compelling Discovery. — A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate Court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the court in which the action is pending, or, on matters relating to a deposition, to the court in the county or city where the deposition is to be taken. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party must be made to the court in the county or city where the deposition is being taken.

(2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rule 4:5 or 4:6, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Rule 4:5(b)(6) or 4:6(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 4:8, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 4:9, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.

A motion under subdivision (a) of this Rule must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.

If the court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Rule 4:1(c).

(3) Evasive or Incomplete Answer. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of Expenses of Motion. If the motion is granted, the court must, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court must, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(b) Failure to Comply With Order. —

(1) Sanctions by Court in County or City Where Deposition Is Taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court in the county or city in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by Court in Which Action Is Pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 4:5(b) (6) or 4:6(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision (a) of this Rule or Rule 4:10, the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

(A) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts will be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(B) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(D) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;

(E) Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 4:10(a) requiring him to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of this subdivision, unless the party failing to comply shows that he is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court must require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(c) Expenses on Failure to Admit. — If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Rule 4:11, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney fees. The court must make the order unless it finds that (1) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Rule 4:11(a), or (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (3) the party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe that he might prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

(d) Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Requests for Production or Inspection. — If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 4:5(b)(6) or 4:6(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (1) to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 4:8, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (3) to serve a written response to a request for production or inspection submitted under Rule 4:9, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may – without prior entry of a Rule 4:12(b) order to compel regarding this failure – impose any of the sanctions listed in paragraphs (A), (B), and (C) of subdivision (b)(2) of this Rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court must require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Rule 4:1(c).

A motion under subdivision (d) of this Rule must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.

PRETRIAL PROCEDURES, DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCTION AT TRIAL

Rule 4:13. Pretrial Procedure; Formulating Issues.

The court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider:

- (1) A determination of the issues;
- (2) A plan and schedule of discovery;
- (3) Any limitations on the scope and methods of discovery;
- (4) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (5) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and admissions regarding documents and information obtained through electronic discovery;
- (6) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (7) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;
- (8) issues relating to the preservation of potentially discoverable information, including electronically stored information and information that may be located in sources that are believed not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost;
- (9) provisions for disclosure or discovery of electronically stored information;
- (10) any agreements the parties reach for asserting claims of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material after production;
- (11) any provisions that will aid in the use of electronically stored or digitally imaged documents in the trial of the action; and
- (12) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court will make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice.

Rule 4:15. Motions Practice.

All civil case motions in circuit court will be scheduled and heard using the following procedures:

(a) Scheduling — All civil case motions in circuit court will be scheduled and heard using the following procedures:

1. Presenting the motion on a day the court designates for motions hearings, or
2. Contacting designated personnel in the office of the clerk of the court or the chambers of the judge or judges of the court.

(b) Notice — Reasonable notice of the presentation of a motion must be served on all counsel of record. Absent leave of court, and except as provided in paragraph (c) of this Rule, reasonable notice must be in writing and served at least seven days before the hearing. Counsel of record must make a reasonable effort to confer before giving notice of a motion to resolve the subject of the motion and to determine a mutually agreeable hearing date and time. The notice must be accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. In an Electronically Filed Case, the notice provisions of this paragraph and the filing and service requirements of paragraph (c) of this Rule is accomplished in accord with Rule 1:17.

(c) Filing and Service of Briefs — Counsel of record may elect or the court may require the parties to file briefs in support of or in opposition to a motion. Any such briefs should be filed with the court and served on all counsel of record sufficiently before the hearing to allow consideration of the issues involved. Absent leave of court, if a brief in support of a motion is five or fewer pages in length, the required notice and the brief must be filed and served at least 14 days before the hearing and any brief in opposition to the motion must be filed and served at least seven days before the hearing. If a brief will be more than five pages in length, an alternative hearing date, notice requirement, and briefing schedule may be determined by the court or its designee. Absent leave of court, the length of a brief may not exceed 20 pages, double spaced.

(d) Hearing — Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, upon request of counsel of record for any party, or at the court's request, the court will hear oral argument on a motion. Oral argument on a motion for reconsideration or any motion in any case where a pro se incarcerated person is counsel of record will be heard orally only at the request of the court. A court may place reasonable limits on the length of oral argument. No party may be deprived of the opportunity to present its position on the merits of a motion solely because of the unfamiliarity of counsel of record with the motions procedures of that court. A court, however, at the request of counsel of record, or in the judge's discretion, may postpone the hearing of the motion, or require the filing of briefs to assure fairness to all parties and the ability of the court to review all such briefs in advance of the hearing.

(e) Definition of Served — For purposes of this Rule, a pleading is deemed served when it is actually received by, or in the office of, counsel of record through delivery, mailing, facsimile transmission or electronic mail as provided in Rule 1:12.

Rule 5:1. Scope, Citation, Applicability, and General Provisions.

(a) Scope of Rules. – Part Five governs all proceedings in the Supreme Court of Virginia.

(b) Citation. – These Rules may be cited generally as the “Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia” and specifically as “Rule 5:____.”

(c) Definitions.

(1) "clerk" means clerk of the court or commission from which an appeal is taken unless some other clerk is specified and, unless the context otherwise requires, includes a deputy clerk;

(6) "Court of Appeals" means the Court of Appeals of Virginia;

(7) "opposing counsel" means, depending on the context, "counsel for the appellant" or "counsel for the appellee";

(8) "judge" means judge of the trial court, unless the context otherwise requires, or if the judge of the trial court is not available, any judge authorized to act under Rule 5:12;

(9) "judgment" includes an order or decree from which an appeal is taken;

(10) "trial court" means the circuit court from which an appeal is taken;

(11) the "date of entry" of any final judgment or other appealable order or decree is the date the judgment, order, or decree is signed by the judge.

(d) Service. – Unless service or notice is otherwise specified in a given Rule, any paper or object filed with this Court must have included within it or appended to it a certificate of service or acceptance of service showing that a copy has been transmitted to all counsel and showing the date and manner of transmittal. If a word count is used, the certificate must also state the number of words (headings, footnotes, and quotations count towards the word limitation; the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, and certificate do not count towards the word count).

(e) Notice of Change of Address and Other Contact Information. – If an attorney has a change in mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, or e-mail address any time after the filing of the notice of appeal, the attorney must immediately notify the clerk of this Court and all other counsel of record in writing. The notice must reference the style and record number of all cases pending before this Court.

(f) Citing Unpublished Judicial Dispositions. – The citation of judicial opinions, orders, judgments, or other written dispositions that are not officially reported, whether designated as “unpublished,” “not for publication,” “non precedential,” or the like, is permitted as informative, but will not be received as binding authority. If the cited disposition is not available in a publicly accessible electronic database, a copy of that disposition must be filed with the brief or other paper in which it is cited.

(g) Filings. – Every document or object filed with or transmitted to this Court must be filed or transmitted in compliance with these Rules. Originals or copies of documents or objects should not be filed with or transmitted to any justice of this Court, unless expressly authorized by the Court. A failure to comply with this prohibition may result in the imposition of penalties under Rule 5:1A.

(h) Substitution of Parties.

(1) Substitution of a Successor. — If a person becomes incapable of prosecuting or defending because of death, disability, conviction of felony, or other cause, and the claim is not extinguished, a successor in interest may be substituted as a party in such person’s place.

(2) Motion. — Substitution may be made on motion of the successor or of any party to the appeal.

(3) Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office. — An action does not abate when a public officer who is a party in an official capacity dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office while the action is pending. The officer’s successor is automatically substituted as a party. Later proceedings should be in the substituted party’s name, but any misnomer not affecting the parties’ substantial rights must be disregarded. The court may order substitution at any time, but the absence of such an order does not affect the substitution.

A. GENERAL

Rule 5:1A. Penalties for Non-compliance; Show Cause; Dismissal.

(a) Penalties; Show Cause; Dismissal. This Court may dismiss an appeal or impose such other penalty as it deems appropriate for non-compliance with these Rules. Except as provided in Rule 5:17(c)(1)(i) and (iii), regarding assignments of error, prior to the dismissal of an appeal for any defect in the filings related to formatting, curable failure to comply with other requirements, or the failure to meet non-mandatory filing deadlines, this Court may issue a show cause order to counsel or a party not represented by an attorney, prescribing a time in which to cure such defect or to otherwise show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed or other penalty imposed.

(b) Report to Virginia State Bar. If an attorney's failure to comply with these Rules results in the dismissal of an appeal, this Court may report the attorney to the Virginia State Bar in accordance with Rule 8.3 of the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct.

Rule 5:1B. Electronic Filing.

(a) Record on Appeal. – If available, all components of the record on appeal must be filed in electronic form as provided in Rule 5:13A. If such a digital appellate record is not available, a paper record must be filed complying with Rules 5:10, 5:11, 5:13, and related provisions of these Rules.

(b) Electronic Filing of All Other Documents (“e-filing”). – All documents – other than the record on appeal – must be filed electronically, except for filings by pro se prisoners or a litigant who has been granted leave by the Court to file documents in paper form. Documents to be filed electronically include, but are not limited to, all notices, motions, pleadings, petitions, briefs, appendices, letters, exhibits, or other items to be filed or served during an appeal. All such documents must be filed with the clerk of this Court electronically, in Portable Document Format (referred to in these Rules as the “PDF” or “electronic version”). The electronic version must be filed in the manner prescribed by the Virginia Appellate Courts Electronic System (“VACES”) Guidelines and User's Manual, located on the Court's website at <https://eapps.courts.state.va.us/help/robo/vaces/index.htm#t=VACES.htm>.

(c) Service on Other Parties by Email. – An electronic version of any document filed in this Court pursuant to Rule 5:1B(b) must be served via email on all other parties on the date the document is filed with the Court or immediately thereafter, unless excused by this Court for good cause shown. An e-filed document must contain a certificate stating the date(s) of filing and of email service of the document. For any litigant exempted under Rule 5:1B from the requirement to file documents electronically, a paper copy of each document filed with the Court must be served upon all other parties – by mailing, delivery, or another means authorized in Rule 1:12 – on or before the date of filing, and must contain a certificate stating the date(s) and method(s) of service.

(d) Technical Problems with Electronic Filing. – A person who files a document electronically has the same responsibility as a person filing a document in paper form to ensure that the document is timely and properly filed, complete, and readable. However, if a technical problem in the operation of the VACES system results in a failure to timely file an electronic document, counsel must provide to the clerk of this Court on the next business day all documentation that exists demonstrating the attempt to electronically file the document in the VACES system, any error message received in response to the attempt, documentation that the document was later successfully resubmitted, and a motion requesting that the Court accept the resubmitted document. In the event that filing was not available due to a VACES technical problem during the last filing hours of a business day, the office of the clerk of the Court is deemed to have been closed on that day solely with respect to that attempted filing and the provisions of Virginia Code

§ 1-210(B) and (C) apply to that particular attempted filing for purposes of computing the last day for performing any act in the judicial proceeding or the filing of any legal action.

(e) Copies. – No paper copies are to be filed for any e-filed documents. Where a paper document is filed by a party who is exempt from e-filing requirements pursuant to Rule 5:1B(b), only the original document need be filed, and no additional copies thereof may be filed.

(f) Signatures. – All documents filed pursuant to Part Five of these Rules must be signed by counsel for the filing party, or personally signed if the party is proceeding pro se. Documents may be digitally signed using an electronic signature.

Rule 5:4. Motions and Responses; Orders.

(a) Motions and Responses. —

(1) Motions. All motions, except motions for the qualification of attorneys at law to practice in this Court, must be in writing and filed with the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B. All motions must contain a statement by the movant that the other parties to the appeal have been informed of the intended filing of the motion. For all motions in cases in which all parties are represented by counsel—except motions to dismiss petitions for writs of habeas corpus, mandamus and prohibition—the statement by the movant must also indicate whether the other parties consent to the granting of the motion, or intend to file responses in opposition.

(2) Responses. Opposing counsel may have 10 days after such motion is filed to file with such clerk a response to such motion, but this Court may act before the 10 days expire, if necessary. Once such a response is filed, no further pleadings in support of or in opposition to a motion may be filed without leave of Court.

(3) Oral Argument. No motion will be argued orally except by leave of this Court.

(b) Orders. — Promptly after this Court has entered an order, the clerk of this Court must send a copy of the order to all counsel.

ADVISORY NOTE

This rule is not intended to limit the scope of motions that may be filed in the Supreme Court. Such motions may be filed in any pending or contemplated appeal, and may request from the Court any form of relief that is available to the movant. The practitioner should consult individual rules relating to the filing of motions in particular matters; for example, Rule 5:12 (trial judge authorized to act on matters pertaining to record); Rule 5:30(c) (motion for leave to file brief amicus curiae). Rehearings are not within the scope of this rule, but are governed by Rules 5:20 and 5:37.

PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
A. GENERAL

Rule 5:5. Filing Deadlines; Post Trial Proceedings Below; Timely Filing by Mail; Filings by Incarcerated Individuals; Extension of Time.

(a) Filing Deadlines. — The times prescribed for filing a notice of appeal (Rules 5:9(a), 5:14(a), 5:21(a)(3), and 5:21(b)(2)), a petition for review pursuant to Code § 8.01-626 (Rule 5:17A) and a petition for rehearing (Rules 5:20 and 5:37), are mandatory. A single extension not to exceed 30 days may be granted if at least two Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia concur in a finding that an extension for papers to be filed is warranted on motion for good cause shown.

(a1) Filing Deadlines for Petitions for Appeal. — The times prescribed for filing a petition for appeal (Rules 5:17(a) and 5:21(a)(6)) are mandatory; provided, however, that an extension may be granted, in the discretion of the Supreme Court, on motion for good cause shown.

(b) Post-Trial Proceedings Below and Their Effect on the Notice of Appeal. — The time period for filing a notice of appeal or a petition for appeal where permitted by law is not extended by the filing of a motion for a new trial, a petition for rehearing, or a like pleading unless the final judgment is modified, vacated, or suspended by the trial court or other tribunal, pursuant to Rule 1:1, or a timely petition for rehearing is filed in the Court of Appeals. In any such case, the time for filing a notice of appeal and a petition for appeal is computed from the date of final judgment entered following such modification, vacation, or suspension, or from the date the Court of Appeals refuses a timely petition for rehearing or enters final judgment following the granting of such a petition.

(c) How to File in a Timely Manner. — Filing must be accomplished electronically as provided in Rule 5:1B. For any party exempt from the e-filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), any document required to be filed with the clerk of this Court is deemed to be timely filed if (1) it is transmitted expense pre-paid to the clerk of this Court by priority, express, registered, or certified mail via the United States Postal Service, or by a third-party commercial carrier for next-day delivery, and (2) if the official receipt therefor be exhibited upon demand of the clerk of this Court or any party and it shows such transmission or mailing within the prescribed time limits. This rule does not apply to documents to be filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court or clerk of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission or clerk of the State Corporation Commission.

(d) Filings by incarcerated individuals. —

(1) Timeliness. — A paper filed by an individual confined in an institution, including a prison, jail, or the Virginia Center for Behavioral Rehabilitation, is timely filed if deposited in the institution's internal mail system on or before the last day for filing. Timely filing of a paper by an individual confined in such an institution may be established by (i) an official stamp of the institution showing that the paper was deposited in the internal mail system on or before the last day for filing, (ii) an official postmark dated on or before the last day for filing, or (iii) a notarized statement signed by an official of the institution showing that the paper was deposited in the internal mail system on or before the last day for filing.

(2) Extension of time for lack of notice. — Notwithstanding Rule 5:5(a), if an individual confined in an institution did not receive a copy of the final order until after the appellate filing deadline expired because the lower tribunal either (i) mailed the final order to the wrong address or (ii) mailed it 30 days or more after entry, the individual may move for an extension of the filing deadline. The motion must be accompanied by a copy of the lower tribunal envelope displaying the postmark, a copy of the notice of appeal the individual filed in the lower tribunal after receiving the final order, and either (i) an official copy of the institution's mail records or (ii) a notarized statement signed by an official of the institution showing the date the individual received the order. The motion must be filed no later than 30 days after the individual received the order. In evaluating the motion, the Court may consider record information showing a failure to timely mail the final order and other information that may be supplied by the lower tribunal.

(e) Extensions Generally. — Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this Rule, a motion for an extension of time is timely if filed either within the original filing deadline or within any extension period specified by the governing rule. Filing the motion within the original filing deadline or within the specified extension period does not toll the original filing deadline or further extend the period of extension.

Rule 5:6. Forms of Briefs and Other Papers.

(a) Document Formatting, Line Spacing, Font, and Margins.

(1) Application. Electronic filing requirements, and exemptions therefrom, are specified in Rule 5:1B. Provisions of this Rule 5:6 apply to electronically filed documents, and to paper documents filed by persons exempted from e-filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b).

(2) General Rules. Briefs, appendices, motions, petitions, and other documents must be formatted to appear on an 8 ½ by 11-inch page with a clear black image on a white background. Margins must be at least one inch on all four sides of each page.

(3) Specific Rules for Motions, Petitions, and Briefs. Except by leave of Court, all motions, petitions, and briefs, including footnotes, must use one of the font styles listed on the Court's website in at least 14-point type and must be formatted to print on only one side of the page. Text may not be reduced and must be double spaced except for headings, assignments of error, quotations that exceed 49 words, and footnotes, which must be single spaced. Page numbers are required and may appear in either the top or bottom margin, but no text, including footnotes, is permitted in the one-inch margins. Page or word limits for motions, petitions, and briefs do not include the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate.

(4) Specific Rules for the Appendix. The appendix may be printed using both sides of the page. Any transcript, including a deposition transcript, that is made a part of the appendix must be in 12-point type or larger. Any transcript contained in the appendix that fails to conform to the 12-point type requirement may be returned to counsel, and counsel will be required to promptly comply with this requirement in accordance with the instruction of this Court. The use of condensed or multi-page transcripts is prohibited. Page numbers are required and may appear in either the top or bottom margin.

(b) Cover Contents; Printing. The style of the case (with the name of the appellant stated first) and the record number of the case must be stated on the front cover of all briefs and appendices and, in addition, the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address of counsel submitting the brief must be placed on the front cover of all briefs. For parties exempted from electronic filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), all documents to be filed must be printed with black text on 8 ½ x 11-inch white paper. All briefs and appendices filed in paper form must be bound on the left margin in such a manner as to produce a flat, smooth binding. The covers of documents filed in paper form must comply with the color requirements of Rule 5:31.

(c) Effect of Non-compliance. — No appeal will be dismissed for failure to comply with the provisions of this Rule; the clerk of this Court may, however, require that a document be redone in compliance with this Rule. Failure to comply after notice of noncompliance, however, may result in the dismissal of the case.

Rule 5:6A. Citation of Supplemental Authorities.

If pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention after the party's petition for appeal, brief in opposition, or brief has been filed, or after oral argument but before decision, a party may promptly advise the Court by letter, with a copy to all other parties, setting forth the citations. The letter must be filed with the clerk's office and not directly with any Justice. The letter must state the reasons for the supplemental citations, referring either to the page of the brief or to a point argued orally. The body of the letter must not exceed 350 words. Any response must be made promptly and may not exceed 350 words. The Court, in its discretion, may refuse to consider the supplemental authorities if they unfairly expand the scope of the arguments on brief, raise matters that should have been previously briefed, appear to be untimely, or are otherwise inappropriate to consider.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
B. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

Rule 5:7. Petitions for Writs of Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, and Prohibition.

(a) Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus. – An application to this Court for a writ of habeas corpus under its original jurisdiction must be by petition filed in the office of the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B.

(1) When Petition Must be Filed. The petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging a criminal conviction or sentence must be filed within two years from the date of the final judgment in the trial court or within one year from either final disposition of the direct appeal in state court or the time for filing such appeal has expired, whichever is later. All other petitions for a writ of habeas corpus must be filed within one year after the cause of action accrues.

(2) What the Petition Must Contain. The petition must be notarized and must state whether the petitioner believes that the taking of evidence is necessary for the proper disposition of the petition. A memorandum of law citing relevant authorities must accompany each petition. All petitions must comply with the requirements of Code § 8.01-655. Where a petition for a writ of habeas corpus is filed by counsel, counsel must file as an exhibit a single copy of the complete record of the proceedings that resulted in the detention the petition challenges. The record must comply with the form and content requirements of Rule 5:7(a)(5), and counsel may seek leave to provide less than the complete record as provided for in Rule 5:7(a)(6).

(3) Service of Petitions; Service of Papers after Initial Process. Except as provided herein, service of process must be accomplished in accordance with Chapter 8 of Title 8.01. Service of all papers filed after the petition must be accomplished in accordance with Rule 1:12.

(i) Non-Public Officials. A petition must be accompanied by a return of service executed by the appropriate officer evidencing service of a copy thereof on the respondent or by an acceptance of service signed by the respondent.

(ii) Public Officials. When habeas corpus is directed to a public official, service must be made on the respondent and must also be made on or accepted by the Attorney General or an Assistant Attorney General. A petition must be accompanied by a return of service executed by the appropriate officer evidencing service of a copy thereof on the respondent or by an acceptance of service signed by the respondent.

(iii) Prisoners Pro Se. In cases brought by prisoners pro se, a copy of the petition must be forwarded to the respondent by first class mail, and the application must contain a certificate at the end stating as follows:

I hereby certify that on the ____ day of _____,
20____, I mailed a copy of the foregoing application to the respondent(s), _____, by first class mail.

Petitioner

(4) When to Respond to a Petition; Reply. No responsive pleading to a petition filed by a prisoner acting pro se is required except as ordered by this Court. For all other petitions, a responsive pleading must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 40 days after service of the petition. The deadline for counsel for the petitioner to file a reply to a responsive pleading is 30 days from the date the responsive pleading is due.

(5) Contents of the Response. In one responsive pleading, the respondent may move to dismiss on any appropriate ground, including the failure to state facts upon which relief should be granted, and, in the alternative, may set forth grounds of defense as in an action at law. The answer must state whether, in the opinion of the respondent, the taking of evidence is necessary for the proper disposition of the petition. A memorandum of law citing the relevant authorities must accompany each responsive pleading. In any case in which the respondent states an opinion that the taking of evidence is not necessary for the proper disposition of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, the respondent must file as separate exhibits:

(i) a single copy of the complete record of the proceedings that resulted in the detention the petition challenges, provided that such complete record has not previously been provided by counsel for petitioner. When criminal proceedings resulted in the challenged detention, the record of those proceedings must include:

(1) a copy of the documents and exhibits filed or lodged in the office of the clerk of the trial court;

(2) a copy of each instruction marked “given” or “refused” and initialed by the judge;

(3) a copy of each exhibit offered in evidence, whether admitted or not, except for drugs, guns and other weapons, ammunition, blood vials and other bio-hazard type materials, money, jewelry, articles of clothing, and bulky items such as large graphs and maps;

(4) a copy of each order entered by the trial court;

(5) a copy of any opinion or memorandum decision rendered by the judge of the trial court;

(6) a copy of any transcript that was filed with the circuit court, or a copy of any videotape recording of any proceeding in those circuit courts authorized by this Court to use videotape recordings.

(7) These records must be compiled as follows:

(a) with a table of contents listing each paper included in the record and the page on which it begins;

(b) each paper constituting a part of the record in chronological order;

(c) each page of the record must be numbered at the bottom; and

(d) transcripts and exhibits may be included in separate volumes or envelopes identified by the table of contents, except that any exhibit that cannot be conveniently placed in a volume or envelope must be identified by a tag. Each such volume or envelope must include, on its cover or inside, a descriptive list of exhibits contained therein.

(ii) copies of any other document on which the respondent relies to assert that the taking of evidence is not necessary.

(6) Leave to respond without providing a complete record. In any case in which the respondent states an opinion that the complete record of the proceedings that resulted in the detention the petition challenges is not necessary for the proper disposition of the petition, the respondent may move for leave to provide less than all of the record. Such leave must be sought no later than 14 days prior to the filing of a responsive pleading. In any case where leave is granted, the Court may direct the respondent to provide any additional portion of the record at any time.

(7) Length. Except by permission of a Justice of this Court, no petition, including the accompanying memorandum of law, or a response thereto, including its accompanying memorandum of law, may exceed the longer of 50 pages or 8,750 words. No reply filed to a responsive pleading may exceed the longer of 10 pages or 1,750 words. Page and word limits do not include appendices, exhibits, cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate.

(8) Number of Copies. For prisoners filing pro se and other petitioners exempted from the electronic filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), only one paper copy of a petition and any other document need be filed.

(9) Calling up the Record. If this Court determines that any portion of the underlying trial or appellate record is necessary for a proper determination of the merits of the petition, the clerk of this Court is authorized to request the record and, to the extent necessary, the preparation of any transcripts, and the clerk of the trial court, commission, or the Court of Appeals as appropriate must prepare the requested transcripts and transmit it forthwith upon request without the necessity of an order.

(b) Petitions for Writs of Mandamus and Prohibition. — An application for a writ of mandamus or a writ of prohibition under the original jurisdiction of this Court must be by petition filed in the office of the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B.

(1) What the Petition Must Contain. The petition must be notarized and must state whether the petitioner believes that the taking of evidence is necessary for the proper disposition of the petition. A memorandum of law citing relevant authorities must accompany each petition.

(2) Service of Petitions; Service of Papers after Initial Process.

(i) Generally. A petition must be accompanied by a return of service executed by the appropriate officer evidencing service of a copy thereof on the respondent or by an acceptance of service signed by the respondent. Except in cases brought by prisoners acting pro se, service of process must be accomplished in accordance with Chapter 8 of Title 8.01. Service of all papers filed after the petition must be served in accordance with Rule 1:12.

(ii) Prisoners Pro Se. In cases brought by prisoners pro se, a copy of the petition must be forwarded to the respondent by first class mail, and the application must contain a certificate at the end stating as follows:

I hereby certify that on the ____ day of ____, 20__, I mailed a copy of the foregoing application to the respondent(s), _____, by first class mail.

Petitioner

(3) Limitations for Petitions for Mandamus. A petition for writ of mandamus filed by or on behalf of a person confined in a state correctional facility must be brought within one year after the cause of action accrues.

(4) Petitions for Mandamus or Prohibition Against a Judge. A petition for writ of mandamus or writ of prohibition against a judge must not bear the name of the judge but must be entitled, “In re, Petitioner.” When the Attorney General determines, with the concurrence of the judge, that it is impracticable or unnecessary for the Attorney General to represent the judge, the judge may be represented pro forma by counsel for the party opposing the relief, who must appear in the name of the party and not that of the judge. Or, in the alternative, the Attorney General may provide for the appointment of special counsel to represent the judge, in accordance with the provisions of Code §§ 2.2-507 or 2.2-510.

(5) When to Respond to a Petition; Reply. No responsive pleading is required for a petition filed by a prisoner acting pro se except as ordered by this Court. For all other petitions, a responsive pleading must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 21 days after service of the petition or the filing thereof, whichever date is later. The deadline for counsel for the petitioner or a pro se petitioner to file a reply to a responsive pleading is 14 days from the date the responsive pleading is due.

(6) Contents of the Response. In one responsive pleading, the respondent may move to dismiss on any appropriate ground, including the failure to state facts upon which relief should be granted, and, in the alternative, may set forth an answer as in an action at law. The answer must state whether, in the opinion of the respondent, the taking of evidence is necessary for the proper disposition of the petition. A memorandum of law citing the relevant authorities should accompany each responsive pleading.

(7) Length. Except by permission of a Justice of this Court, no petition, including the accompanying memorandum of law, or a response thereto, including its accompanying memorandum of law, may exceed the longer of 50 printed pages or 8,750 words. No reply filed to a responsive pleading may exceed the longer of 10 printed pages or 1,750 words. This page or word limit does not include appendices, exhibits, cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate.

(8) Number of Copies. For prisoners filing pro se and other petitioners exempted from the electronic filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), only one paper copy of a petition and any other document need be filed.

(c) When this Court May Act on a Petition. — This Court may act on any petition for a writ of habeas corpus, mandamus, or prohibition before a responsive pleading or reply of the petitioner is filed. This Court may by order shorten the period within which a responsive pleading must or reply may be filed.

(d) Further Proceedings on Petitions. — Further proceedings will be in accordance with the orders of this Court or a Justice thereof to whom this Court may delegate authority to determine all procedural matters. If this Court or the designated Justice determines that evidence is desirable, (1) depositions may be taken according to a schedule agreed upon by counsel and filed in the office of the clerk of this Court or, in the absence of agreement, according to a schedule determined by this Court or the designated Justice, or (2) the Court may order the circuit court in which the judicial proceeding resulting in petitioner's detention occurred to conduct an evidentiary hearing. Such hearings will be limited in subject matter to the issues enumerated in the order. The circuit court must conduct such a hearing within 90 days after the order has been received and must report its findings of fact to this Court within 60 days after the conclusion of the hearing. The Court may extend these deadlines upon a motion filed by either party and supported by good cause. Any objection to the report must be filed in this Court within 30 days after the report is filed.

(e) Amendment of Petition. — If the statute of limitations has not expired, a petitioner may move—at any time before a ruling is rendered on the merits of the petition as initially filed—for leave of this Court to substitute an amended petition. This amendment can include additional claims not presented in the petition as initially filed. Any such motion must attach a copy of the proposed amended petition.

(f) Filing Fee. — The petition must be accompanied by either (i) the filing fee required by statute, or (ii) an in forma pauperis affidavit demonstrating that the petitioner cannot afford the filing fee. For mandamus petitions filed by pro se inmates, the Court may require the petitioner to provide a certified copy of the petitioner's inmate trust account for the preceding 12 months.

PART FIVE THE SUPREME COURT B. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

Rule 5:7B. Petition for a Writ of Actual Innocence.

(a) Who may File a Petition. – A petition for a writ of actual innocence based upon previously unknown or untested human biological evidence may be filed by any person who has been convicted of a felony or who was adjudicated delinquent by a circuit court of an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult.

(b) Time for Filing. – A petition under this Rule must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, within 60 days after the date upon which exculpatory test results are obtained by the petitioner or his counsel of record pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.1.

(c) Contents of the Petition. – Each petition for a writ of actual innocence must be filed on a form provided by this Court and must be verified under oath. The petition must state categorically and with specificity: (i) the offense or offenses for which petitioner was convicted or adjudicated delinquent, including all previous records, applications, petitions, and appeals relating to these convictions or adjudications of delinquency, and their dispositions; (ii) that the petitioner is actually innocent of the crime or crimes for which he was convicted or adjudicated delinquent; (iii) an exact description of the human biological evidence and the scientific testing supporting the allegation of innocence, attaching a copy of the test results; (iv) that the human biological evidence was not known or available to the petitioner or his attorney at trial, or if it was known, why it was not subject to scientific testing; (v) the earliest date the test results described in the petition became known to the petitioner or any attorney of record; (vi) that the petitioner or his attorney has filed the petition within 60 days of obtaining the test results; (vii) an explanation of the reason or reasons the evidence will prove that no rational trier of fact would have found the petitioner guilty or delinquent beyond a reasonable doubt of the offense or offenses for which the petitioner was convicted or adjudicated delinquent; and (viii) if the conviction or adjudication of delinquency became final in the circuit court after June 30, 1996, that the evidence was not available for testing under Code § 9.1-1104.

(d) Service of the Petition and Return of Service. – Prior to filing a petition, the petitioner must serve the petition, along with all attachments, on the Attorney General and on the Commonwealth's Attorney for the jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of delinquency occurred. The petitioner must file with the petition either (i) a duly executed return of service in the form of a verification that a copy of the petition and all attachments have been served, or (ii) an acceptance of service signed by either or both of the parties to be served, or (iii) a combination of the two.

(e) Filing Fee. – The petition must be accompanied by either (i) the filing fee required by statute, or (ii) an in forma pauperis affidavit demonstrating that the petitioner cannot afford the filing fee.

(f) Response. – The Attorney General must respond to the petition as follows:

(1) Within 30 days after service of the petition, the Attorney General must file with the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, a pleading in the form of a declaration stating, in the opinion of the Attorney General, with an explanation of the reasons therefor, whether the record of any trial or appellate proceedings involving the conviction or convictions, or adjudication or adjudications of delinquency, or of any proceedings under Code § 19.2-327.1, is necessary for preparation of a response to the petition. If the Attorney General asserts that the record, or any part thereof, of any trial or appellate court proceedings is necessary, the Attorney General should request the production of such record by this Court, and must describe with specificity, including the court, docket number and date of judgment, each and every record or part thereof which is requested.

(2) If the Attorney General asserts in the declaration required by subparagraph (f)(1) of this Rule that no trial or appellate court record, or any part thereof, is necessary for the preparation of a responsive pleading to the petition, the Attorney General must file with the clerk of this Court within 30 days thereafter a pleading in response to the petition. Any pleading in response filed by the Attorney General may include a motion to dismiss. The response must include citation to any relevant legal authorities, and may contain a proffer of any evidence pertaining to the guilt of the petitioner that is not included in the record of the case, including any evidence that was suppressed at trial.

(3) If the Attorney General asserts in the declaration required by subparagraph (f)(1) of this Rule that a trial or appellate court record, or any part thereof, is necessary for the preparation of a response to the petition, the court must issue the writ of certiorari described in Code § 19.2-327.3(D) to the clerk of the respective court below for the production of the record forthwith to the clerk of this Court. Upon receipt of the record by the clerk of this Court, the clerk must immediately notify the petitioner, any attorney for the petitioner, the Attorney General, and the attorney for the Commonwealth of the jurisdiction where the conviction or convictions or adjudication or adjudications of delinquency occurred, in writing, of the date of receipt of the record. Within 30 days after receipt of the record by the clerk of this Court, the Attorney General must file the responsive pleading described in subparagraph (f)(2) of this Rule.

(g) Reply.– Within 20 days after the Attorney General’s responsive pleading is filed pursuant to subparagraph (f) of this Rule, the petitioner may file a reply.

(h) Copies to be Filed.– For prisoners filing pro se and other petitioners exempted from the electronic filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), only one paper copy of the petition and reply need be filed.

(i) Further Proceedings by Order of this Court.— Further proceedings will be conducted in accordance with the orders of this Court. If this Court determines that an evidentiary hearing is necessary for the proper disposition of the petition, this Court may order that the circuit court conduct a hearing within 90 days after the order has been issued to certify findings of fact with respect to such issues as this Court directs. The record and certified findings of fact of the circuit court must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 30 days after the hearing is concluded. The Court may extend these deadlines upon a motion filed by either party and supported by good cause.

(j) Appointment of Counsel. – In any petition filed pursuant to and in compliance with this Rule, petitioner is entitled to the appointment of counsel subject to the provisions of Code § 19.2-157 et seq. Any request for counsel in this Court must be made on the form provided by this Court, entitled REQUEST FOR COUNSEL – PETITION FOR A WRIT OF ACTUAL INNOCENCE, and must include: (i) all the information required by the in forma pauperis affidavit attached to the request for appointment of counsel, and (ii) an attested copy of the order of the circuit court ordering that testing of human biological evidence on the petitioner's behalf be conducted pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.1.

(k) Duty of Counsel. – Any attorney(s) appointed to represent a petitioner pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.1 is deemed to be counsel of record for petitioner for all purposes and proceedings under this Rule until a final order of this Court is issued pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.5, or until counsel is relieved or replaced by other counsel by leave of this Court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA

C. PROCEDURE FOR FILING A DIRECT APPEAL

Rule 5:9. Notice of Appeal.

(a) Filing Deadline; Where to File. — No appeal will be allowed unless, within 30 days after the entry of final judgment or other appealable order or decree, or within any specified extension thereof granted by this Court pursuant to Rule 5:5(a), counsel for the appellant files with the clerk of the trial court a notice of appeal and at the same time mails or delivers a copy of such notice to all opposing counsel. A notice of appeal filed after the court announces a decision or ruling—but before the entry of such judgment or order—is treated as filed on the date of and after the entry.

Appeals from the Circuit Court. — Pursuant to Rule 1:1B, if a circuit court vacates a final judgment, a notice of appeal filed prior to the vacatur order is moot and of no effect. A new notice of appeal challenging the entry of any subsequent final judgment must be timely filed. No new notice of appeal is required, however, for a prior final judgment that was merely suspended or modified, but not vacated.

(b) Content. — The notice of appeal must contain a statement whether any transcript or statement of facts, testimony and other incidents of the case will be filed. In the event a transcript is to be filed, the notice of appeal must certify that a copy of the transcript has been ordered from the court reporter who reported the case or is otherwise already in the possession of appellant, or was previously filed in the proceedings.

(c) Separate Cases. — Whenever two or more cases were tried together in the trial court, one notice of appeal and one record may be used to bring all of such cases before this Court even though such cases were not consolidated by formal order.

(d) Special Provision for Cases Involving a Guardian Ad Litem. — No appeal will be dismissed because the notice of appeal fails to identify a guardian ad litem or to provide notice to a guardian ad litem. Upon motion for good cause shown or by sua sponte order of this Court, the notice of appeal may be amended to identify the guardian ad litem and to provide notice to such guardian.

(2) each instruction marked "given" or "refused" and initialed by the judge;

(4) the original draft or a copy of each order entered by the trial court;

(5) any opinion or memorandum decision rendered by the judge of the trial court;

(6) any deposition and any discovery material encompassed within Part Four offered in evidence (whether admitted or rejected) at any proceeding; and

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
C. PROCEDURE FOR FILING A DIRECT APPEAL

Rule 5:11. Record on Appeal: Transcript or Written Statement.

(a) Effect of Non-compliance.

(1) Obligation of the Petitioner/Appellant. It is the obligation of the petitioner/appellant to ensure that the record is sufficient to enable the Court to evaluate and resolve the assignments of error. When the appellant fails to ensure that the record contains transcripts or a written statement of facts necessary to permit resolution of appellate issues related to the assignments of error, any assignments of error affected by the omission will not be considered.

(2) Obligation of the Respondent/Appellee. It is the obligation of the respondent/appellee to ensure that the record is sufficient to enable the Court to evaluate and resolve any assignments of cross-error. When the respondent/appellee who assigns cross-error fails to ensure that the record contains transcripts or a written statement of facts necessary to permit resolution of appellate issues related to the assignments of cross-error, any assignments of cross-error affected by the omission will not be considered.

(b) Transcript. The transcript of any proceeding in the case that is necessary for the appeal must be filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court no later than 60 days after entry of judgment.

(c) Notice of Filing Transcript.

(1) Within 10 days after the transcript is filed or, if the transcript is filed prior to the filing of the notice of appeal, within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed, counsel for appellant must (i) give written notice to all other counsel of the date on which the transcript was filed, and (ii) file a copy of the notice with the clerk of the trial court. There must be appended to the notice either a certificate of counsel for appellant that a copy of the notice has been mailed to all other counsel or an acceptance of service of such notice by all other counsel.

(2) When multiple transcripts are filed, the 10 day period for filing the notice required by this Rule will be calculated from the date on which the last transcript is filed, or from the date on which the notice of appeal is filed, whichever is later. The notice of filing transcripts must identify all transcripts filed and the date upon which the last transcript was filed. If the notice of appeal states that no additional transcripts will be filed and identifies the transcripts that have been filed, if any, then no additional written notice of filing of transcripts is required and the notice of appeal will serve as the notice of filing transcripts for purposes of this Rule.

(3) Any failure to file the notice required by this Rule that materially prejudices an appellee will result in the affected transcripts being stricken from the record on appeal. For purposes of this Rule, material prejudice includes preventing the appellee from raising legitimate objections to the contents of the transcript or misleading the appellee about the contents of the record. The appellee bears the burden of establishing such prejudice in the brief in opposition or, if no brief in opposition is filed, in a written statement filed with the clerk of this Court within the time fixed by these Rules for the filing of a brief in opposition.

(d) Supplementation, Correction, or Modification of Transcript. If anything material to any party is omitted from or misstated in the transcript, or if the transcript or any portion thereof is untimely filed, by omission, clerical error, or accident, the filing may be supplemented, corrected, or modified at any time within 70 days from the entry of judgment appealed from. Notice as provided in paragraph (c) of this Rule must be given for any such supplementation, correction, or modification. Thereafter, such supplementation, correction, or modification may be made, by order of this Court sua sponte or upon motion of any party, if at least two Justices of this Court concur in a finding that any such supplementation, correction, or modification is warranted by a showing of good cause sufficient to excuse the deficiency.

(e) Written Statement in Lieu of Transcript. A written statement of facts, testimony, and other incidents of the case, which may include or consist of a portion of the transcript, becomes a part of the record when:

(1) within 60 days after entry of judgment the moving party files in the office of the clerk of the trial court: (i) a copy of the statement, and (ii) a notice that the statement will be presented to the trial judge no earlier than 15 days nor later than 20 days after the filing date. A copy of the statement and notice must be mailed or delivered to opposing counsel on the same day that they are filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. The party filing the statement and notice must set or request a hearing within the time specified in subdivision (ii) above; and

(2) the statement is signed by the trial judge and filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. The judge may sign the statement forthwith upon its presentation to him if it is signed by counsel for all parties, but if objection is made to the accuracy or completeness of the statement, it must be signed in accordance with paragraph (g) of this Rule.

(f) The term “other incidents of the case” in subsection (e) includes motions, proffers, objections, and rulings of the trial court regarding any issue that a party intends to assign as error or otherwise address on appeal.

(g) Objections. Any party may object to a transcript or written statement on the ground that it is erroneous or incomplete. The objecting party must file any objections with the clerk of the trial court, specifying the errors alleged or deficiencies asserted, no later than 15 days after the date the notice of filing the transcript (paragraph (c) of this Rule) or no later than 15 days after the date the notice of filing the written statement (paragraph (e) of this Rule) was filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. If the transcript or written statement was filed before the notice of appeal is filed, any objections must be filed within 10 days after the notice of appeal was filed with the clerk of the trial court. The clerk must give the trial judge prompt notice of the filing of such objections. Not later than 10 days after the notice of objection is filed with the clerk of the trial court, the trial judge must set a hearing with notice to all parties, unless a hearing has already been scheduled. After the hearing, the judge must:

- (1) overrule the objections; or
- (2) make any corrections that the trial judge deems necessary; or
- (3) include any accurate additions to make the record complete; or
- (4) certify the manner in which the record is incomplete; and
- (5) sign the transcript or written statement.

At any time while the record remains in the office of the clerk of the trial court, the trial judge may, after notice to counsel and hearing, correct the transcript or written statement.

The judge's signature on a transcript or written statement, without more, constitutes certification that the procedural requirements of this Rule have been satisfied.

Rule 5:13. Record on Appeal: Preparation and Transmission.

(a) Preparation. The clerk of the trial court, disciplinary board, or commission in which the proceeding originated must prepare the record as soon as possible after notice of appeal is filed. In the event of multiple appeals in the same case, or in cases tried together, only one record need be prepared and transmitted.

(b) Form of the Record.

(1) The record must be compiled in the following order:

(i) a front cover setting forth the name of the court and the short style of the case;

(ii) a table of contents listing each paper included in the record and the page on which it begins;

(iii) each paper constituting a part of the record in chronological order; and

(iv) the certificate of the clerk of the trial court that the foregoing constitutes the true and complete record, except omitted exhibits as hereinafter provided.

(2) Each page of the record must be numbered at the bottom.

(3) Transcripts, depositions, and reports of commissioners may be included in separate volumes identified by the clerk of the trial court if referred to in the table of contents and at the appropriate place in the record.

(4) Exhibits, other than those filed with pleadings, may be included in a separate volume or envelope certified by the clerk of the trial court, except that any exhibit that cannot be conveniently placed in a volume or envelope must be identified by a tag. Each such volume or envelope must include, on its cover or inside, a descriptive list of exhibits contained therein. Reference must be made to exhibits in the table of contents and at the appropriate place in the record referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this Rule. The clerk of the trial court must not transmit the following types of exhibits, unless requested to do so by the clerk of this Court: drugs, guns and other weapons, ammunition, blood vials and other bio-hazard type materials, money, jewelry, articles of clothing, and bulky items such as large graphs and maps. The omission of any such exhibit must be noted on the descriptive list of exhibits. Upon motion by counsel, this Court may order the trial court to transmit any of these prohibited exhibits.

(5) Any transcript or statement of facts that the clerk of the trial court deems not a part of the record because of untimely filing must be certified as such and transmitted with the record.

(c) Transmission. The clerk of the trial court must retain the record for 21 days after the notice of appeal has been filed with him pursuant to Rule 5:9. If the notice of appeal states that a transcript or statement will thereafter be filed, the clerk of the trial court must retain the record for 21 days after the filing in his office of such transcript or statement or, if objection is made to the transcript or statement pursuant to Rule 5:11(g), the clerk of the trial court must retain the record for 5 days after the objection is acted upon by the trial judge. The clerk of the trial court must then forthwith transmit the record to the clerk of this Court; provided, however, that, notwithstanding that the foregoing periods of retention may not have expired, the clerk of the trial court must transmit the record sooner if requested in writing by counsel for all parties to the appeal and must, whether or not so requested, transmit the record in time for delivery to the clerk of this Court within 90 days after entry of the judgment appealed from. The failure of the clerk of the trial court to transmit the record as herein provided will not be a ground for dismissal of the appeal by this Court.

(d) Record Returned to Trial Court. When the mandate is issued by this Court, the clerk of this Court must return the record to the clerk of the trial court, disciplinary board, or commission in which the proceeding originated. The record must be returned by that clerk upon the request of the clerk of this Court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
E. PERFECTING THE APPEAL

Rule 5:17. Petition for Appeal.

(a) When the Petition Must be Filed. — Unless otherwise provided by rule or statute, in every case in which the appellate jurisdiction of this Court is invoked, a petition for appeal must be filed with the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, within the following time periods:

(1) in an appeal direct from a trial court, not more than 90 days after entry of the order appealed from;

(2) in an appeal from the Court of Appeals, within 30 days after entry of the judgment appealed from or a denial of a timely petition for rehearing. However, an extension may be granted, in the discretion of this Court, on motion for good cause shown.

(b) Who Must Receive a Copy of the Petition. — When the petition for appeal is filed with the clerk of this Court, a copy of the petition must be served on opposing counsel.

(c) What the Petition Must Contain. — A petition for appeal must contain the following:

(1) Assignments of Error. Under a heading entitled “Assignments of Error,” the petition must list, clearly and concisely and without extraneous argument, the specific errors in the rulings below—or the issue(s) on which the tribunal or court appealed from failed to rule—upon which the party intends to rely, or the specific existing case law that should be overturned, extended, modified, or reversed. An exact reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken must be included with each assignment of error. If the error relates to failure of the tribunal or court below to rule on any issue, error must be assigned to such failure to rule, providing an exact reference to the page(s) of the record where the issue was preserved in the tribunal below, and specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal or court to rule on the issue(s).

(i) Effect of Failure to Assign Error. Only assignments of error assigned in the petition for appeal will be noticed by this Court. If the petition for appeal does not contain assignments of error, the petition will be dismissed.

(ii) Nature of Assignments of Error in Appeals from the Court of Appeals. When appeal is taken from a judgment of the Court of Appeals, only assignments of error relating to assignments of error presented in, and to actions taken by, the Court of Appeals may be included in the petition for appeal to this Court.

(iii) Insufficient Assignments of Error. An assignment of error that does not address the findings, rulings, or failures to rule on issues in the trial court or other tribunal from which an appeal is taken, or which merely states that the judgment or award is contrary to the law and the evidence, is not sufficient. An assignment of error in an appeal from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court which recites that “the trial court erred” and specifies the errors in the trial court, will be sufficient so long as the Court of Appeals ruled upon the specific merits of the alleged trial court error and the error assigned in this Court is identical to that assigned in the Court of Appeals. If the assignments of error are insufficient, the petition for appeal will be dismissed.

(iv) Effect of Failure to Use Separate Heading or Include Preservation Reference. If the petition for appeal contains assignments of error, but the assignments of error are not set forth under a separate heading as provided in subparagraph (c)(1) of this Rule, a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5:1A. If there is a deficiency in the reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken - including, with respect to error assigned to failure of such tribunal to rule on an issue, an exact reference to the page(s) of the record where the issue was preserved in such tribunal, specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal to rule on the issue(s) - a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5:1A.

(2) Table of Contents and Table of Authorities. A table of contents and table of authorities with cases alphabetically arranged. Citations of all authorities must include the year thereof.

(3) Nature of the Case and Material Proceedings Below. A brief statement of the nature of the case and of the material proceedings in the trial court or commission in which the case originated. This statement should omit references to any paper filed or action taken that does not relate to the assignments of error.

(4) Statement of Facts. A clear and concise statement of the facts that relate to the assignments of error, with references to the pages of the record, transcript, or written statement of facts. Any quotation from the record should be brief. When the facts are in dispute, the petition must so state. The testimony of individual witnesses should not be summarized seriatim unless the facts are in dispute and such a summary is necessary to support the appellant's version of the facts.

(5) Authorities and Argument. With respect to each assignment of error, the standard of review and the argument—including principles of law and the authorities—must be stated in one place and not scattered through the petition. At the option of counsel, the argument may be preceded by a short summary.

(6) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(d) Filing Fee Required With the Petition. — When it is filed, the petition for appeal must be accompanied by the filing fee required by statute, unless the appellant is represented by court-appointed counsel or the appellant files an in forma pauperis affidavit demonstrating that he cannot afford the filing fee. The clerk of this Court may file a petition for appeal that is not accompanied by such fee if the fee is received by the clerk within 10 days of the date the petition for appeal is filed. If the fee is not received within such time, the petition for appeal will be dismissed.

(e) Number of Copies to File. — For prisoners filing pro se and other petitioners exempted from the electronic filing requirements under Rule 5:1B(b), only one paper copy of the petition need be filed.

(f) Length. — Except by leave of a Justice of this Court, a petition must not exceed the longer of 35 pages or 6,125 words. The page or word limit does not include the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate.

(g) Use of a Single Petition in Separate Cases. — Whenever two or more cases were tried together in the court or commission below, one petition for appeal may be used to bring all such cases before this Court even though the cases were not consolidated below by formal order.

(h) Procedure for an Anders appeal. — If counsel for appellant finds appellant's appeal to be without merit, counsel must comply with the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Brown v. Warden of Virginia State Penitentiary, 238 Va. 551 (1989). In compliance therewith, counsel is required to file (1) a petition for appeal which refers to anything in the record which might arguably support the appeal and which demonstrates to this Court counsel's conscientious examination of the merits of the appeal; (2) a motion for leave to withdraw as counsel; and (3) a motion for an extension of time to allow the appellant to file a supplemental petition for appeal. The petition for appeal and the motion for leave to withdraw as counsel should specifically cite to Anders. All three pleadings must be served on opposing counsel and upon the client and must contain a certificate providing evidence of such service. This Court will rule upon the motion for extension of time upon its receipt, but will not rule on the motion to withdraw until this Court considers the case in its entirety, including any supplemental petition for appeal that may be filed.

(i) What the Certificate Must Contain. — The appellant must include within the petition for appeal a certificate stating:

(1) the names of all appellants and appellees, the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of counsel for each party, and the mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of any party not represented by counsel;

(2) that a copy of the petition for appeal has been mailed or delivered on the date stated therein to all opposing counsel and all parties not represented by counsel;

(3) if a word count is used, the number of words (headings, footnotes, and quotations count towards the word limitation; the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, and certificate do not count towards the word count);

(4) in a criminal, sexually violent predator, termination of parental rights, or habeas corpus appeal, a statement whether counsel for defendant has been appointed or privately retained; and

(5) whether the appellant desires to state orally to a panel of this Court the reasons why the petition for appeal should be granted, and, if so, whether in person or by telephone conference call.

When filed through VACES, a petition for appeal need not contain a separate certificate as long as the information contained in this subsection (i) is provided through the electronic filing process.

(j) Oral Argument. —

(1) Right to Oral Argument. The appellant is entitled to state orally, in person or by telephone conference call, to a panel of this Court the reasons why the petition for appeal should be granted. The appellee is not entitled to oral argument, whether in person or by telephone conference call. Any lawyer not licensed in Virginia who seeks to appear pro hac vice to present oral argument to the Court must comply with the requirements of Rule 1A:4.

(2) Waiver of Right to Oral Argument. The appellant may waive the right to oral argument on the petition for appeal before a panel by notifying the clerk of this Court and opposing counsel in writing, or by filing a reply brief.

(3) No Oral Argument on Pro Se Inmate's Petition. If an appellant is not represented by counsel and is incarcerated, the petition for appeal may be considered by this Court without oral argument.

(4) Notice of Oral Argument. If the appellant has requested oral argument, notice of the date and time of such argument will be provided to counsel for the appellant or to any pro se appellant and to counsel for the appellee or any pro se appellee who has filed a Brief in Opposition or otherwise appeared in the appeal.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
E. PERFECTING THE APPEAL

Rule 5:20A. Denial of Appeal; Petition for Rehearing.

[This Rule has been deleted by Order entered April 10, 2015; effective July 1, 2015.]

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
F. SPECIAL RULES

Rule 5:21. Special Rules Applicable to Certain Appeals of Right.

(a) Appeals from the State Corporation Commission. —

(1) Applicability. Paragraph (a) of this Rule applies to all appeals from the State Corporation Commission and supersedes all other Rules except as otherwise specified herein.

(2) Party to the Commission Proceeding. For the purposes of paragraph (a), the Commission, the Attorney General, the applicant or petitioner, and every person who made an appearance in person or by counsel in a capacity other than as a witness at any hearing in any proceeding before the Commission are the parties to such proceeding. Any party who is aggrieved by any final order, judgment, or finding of the Commission, or part thereof, is entitled to an appeal to this Court upon perfecting the appeal as provided by paragraph (a). Upon the request of any party, the clerk of the Commission must prepare and certify a list of all parties (including their addresses and the names and addresses of their counsel) to a proceeding before the Commission. Service upon a party represented by counsel must be made upon his counsel.

(3) Notice of Appeal. No appeal from an order of the Commission will be allowed unless the aggrieved party files a notice of appeal in the office of the clerk of the Commission within 30 days after entry of the order appealed from. A copy of the notice of appeal must be mailed or delivered to each party to the Commission proceeding, including the Attorney General of Virginia, and an acceptance of such service or a certificate showing the date of delivery or mailing must be appended thereto. All appeals from the same order will be deemed to be a consolidated case for the purpose of oral argument in this Court unless this Court orders a severance for convenience of hearing.

(4) Record. The clerk of the Commission must prepare and certify the record as soon as possible after a notice of appeal is filed and must, as soon as it has been certified by him, transmit the record to the clerk of this Court within 4 months after entry of the order appealed from. In the event of multiple appeals in the same case or in cases tried together below, only one record need be prepared and transmitted.

(5) Contents of Record. The record on appeal from the Commission consists of all notices of appeal, any application or petition, all orders entered in the case by the Commission, the opinions, the transcript of any testimony received, and all exhibits accepted or rejected, together with such other material as may be certified by the clerk of the Commission to be a part of the record. The record must conform as nearly as practicable to the requirements of Rule 5:10.

(6) Petition for Appeal.

(i) Only a party who has filed a notice of appeal in compliance with paragraph (a)(3) of this Rule may file a petition for appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal may file a petition for appeal, accompanied by the prescribed filing fee, in the office of the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, within 120 days after entry of the final order, judgment or finding by the Commission and, prior to the filing of the petition must send a copy to every other party to the Commission proceeding.

(ii) Except as provided herein, the provisions of Rule 5:17 do not apply to a petition filed pursuant to this subparagraph. The petition for appeal must identify the order appealed from and the date of the order, contain assignments of error, and include the certificate required by Rule 5:17(i) (when filed through VACES, a petition for appeal need not contain a separate certificate as long as the information contained in subsection (i) is provided through the electronic filing process).

(iii) Oral argument on the petition will not be allowed nor will a brief in opposition be received. If the petition prays for a suspension of the effective date of the order appealed from, it must contain an assignment of error regarding the effective date of the order appealed from and such statements of the facts and argument as may be necessary for an understanding of this assignment of error. In that event, a brief in opposition will be received. The brief in opposition must be filed, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, within 15 days of the filing of the petition for appeal, may be no longer than 10 pages or 1,750 words, and may only address the assignment of error regarding the effective date of the order appealed from. Oral argument on the assignment of error regarding the effective date of the order appealed from may be granted.

(7) Assignments of Error. The assignments of error must be listed under a heading entitled "Assignments of Error." The assignments of error must clearly and concisely and without extraneous argument identify the specific errors in the rulings below upon which the party intends to rely. A clear and exact reference to the pages of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved must be included with each assignment of error. Only errors so assigned will be noticed by this Court and no error not so assigned will be considered as grounds for reversal of the decision below. No ruling by the Commission will be considered as a basis for reversal unless an objection was stated with reasonable certainty at the time of the ruling, except for good cause shown or to enable this Court to attain the ends of justice. An assignment of error which merely states that the judgment is contrary to the law and the evidence is not sufficient.

(8) Award of Appeal. When the notice(s) of appeal, the record, and the petition(s) for appeal have been filed in the manner provided herein and within the time provided herein and by law, the clerk of this Court must forthwith enter an order docketing the appeal, requiring such bond as the clerk may deem proper. The clerk's action is subject to review by this Court.

(9) Notice of Participation in an Appeal. Within 21 days after an appeal from a Commission order has been docketed as provided in subparagraph (8), any party to the Commission proceeding who did not file a notice of appeal may file a notice of participation with the clerk of this Court. The notice must identify whether the party seeks to be an appellant or appellee. If there is more than one appellant, the notice of participation as an appellant must identify the specific appellant(s) with which the participating appellant will align. Participating parties must follow the briefing schedule and requirements of subparagraph 10, except that a participating party may not raise any additional assignments of error or cross-error. The notice of participation as appellant or appellee must be mailed or delivered to every other party to the Commission proceeding.

Every party who has not filed a notice of appeal or notice of participation, or having filed a notice of appeal does not file a petition as provided herein, will not be a party to the appeal and no further papers need be served on such party. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, a necessary party who does not file a notice of appeal, petition or notice of participation is deemed an appellee. The Commission need not file a notice of participation and will be deemed an appellee.

(10) Further Proceedings. Further proceedings in this Court must conform to Rules 5:23 through 5:38 provided that (i) the time within which the appellee may file with the clerk of this Court a designation of the additional parts of the record that the appellee wishes included in the appendix (Rule 5:32(b)) is extended to 30 days after the date of the certificate of the clerk of this Court, pursuant to Rule 5:23, has been awarded; and (ii) the time within which the opening brief of the appellant(s) must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court is extended to 50 days after such date.

(11) Withdrawal or Settlement of Pending Appeal. A party who filed a notice of and petition for appeal may withdraw his appeal. Notice of withdrawal or settlement must conform to Rule 5:38. Settlement or withdrawal of an appeal terminates that appellant's appeal and any participating party aligned with that appellant is deemed to have withdrawn its participation in the settled or withdrawn appeal.

(b) Appeals from the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board or a Three-Judge Circuit Court Determination.

(1) Applicability. Paragraph (b) of this Rule applies to appeals from the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board, pursuant to Part 6, § IV, Paragraph 13-26 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and to appeals from the decisions of a three-judge circuit court pursuant to Code § 54.1-3935. As used in this paragraph, "Respondent" is defined as the attorney who is appealing the decision of the disciplinary proceeding.

(2) Perfecting the Appeal.

(i) Provisions for Appeals from the Virginia State Bar Disciplinary Board. No appeal will be allowed under this paragraph unless the Respondent files a notice of appeal and assignments of error with the clerk of the Disciplinary System within 30 days after the Memorandum Order is served on the attorney by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the attorney's last address on record for membership purposes with the Virginia State Bar. At the same time the Respondent files a notice of appeal and assignments of error, a copy of the notice of appeal and assignments of error must be sent to the counsel for the Bar and the Attorney General of Virginia. The Respondent is responsible for filing a transcript in compliance with Rule 5:11. The date of the Memorandum Order is the date from which the time limits contained in Rule 5:11 will run. This action within the time prescribed is mandatory. Upon timely compliance with these rules, the Clerk of the Supreme Court will docket the appeal as provided in Rule 5:23.

(ii) Provisions for Appeals from a Three-Judge Circuit Court. No appeal will be allowed under this paragraph unless the Respondent files a notice of appeal and assignments of error with the clerk of the three-judge circuit court within 30 days after the entry of the final judgment and, at the same time, serves a copy of the notice of appeal and assignments of error on counsel for the Bar and the Attorney General of Virginia by any method authorized under Rule 1:12. The Respondent is responsible for filing a transcript in compliance with Rule 5:11. The date of the judgment is the date from which the time limits contained in Rule 5:11 will run. This action within the time prescribed is mandatory. Upon timely compliance with these rules, the Clerk of the Supreme Court will docket the appeal as provided in Rule 5:23.

(3) Record on Appeal. The clerk of the Disciplinary System or the clerk of the three-judge circuit court must compile and transmit the record as set out in Rules 5:10, 5:11, and 5:13. The clerk must immediately notify by certified mail the Respondent, and the Respondent's counsel, if any, and the Attorney General of the date the record is filed with the clerk of this Court. At the time the record is filed, the clerk must also notify the clerk of this Court and the Respondent whether the Attorney General or Bar Counsel will represent the interests of the Commonwealth as appellee.

(4) Time for Filing Briefs and Appendix. The parties must designate the contents of the appendix pursuant to the requirements of Rule 5:32 and the Respondent is responsible for filing the appendix pursuant to that Rule. The Respondent must file the opening brief in the office of the clerk of this Court within 40 days after the date the record is filed. The opening brief must contain assignments of error and references to the pages of the appendix, transcript, written statement, or record where each assignment of error was preserved. The brief of the appellee must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court within 25 days after the filing of the Respondent's opening brief. The Respondent may file a reply brief within 14 days after the filing of the appellee's brief. All briefs and the appendix must conform to the provisions of Rules 5:26 through 5:32.

(5) Stay Pending Appeal. The Respondent may file a motion with the clerk of this Court requesting a stay pending appeal of an order suspending or revoking the Respondent's license. The Respondent must file four copies of the motion for stay along with a copy of the order imposing the suspension or revocation and a copy of the Respondent's notice of appeal, which must contain the date stamp of the clerk showing the date the notice of appeal was filed. Any order of Admonition or Public Reprimand is automatically stayed prior to or during the pendency of an appeal of the order.

(6) Procedure on Appeal. Except as provided in this paragraph, further proceedings will be as provided in this Court's procedure following the perfection of an appeal set out in Rules 5:23, 5:25, and Rules 5:33 through 5:38.

(c) Judicial Inquiry and Review Commission Proceedings. —

Procedure in the Supreme Court following proceedings before the Judicial Inquiry and Review Commission will be as ordered or directed by the Court.

G. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING PERFECTION OF APPEAL

Rule 5:26. General Requirements for All Briefs.

(a) Applicability. — This Rule, along with Rule 5:6, sets forth the general requirements for all briefs filed in this Court. All briefs and the appendix must be filed in compliance with the requirements of Rule 5:1B.

(b) Length. — Except by permission of a Justice of this Court, neither the opening brief of appellant, nor the brief of appellee, nor the brief of an amicus curiae may exceed the longer of 50 pages or 8,750 words. No reply brief may exceed the longer of 15 pages or 2,625 words. Briefs of amici curiae must comply with the page limits that apply to briefs of the party being supported. The page or word limits under this Rule do not include appendices, the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate. There will be no exception to these limits except by permission of this Court on motion for extension of the limits.

(c) Filing Time. — In cases in which a petition for appeal has been granted by this Court, briefs must be filed subject to the provisions of Rule 5:1(d), as follows:

(1) The appellant must file the opening brief and appendix in the office of the clerk of this Court within 40 days after the date of the certificate of appeal issued by the clerk of this Court pursuant to Rule 5:23.

(2) The brief of appellee must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court within 25 days after filing of the opening brief.

(3) The appellant may file a reply brief in the office of the clerk of this Court within 14 days after filing of the brief of appellee.

(4) If the reply brief of the appellant addresses cross-error, the appellee may file a reply brief in support of cross-error in the office of the clerk of this Court within 14 days after the filing of the reply brief of appellant.

(d) Extension of Time. — Upon motion and with permission of a Justice of this Court, the time for filing any brief in this Court may be altered.

(e) Reference to Parties. — In their briefs, counsel should avoid reference to parties by such designations as “appellant” and “appellee.” Clarity is promoted by the use of the names of the parties or descriptive terms such as “the employee,” “the injured person,” “the driver,” “the wife,” or the designations used in the lower court or commission.

(f) Arguments Made by Reference. — Attempts to incorporate arguments made below by reference to pleadings, motions, memorandum, or other filings are prohibited.

(g) Signature and Certificate. — All briefs must contain the signature, which need not be in handwriting, of at least one counsel of record, counsel's Virginia State Bar number, address, telephone number, facsimile number (if any), and email address, and a certificate that there has been compliance with this Rule. If a word count is used, the certificate must also state the number of words (headings, footnotes, and quotations count towards the word limitation; the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, and certificate do not count towards the word count).

(h) Failure to File Complying Brief. — Any party who fails to file a brief in compliance with these Rules or otherwise fails to file a required brief may be subject to sanctions deemed reasonable by the Court, including, but not limited to, forfeiture of oral argument.

G. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING PERFECTION OF APPEAL

Rule 5:30. Briefs Amicus Curiae.

(a) Stage of proceedings.— Subject to the requirements in this Rule, a brief amicus curiae may be filed during the petition, perfected appeal, and rehearing stages of the appellate proceedings in this Court, and in proceedings invoking this Court’s original jurisdiction.

(b) Who May File a Brief Amicus Curiae Without Leave of Court. —

- (1) The United States of America; and
- (2) The Commonwealth of Virginia.

(c) Who Needs Leave of Court to File a Brief Amicus Curiae. — Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Rule, any person or entity seeking to file a brief amicus curiae must obtain leave of Court by motion. Such motion must:

- (1) state whether the brief would be in support of a party (and if so, which party or parties), or in support of none of the parties;
- (2) certify that the applicant has sought to obtain consent of all parties;
- (3) state which, if any, of the parties has consented to the motion and whether a party that has not consented has stated an intention to file an opposition to the motion; and
- (4) attach the proposed brief.

(d) When a Brief Amicus Curiae Must Be Filed. —

A brief amicus curiae is timely if filed no later than 7 days after the principal brief or filing of the party supported. An amicus brief in support of neither party is timely if filed no later than 7 days after the opening brief or petition. Except by the Court’s permission, an amicus curiae may not file a reply brief.

(e) What a Brief Amicus Curiae Must Contain. —

(1) A brief amicus curiae must comply with the rules applicable to the brief or filing of the party supported. If a person or entity is filing an amicus brief in support of neither party, the brief amicus curiae must comply with the rules applicable to the appellant or petitioner. The cover must identify the party or parties supported, if any.

(2) Unless the amicus curiae is one listed in subparagraph (b) of this Rule, an amicus brief must include a statement that indicates whether:

- (i) a party’s counsel authored the brief in whole or in part;

(ii) a party or a party's counsel contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief; and

(iii) a person—other than the amicus curiae, its members, or its counsel—contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief and, if so, that identifies each such person.

(f) This Court's Authority to Request a Brief Amicus Curiae. — Notwithstanding the provisions of this Rule, this Court may request that a brief amicus curiae be filed at any time.

(g) Prohibition on Amicus Filings that Would Require Recusal. — The Court may prohibit the filing of or strike an amicus brief that would result in the recusal of a Justice of this Court.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE
THE SUPREME COURT
G. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING PERFECTION OF APPEAL

Rule 5:32. Appendix.

(a) Responsibility of the Appellant. —

(1) Contents of the Appendix. The appellant must prepare and file an appendix. The appendix must contain:

- (i) the initial pleading (as finally amended), unless other versions are necessary to consider the assignments of error;
- (ii) final judgments of all tribunals that have considered the case, including the judgment appealed from, and any opinion relating to such judgments;
- (iii) testimony and other incidents of the case germane to the assignments of error;
- (iv) exhibits necessary for an understanding of the case that can reasonably be reproduced;
- (v) the granted assignments of error and cross-error;
- (vi) other parts of the record to which the parties wish to direct this Court's attention; and
- (vii) a table of contents as described in paragraph (d) below.

(2) Assumptions and Excluded Material. It will be assumed that the appendix contains everything germane to the granted assignments of error and, if any, assignments of cross-error. Memoranda of law in the trial court should not be included in the appendix unless they have independent relevance. Parts of the record may be relied on by this Court or the parties even though not included in the appendix.

(b) Responsibility of All Parties. —

(1) Determining the Contents of the Appendix. The parties are encouraged to agree on the contents of the appendix. Within 15 days after the date of the certificate of the clerk of this Court issued pursuant to Rule 5:23, counsel for appellant must file in the office of the clerk of this Court a written statement signed by all counsel setting forth an agreed designation of the parts of the record on appeal to be included in the appendix. In the absence of an agreement, the appellant must, within 15 days after the date of the certificate of appeal issued by the clerk of this Court pursuant to Rule 5:23, file with the clerk of this Court and serve on the appellee a designation of the parts of the record the appellant intends to include in the appendix. The appellee may, within 15 days after receiving the designation, file with the clerk of this Court and serve on the appellant a designation of additional parts of the record the appellee deems germane. The appellant must include the parts designated by the appellee in the appendix, together with any additional parts the appellant considers germane. The parties must not engage in an unnecessary designation of parts of the record, because the entire record is available to the Court.

(2) Sealed Materials in the Appendix. Appendices filed with this Court are a matter of public record. If counsel concludes it is necessary to include sealed materials in the appendix, then, in order to maintain the confidentiality of the materials, counsel must designate the sealed materials for inclusion in a supplemental appendix to be filed separately from the regular appendix, and must file a specific motion asking this Court to seal the supplemental appendix within the time stated for the designation of the appendix in paragraph (b)(1) of this Rule. A sealed volume of the appendix must be filed in the manner prescribed by the Guidelines and User's Manual. The Guidelines are located on the Court's website at <https://eapps.courts.state.va.us/help/robo/vaces/index.htm#t=VACES.htm>.

(3) Costs of Appendix. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the appellant must initially pay the cost of the appendix, but if the appellant in good faith considers that parts of the record designated by the appellee for inclusion are unnecessary for the determination of the assignments of error, the appellant initially preparing the appendix may so advise the clerk of this Court and the appellee, and the appellee who designated the challenged material must advance the cost of including such parts. The cost of producing the appendix may be taxed as costs in the case, but if any party causes unnecessary material to be included in the appendix this Court sua sponte or upon motion may impose the cost of including such parts upon that party.

(c) Appeal on the Original Record Without an Appendix. — This Court may, sua sponte or on motion, enter an order dispensing with the appendix and permitting an appeal to proceed on the original record with any copies of the record, or relevant parts, that the Court may order the parties to file. A motion may be made under this rule within 10 days of the issuance of a writ. The making of a motion under this paragraph does not excuse the filing of the proposed contents of an appendix under paragraph (b)(1).

(d) Table of Contents and Form of Presentation. — The appendix must begin with a table of contents identifying the page at which each part begins. When the testimony of witnesses is included, the name of each witness who is testifying must be in the table of contents with a page number at which each portion of the testimony begins (direct, cross, redirect, etc.). Parts of the record should be in the appendix in chronological order. Omissions in the text of papers or of the transcript must be indicated by asterisks. The index for exhibits should include a description of the exhibit sufficient to inform this Court of its nature rather than merely an exhibit number.

(e) Effect of Non-Compliance with this Rule. — An appeal will not be dismissed for failure to file an appendix in compliance with this Rule. If an appendix is not filed within the time prescribed, or on its face fails to comply with this Rule, this Court may direct the filing of a proper appendix within a specific time and may require a non-complying attorney or unrepresented party to advance all or part of the cost of printing the appendix. This Court may dismiss an appeal for non-compliance with an order entered under this paragraph.

Rule 5:33. Oral Argument.

(a) Notice. — Whenever an appeal lies as a matter of right or a petition for appeal has been granted, the clerk of this Court, except in extraordinary circumstances, must give at least 15 days' notice to counsel of the date, approximate time, and location for oral argument.

(b) Length. — Except as otherwise directed by this Court, argument for a party may not exceed 15 minutes in length. Such time may be apportioned among counsel for the same side at their discretion.

(c) Appearance Pro Hac Vice. — Any lawyer not licensed in Virginia who seeks to appear pro hac vice to present oral argument to the Court must comply with the requirements of Rule 1A:4.

(d) Amicus Curiae. — No oral argument by amicus curiae is permitted except by leave of this Court. Leave may be granted upon the joint written request of amicus curiae and the party whose position amicus curiae supports. The request must specify the amount of its allotted time the supported party is willing to yield to amicus curiae.

(e) Waiver. — During oral argument, it is not necessary for any party to expressly reserve any argument made on brief, and the failure to raise any such argument does not constitute a waiver. Any party may, without waiving the arguments made on brief, waive oral argument.

(f) Demonstrative Exhibits. — No demonstrative exhibit may be used by or on behalf of a party during oral argument without the prior consent of the Court. A party or counsel intending to use a demonstrative exhibit during oral argument must notify the clerk of this Court by letter, with a copy to all other parties, at least five (5) business days prior to the scheduled date of the oral argument. The letter must describe the proposed demonstrative exhibit and the manner in which it will be used. The Court, in its discretion, may refuse to allow the use of the demonstrative exhibit. No demonstrative exhibit may be brought into the courtroom unless the Court has consented to its use during oral argument.

Rule 5:35. Attorney Fees, Costs, and Notarized Bill of Costs.

(a) To Whom Costs Allowed. — Except as otherwise provided by law, if an appeal is dismissed, costs will be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by this Court; if a judgment is affirmed, costs will be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise ordered; if a judgment is reversed, costs will be taxed against the appellee unless otherwise ordered; if a judgment is affirmed in part or reversed in part, or is vacated, costs will be allowed as ordered by this Court.

(b) Attorney Fees. — (1) Fee Recovery by Prevailing Appellee. A prevailing appellee who was awarded attorney fees and costs in the circuit court may make application in the circuit court for additional fees and costs incurred on appeal pursuant to Rule 1:1A.

(2) Attorney Fees Where Authorized by Statute.

(A) In any case in which a party has a statutory, contractual or other basis to request attorney fees, the party may request an award of attorney fees incurred in the appeal of the case by making the request in an appellant's, petitioner's, appellee's, or respondent's brief.

(B) Upon the making of a request for attorney fees as set forth in (b)(2)(A) above, and unless otherwise provided by the terms of a contract or stipulation between the parties, the Supreme Court may award to a party who has made such request, all of their attorney fees, or any part thereof, or remand the issue for determination as directed in the mandate. Such fees may include the fees incurred by such party in pursuing fees as awarded in the circuit court.

(C) In determining whether to make such an award, the Supreme Court is not limited to a consideration of whether a party's position on an issue was frivolous or lacked substantial merit but may consider all the equities of the case.

(D) Where the appellate mandate remands the issue to the circuit court for an award of reasonable attorney fees, in determining the reasonableness of such an award the circuit court should consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to, the extent to which the party was a prevailing party on the issues, the nature of the issues involved, the time and labor involved, the financial resources of the parties, and the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

(c) Taxable Costs. — Costs, including the filing fee and costs incurred in the printing or producing of necessary copies of briefs, appendices, and petitions for rehearing, are taxable in this Court. Costs incurred in the preparation of transcripts may be taxable in this Court. See Code § 17.1-128.

(d) Notarized Bill of Costs. — Counsel for a party who desires costs to be taxed must itemize them in a notarized bill of costs, which must be filed with the clerk of this Court, as provided for in Rule 5:1B, within 14 days after the date of the decision in the case. Objections to the bill of costs must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 10 days after the date of filing the bill of costs.

(e) Award. — The clerk of this Court must prepare and certify an itemized statement of costs taxed in this Court for insertion in the mandate, but the issuance of the mandate will not be delayed for taxation of costs. If the mandate has been issued before final determination of costs, the statement, or any amendment thereof, will be added to the mandate on request by the clerk of this Court to the clerk of the tribunal in which the case originated.

(a) Upon joint motion of the parties in a civil case, the Court may extend the filing deadlines under Rule 5:17(a), Rule 5:18(a), or Rule 5:26(c) to enable the parties to pursue mediation. An order granting such a time extension will specify new filing deadlines or a deadline for the parties to file a joint progress report.

(b) When a case has been settled or the appeal withdrawn at any time after the notice of appeal has been filed, it is the duty of counsel to notify the clerk of this Court by filing a written notice that the case has been settled or the appeal withdrawn. If counsel certifies that the terms of the settlement or withdrawal require further proceedings in the trial court, the Court may approve entry of an order of remand.

K. CERTIFICATION OF QUESTIONS OF LAW

Rule 5:40. Certification Procedures.

(a) Power to Answer. — This Court may in its discretion answer questions of law certified to it by the Supreme Court of the United States, a United States court of appeals for any circuit, a United States district court, or the highest appellate court of any state, territory, or the District of Columbia. Such answer may be furnished, when requested by the certifying court, if a question of Virginia law is determinative in any proceeding pending before the certifying court and it appears there is no controlling precedent on point in the decisions of this Court or the Court of Appeals of Virginia.

(b) Method of Invoking. — This Rule may be invoked only by an order of one of the courts referred to in paragraph (a) of this Rule. No party litigant in the foregoing courts may file a petition or motion for certification in this Court.

(c) Contents of Certification Order. — A certification order must set forth:

- (1) the nature of the controversy in which the question arises;
- (2) the question of law to be answered;
- (3) a statement of all facts relevant to the question certified;
- (4) the names of each of the parties involved;
- (5) the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of counsel for each of the parties involved;
- (6) a brief statement explaining how the certified question of law is determinative of the proceeding in the certifying court; and
- (7) a brief statement setting forth relevant decisions, if any, of this Court and the Court of Appeals of Virginia and the reasons why such decisions are not controlling.

(d) Preparation of Certification Order. — The certification order may be prepared by the certifying court, signed by the presiding justice or judge, and forwarded to this Court by the clerk of the certifying court under its official seal. This Court may require the original or copies of all or of any portion of the record before the certifying court to be filed, if, in the opinion of this Court, the record or portion thereof may be necessary in answering the certified question. This Court may in its discretion restate any question of law certified or may request from the certifying court additional clarification with respect to any question certified or with respect to any facts.

(e) Notification of Acceptance or Rejection. — This Court, in its discretion, may decide whether to answer any certified question of law. This Court will notify the certifying court and counsel for the parties of its decision to accept or to reject any certified question of law. A notice accepting a question will include a briefing schedule and, if this Court permits oral argument, a tentative date and the length of time allowed for such argument.

(f) Revocation of Acceptance. — This Court, in its discretion, may revoke its decision to answer a certified question of law at any time. This Court will notify the certifying court and counsel for the parties of any such action.

(g) Costs of Certification. — Fees and costs are the same as in civil appeals docketed in this Court and must be paid as ordered by the certifying court in its order of certification.

(h) Briefs. — The form, length, and time for submission of briefs must comply with Rules 5:26 through 5:32 mutatis mutandis.

(i) Opinion. — A written opinion or order of this Court stating the law governing each question certified will be rendered as soon as practicable after the submission of briefs and after any oral argument. The opinion or order will be sent by the clerk under the seal of this Court to the certifying court and to counsel for the parties and must, if this Court so directs, be published in the Virginia Reports.

(a) Quarantine Related Code Provisions. — In proceedings involving circuit court orders of quarantine of a person or persons pursuant to Article 3.02 of Chapter 2 of Title 32.1 of the Code of Virginia, the provisions of Code § 32.1-48.010 apply with respect to appealability of such orders, the effect of an appeal upon any order of quarantine, availability of expedited review, stay of quarantine orders, and representation by counsel.

(b) Isolation Order Code Provisions. — In proceedings involving circuit court orders of isolation of a person or persons pursuant to Article 3.02 of Chapter 2 of Title 32.1 of the Code of Virginia, the provisions of Code § 32.1-48.013 apply with respect to appealability of such orders, the effect of an appeal upon any order of isolation, availability of expedited review, stay of isolation orders, and representation by counsel.

However, the Court may employ the expedited review provision in Rule 5:18(c). The Court will act upon the petition within 72 hours of its filing. Should the Court grant a writ, the Court may, in its discretion, permit oral argument within 48 hours of granting the writ. The Court will issue an order within 24 hours of the argument or of its review of the case without oral argument. The Court has the authority to alter these time frames in any case.

(e) Oral Argument. — The Court must hold any oral argument in appeals under this rule in a manner so as to protect the health and safety of individuals subject to any such order or quarantine or isolation, court personnel, counsel, and the general public. To this end, the Court may take measures including, but not limited to, ordering any oral argument to be held by telephone or video conference or ordering those present to take appropriate precautions, including wearing personal protective equipment. If necessary, the Court may dispense with oral argument.

(10) “trial court” means the circuit court from which an appeal is taken to this Court;

(11) the “date of entry” of any final judgment or other appealable order or decree is the date the judgment, order, or decree is signed by the judge.

(e) Notice of Change of Address and Other Contact Information. — If an attorney or a party pro se has a change in mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, or e-mail address any time after the filing of the notice of appeal, that individual must immediately notify the clerk of this Court and all other counsel of record in writing. The notice must reference the style and record number of all cases pending before this Court.

(f) Citing Unpublished Judicial Dispositions. — The citation of judicial opinions, orders, judgments, or other written dispositions that are not officially reported, whether designated as “unpublished,” “not for publication,” “non precedential,” or the like, is permitted as informative, but will not be received as binding authority. If the cited disposition is not available in a publicly accessible electronic database, a copy of that disposition must be filed with the brief or other paper in which it is cited.

(g) Substitution of Parties.

(1) Substitution of a Successor. — If a person becomes incapable of prosecuting or defending because of death, disability, conviction of felony, or other cause, and the claim is not extinguished, a successor in interest may be substituted as a party in such person’s place.

(2) Motion. — Substitution may be made on motion of the successor or of any party to the appeal.

(3) Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office. — An action does not abate when a public officer who is a party in an official capacity dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office while the action is pending. The officer’s successor is automatically substituted as a party. Later proceedings should be in the substituted party’s name, but any misnomer not affecting the parties’ substantial rights must be disregarded. The Court may order substitution at any time, but the absence of such an order does not affect the substitution.

(a) Penalties; Show Cause; Dismissal. — This Court may dismiss an appeal or impose such other penalty as it deems appropriate for non-compliance with these Rules. Except as provided in Rule 5A:12(c)(1)(i) and(ii) and Rule 5A:20(c) regarding assignments of error, before dismissing an appeal for any defect in the filings related to formatting, curable failure to comply with other requirements, or the failure to meet non-mandatory filing deadlines, this Court may issue a show cause order to counsel or a party not represented by an attorney, prescribing a time in which to cure such defect or to otherwise show cause why the appeal should not be dismissed or other penalty imposed.

(b) Report to Virginia State Bar. — If an attorney's failure to comply with these Rules results in the dismissal of an appeal, this Court may report the attorney to the Virginia State Bar in accordance with Rule 8.3 of the Virginia Rules of Professional Conduct.

Rule 5A:2. Motions and Responses; Orders.

(a) Motions and Responses.

(1) Motions. All motions must be in writing and filed with the clerk of this Court. All motions must contain a statement by the movant that the other parties to the appeal have been informed of the intended filing of the motion. For all motions in cases when all parties are represented by counsel—except motions to dismiss petitions in original jurisdiction proceedings—the statement by the movant must also indicate whether the other parties consent to the granting of the motion, or intend to file responses in opposition.

(2) Responses. Opposing counsel may have 10 days after such motion is filed to file with such clerk a response to such motion, but this Court may act before the 10 days expire, if necessary.

(3) Oral Argument. No motion will be argued orally except by leave of this Court.

(b) Motion for Review of Pre-trial Bail Orders in Criminal Cases. — When a circuit court has granted or denied pre-trial bail or set a bond or terms of recognizance or revoked bail, either party may move this Court to review the order. With the motion for review, the party seeking review must submit copies of: (1) the warrant(s) or indictment(s) in the case; (2) the order granting, denying, or setting bond; and (3) a transcript of the bond hearing or a stipulation between counsel stating the evidence introduced at the bond hearing and the ruling of the circuit court. An order setting or denying bail or setting terms of a bond or recognizance is reviewable for abuse of discretion.

(c) Motion for Review of Post-trial Bail Pending Appeal Orders in Criminal Cases. — When a notice of appeal has been filed in a criminal case, an appellant other than the Commonwealth may move this Court to review the trial court's order denying bail pending appeal or setting an excessive bail pending appeal. With the motion for review, the appellant must submit copies of: (1) the sentencing order entered by the trial court; (2) a pre-sentence report when available; (3) the trial court's decision setting or denying bail; and (4) a transcript of the bail hearing or a stipulation between counsel stating the evidence introduced at the bail hearing and the reason the trial court gave for the bail decision. An order setting or denying bail pending appeal in a criminal case is reviewable for abuse of discretion. If this Court overrules a trial court decision denying bail pending appeal, this Court will set the amount of the bail pending appeal or remand the matter to the trial court with directions to set bail pending appeal.

(d) Orders. — Promptly after this Court has entered an order, the clerk of this Court

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
A. GENERAL

Rule 5A:3. Filing Deadlines; Post Trial Proceedings Below; Timely Filing by Mail; Filings by Incarcerated Individuals; Extension of Time.

(a) Certain Filing Deadlines and Extensions. — The times prescribed for filing a notice of appeal (Rules 5A:6 and 5A:11), a petition for appeal (Rule 5A:12), a petition for rehearing (Rule 5A:33), and a request for rehearing en banc (Rule 5A:34) are mandatory, except that an extension of the time to file a notice of appeal, a petition for rehearing, and a petition for rehearing en banc may be granted in the discretion of this Court on motion for good cause shown. The time period for filing the notice of appeal is not extended by the filing of a motion for a new trial, a petition for rehearing, or a like pleading unless the final judgment is modified, vacated, or suspended by the trial court pursuant to Rule 1:1, in which case the time for filing is computed from the date of the final judgment entered following such modification, vacation, or suspension.

(b) Extensions Generally. — Except as provided in paragraph (a) of this Rule, the times prescribed in these Rules for filing papers, except transcripts (Rule 5A:8(a)), may be extended by a judge of the court in which the papers are to be filed on motion for good cause shown. Filing a motion for extension does not toll the applicable deadline.

(c) Filing Deadlines for Motions for Extension. — A motion for extension of time is timely if filed:

(1) within any specific deadline governing motions to extend, see Rules 5A:8(a), 5A:13(a), 5A:19(b), and 5A:19(c); or

(2) if a rule does not provide a specific deadline governing motions to extend, within 30 days after the filing deadline from which an extension is sought.

(d) How to File by Mail in a Timely Manner. — A document filed with the clerk of this Court by a litigant permitted to file non-electronically under Rule 5A:1(c) will be deemed to be timely filed if (1) it is transmitted expense pre-paid to the clerk of this Court by priority, express, registered, or certified mail via the United States Postal Service, or by a third-party commercial carrier for next-day delivery, and (2) if the official receipt therefor be exhibited upon demand of the clerk or any party and it shows such transmission or mailing within the prescribed time limits. This Rule does not apply to documents to be filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court or clerk of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission.

(e) Filings by incarcerated individuals. —

(1) Timeliness. — A paper filed by an individual confined in an institution, including a prison, jail, or the Virginia Center for Behavioral Rehabilitation, is timely filed if deposited in the institution's internal mail system on or before the last day for filing. Timely filing of a paper by an individual confined in such an institution may be established by (i) an official stamp of the institution showing that the paper was deposited in the internal mail system on or before the last day for filing, (ii) an official postmark dated on or before the last day for filing, or (iii) a notarized statement signed by an official of the institution showing that the paper was deposited in the internal mail system on or before the last day for filing.

(2) Extension of time for lack of notice.— Notwithstanding Rule 5A:3(a), if an individual confined in an institution did not receive a copy of the final order until after the appellate filing deadline expired because the lower tribunal either (i) mailed the final order to the wrong address or (ii) mailed it 30 days or more after entry, the individual may move for an extension of the filing deadline. The motion must be accompanied by a copy of the lower tribunal envelope displaying the postmark, a copy of the notice of appeal the individual filed in the lower tribunal after receiving the final order, and either (i) an official copy of the institution's mail records or (ii) a notarized statement signed by an official of the institution showing the date the individual received the order. The motion must be filed no later than 30 days after the individual received the order. In evaluating the motion, the Court may consider record information showing a failure to timely mail the final order and other information that may be supplied by the lower tribunal.

(a) Paper Size, Line Spacing, Font, and Margins. — Briefs, appendices, motions, petitions, and other documents may be printed or produced on screen by any process that yields a clear black image on a white background and, when printed, must be on pages 8-½ x 11-inch paper. Except by leave of Court, all motions, petitions, and briefs, including footnotes, must use one of the font styles listed on the Court’s website, must be in at least 14-point font, and must be printed on only one side of the page. Text may not be reduced, and must be double-spaced except for headings, assignments of error, quotations that exceed 49 words, and footnotes. Margins must be at least one inch on all four sides of each page. The use of condensed or multi-page transcripts is prohibited.

(b) Binding and Cover. — All briefs, appendices, petitions for rehearing, and petitions for rehearing en banc filed by a litigant permitted to file non-electronically under Rule 5A:1(c) must be bound on the left margin in such a manner as to produce a flat, smooth binding. Spiral binding, Acco fasteners, and the like are not acceptable. The front cover of all petitions for appeal, briefs, appendices, petitions for rehearing, and petitions for rehearing en banc must contain the style of the case (with the name of the petitioner/appellant stated first) and the record number of the case and the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and email address of counsel submitting the document.

(c) Effect of Non-compliance. — No appeal will be dismissed for failure to comply with the provisions of this Rule; however, the clerk of this Court may require that a document be redone in compliance with this Rule. However, failure to comply after notice of noncompliance may result in the dismissal of the case.

(d) Certificate of Compliance with Word Count Limit. — Any brief, motion, petition, or other document that has a word count limit in these Rules must include a certificate by the attorney, or unrepresented party, that the document complies with the applicable word count limit. The person preparing the certificate may rely on the word count of the word-processing system used to prepare the document. The certificate must state the number of words the document contains, excluding those parts specifically exempted by these Rules.

If pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention after the party's petition for appeal, brief in opposition, or brief has been filed, or after oral argument but before decision, a party may promptly advise the clerk by letter, with a copy to all other parties, setting forth the citations. Any response must be made within 14 days and must not exceed 350 words. RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
THE COURT OF APPEALS
B. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

Rule 5A:5. Original Proceedings.

(a) Original Jurisdiction Proceedings Other Than Actual Innocence Petitions. – With the exception of petitions for the issuance of writs of actual innocence under paragraph (b) of this Rule, all proceedings before this Court pursuant to its original jurisdiction will be conducted in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Rule 5:7 of the Rules of the Supreme Court.

(b) Petition for a Writ of Actual Innocence. –

(1) Scope. Any person convicted of a felony or any person who was adjudicated delinquent by a circuit court of an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, may file in this Court a petition under Code § 19.2-327.10 et seq. seeking a writ of actual innocence based on nonbiological evidence.

(2) Form and Contents of Petition. The petition must be filed using Form 10 in the Appendix of Forms following Part 5A and must include all allegations and documents required by subsections A and B of Code § 19.2-327.11. Under Code § 19.2-327.11(B) “relevant documents” include, but not be limited to, any orders of conviction, adjudication of delinquency, and sentencing orders being challenged, any appellate dispositions on direct review or any habeas corpus orders (issued by any federal or state court), and any prior petitions filed under Code § 19.2-327.10 et seq. in this Court or under Code § 19.2-327.2 et seq. in the Supreme Court.

(3) Parties. All pleadings must name as the petitioner the person convicted of a felony or adjudicated delinquent who is seeking relief. The pleadings must identify the Commonwealth, represented by the Attorney General, as respondent.

(4) Filing Fee. The petition must be accompanied by either (i) a $50.00 filing fee, or (ii) an in forma pauperis affidavit demonstrating that the petitioner cannot afford the filing fee. An affidavit seeking in forma pauperis status must list all assets and liabilities of petitioner, including the current balance of any inmate account maintained by correctional facility.

(5) Appointment of Counsel. If the Court does not summarily dismiss the petition, the Court will appoint counsel for any indigent petitioner who requests the appointment of counsel and satisfies the indigency criteria of Code § 19.2-159. In the Court’s discretion, counsel may be appointed at an earlier stage of the proceeding at the petitioner’s request upon a showing of requisite indigency. All requests for the appointment of counsel must be made on the form provided by this Court.

(6) Service of Petition and Return of Service. Prior to filing a petition, the petitioner must serve the petition, along with all attachments, on the Attorney General and on the Commonwealth's Attorney for the jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of delinquency occurred. When represented by counsel, the petitioner must file with the petition either (i) a duly executed return of service in the form of a verification that a copy of the petition and all attachments have been served, or (ii) an acceptance of service signed by either or both of the parties to be served, or (iii) a combination of the two. When unrepresented by counsel, the petitioner must file with the petition a certificate that a copy of the petition and all attachments have been sent, by certified mail, to the Attorney General and the Commonwealth's Attorney for the jurisdiction where the conviction or adjudication of delinquency occurred.

(7) Response. If this Court does not summarily dismiss the petition, the court will provide written notice to all parties directing the Commonwealth, within 60 days after receipt of such notice, to file a response to the petition pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.11(C). For good cause shown, the 60-day deadline may be extended by this Court. The Commonwealth's response may include any information pertinent to the petitioner's guilt, delinquency, or innocence, including proffers of evidence outside the trial court record and evidence previously suppressed at trial.

(8) Reply. The petitioner may file a reply to the Commonwealth's response only if directed to do so by this Court.

(9) Evidentiary Hearing. This Court may order the circuit court that entered the conviction or adjudication of delinquency to conduct an evidentiary hearing and to certify factual findings pursuant to Code § 19.2-327.12. Such findings, however, will be limited to the specific questions addressed by this Court in its certification order. In the circuit court, the petitioner and the Commonwealth must be afforded an opportunity to present evidence and to examine witnesses on matters relevant to the certified questions.

(10) Oral Argument. Unless otherwise directed by this Court, oral argument will only be allowed on the final decision whether to grant or deny the writ under Code § 19.2-327.13.

(11) Appeal. The petitioner or the Commonwealth may petition for appeal to the Supreme Court from any adverse final decision issued by this Court under Code § 19.2-327.13 to issue or deny a writ of actual innocence. Such an appeal is initiated by the filing of a notice of appeal pursuant to Rule 5:14.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
C. PROCEDURE FOR FILING AN APPEAL FROM THE TRIAL COURT

Rule 5A:6. Notice of Appeal.

(a) Filing Deadline; Where to File. — Except as otherwise provided by statute, no appeal will be allowed unless, within 30 days after entry of final judgment or other appealable order or decree, or within any specified extension thereof granted by this Court under Rule 5A:3(a), counsel files with the clerk of the trial court a notice of appeal, and at the same time transmits, mails, or delivers a copy of such notice to all opposing counsel. A notice of appeal filed after the trial court announces a decision or ruling—but before the entry of such judgment or order—is treated as filed on the date of and after the entry. A party filing a notice of an appeal of right to this Court must simultaneously file in the trial court an appeal bond if required by Code § 8.01-676.1.

(a1) Appeals from the Circuit Court. — Pursuant to Rule 1:1B, if a circuit court vacates a final judgment, a notice of appeal filed prior to the vacatur order is moot and of no effect. A new notice of appeal challenging the entry of any subsequent final judgment must be timely filed. No new notice of appeal is required, however, for a prior final judgment that was merely suspended or modified, but not vacated.

(a2) Appeal of Certified Questions or Multiple Claimant Litigation Act Orders. — A notice of appeal is not required for a petition for appeal of a certified question under Code § 8.01-675.5(A) or an interlocutory appeal under Code § 8.01-267.8 of the Multiple Claimant Litigation Act.

(b) Content. — The notice of appeal must contain a statement whether any transcript or statement of facts, testimony, and other incidents of the case will be filed.

(c) Filing Fee. — A copy of the notice of appeal must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court and, except as otherwise provided by law, must be accompanied by the $50 filing fee required by statute. The fee is due at the time the notice of appeal is presented. The clerk of this Court will file any notice of appeal that is not accompanied by such fee if the fee is received by the clerk within 10 days of the date the notice of appeal is filed. If the fee is not received within such time, the appeal will be dismissed.

(d) Certificate. — The appellant must include with the notice of appeal a certificate stating:

(1) the names and addresses of all appellants and appellees, the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of counsel for each party; and the mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of any party not represented by counsel; and

(2) that a copy of the notice of appeal has been transmitted, mailed, or delivered to all opposing counsel; and

(3) in a criminal case a statement whether counsel for defendant has been appointed or privately retained; and

(4) that in the event a transcript is to be filed a copy of the transcript has been ordered from the court reporter who reported the case or is otherwise already in the possession of appellant, or was previously filed in the proceedings.

(e) Separate Cases. — Whenever two or more cases were tried together in the trial court, one notice of appeal and one record may be used to bring all of such cases before this Court even though such cases were not consolidated by formal order.

(f) Special Provision for Cases Involving a Guardian Ad Litem. — No appeal will be dismissed because the notice of appeal fails to identify a guardian ad litem or to provide notice to a guardian ad litem. Upon motion for good cause shown or by sua sponte order of this Court, the notice of appeal may be amended to identify the guardian ad litem and to provide notice to such guardian.

(g) Notice of Appearance by the Commonwealth in Criminal Cases. — Within 10 days of the filing of the trial court record in a criminal case in the Court of Appeals, the Attorney General, or the attorney for the Commonwealth who prosecuted the underlying criminal case, acting pursuant to Code § 2.2-511 and with the consent of the Attorney General, must file a notice of appearance identifying the attorney(s) representing the Commonwealth in the appeal. The notice of appearance must identify the name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number (including any applicable extension), facsimile number (if any), and e-mail address (if any) of counsel who is to represent the Commonwealth in the appeal. If the notice is being filed by the attorney for the Commonwealth who prosecuted the underlying criminal case, it must include a certification that the Attorney General has consented to the representation. A copy of the notice of appearance must be served on counsel for the appellant.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
C. PROCEDURE FOR FILING AN APPEAL FROM THE TRIAL COURT

Rule 5A:8. Record on Appeal: Transcript or Written Statement.

(a) Transcript. — The transcript of any proceeding is a part of the record when it is filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court no later than 60 days after entry of the final judgment. This deadline may be extended by a judge of this Court only upon a written motion filed within 90 days after the entry of final judgment. Timely motions will be granted only upon a showing of good cause to excuse the delay.

(b) Notice of Filing Transcript. —

(1) Time for Filing. Within 10 days after the transcript is filed or, if the transcript is filed prior to the filing of the notice of appeal, within 10 days after the notice of appeal is filed, counsel for appellant must:

(i) give written notice to all other counsel of the date on which the transcript was filed, and

(ii) file a copy of the notice with the clerk of the trial court.

There must be appended to the notice either a certificate of counsel for appellant that a copy of the notice has been mailed to all other counsel or an acceptance of service of such notice by all other counsel.

(2) Multiple Transcripts. When multiple transcripts are filed, the 10-day period for filing the notice required by this Rule is calculated from the date on which the last transcript is filed or from the date on which the notice of appeal is filed, whichever is later. The notice of filing transcripts must identify all transcripts filed and the date upon which the last transcript was filed.

(3) Notice of No Further Transcripts. If the notice of appeal states that no additional transcripts will be filed and identifies the transcripts that have been filed, if any, then no additional written notice of filing transcripts is required and the notice of appeal will serve as the notice of filing transcripts for purposes of Rule 5A:8(b).

(4) Effect of Non-compliance.

(i) Any failure to file the notice required by this Rule that materially prejudices an appellee will result in the affected transcripts being stricken from the record on appeal. For purposes of this Rule, material prejudice includes preventing the appellee from raising legitimate objections to the contents of the transcript or misleading the appellee about the contents of the record. The appellee has the burden of establishing such prejudice in the brief in opposition or, if no brief in opposition is filed, in a written statement filed with the clerk of this Court within 21 days after the record is received by the clerk.

(ii) When the appellant fails to ensure that the record contains transcripts or a written statement of facts necessary to permit resolution of appellate issues, any assignments of error affected by such omission will not be considered.

(c) Written Statement in Lieu of Transcript. A written statement of facts, testimony, and other incidents of the case becomes a part of the record when:

(1) within 60 days after entry of judgment the moving party files in the office of the clerk of the trial court: (i) a copy of the statement, and (ii) a notice that the statement will be presented to the trial judge no earlier than 15 days nor later than 20 days after the filing date. A copy of the statement and notice must be mailed or delivered to opposing counsel on the same day that they are filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. The party filing the statement and notice must set or request a hearing within the time specified in subdivision (ii) above; and

(2) the statement is signed by the trial judge and filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. The judge may sign the statement forthwith upon its presentation to him if it is signed by counsel for all parties, but if objection is made to the accuracy or completeness of the statement, it must be signed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this Rule.

The term “other incidents of the case” in this subsection includes motions, proffers, objections, and rulings of the trial court regarding any issue that a party intends to assign as error or otherwise address on appeal.

(d) Objections. Any party may object to a transcript or written statement on the ground that it is erroneous or incomplete. The objecting party must file any objections with the clerk of the trial court, specifying the errors alleged or deficiencies asserted, no later than 15 days after the date the notice of filing the transcript (paragraph (b) of this Rule) or no later than 15 days after the date the notice of filing the written statement (paragraph (c) of this Rule) was filed in the office of the clerk of the trial court. If the transcript or written statement was filed before the notice of appeal is filed, any objections must be filed no later than 10 days after the notice of appeal was filed with the clerk of the trial court. The clerk must give the trial judge prompt notice of the filing of such objections. No later than 10 days after the objection is filed with the clerk of the trial court, the judge must set a hearing with notice to all parties, unless a hearing has already been scheduled. After the hearing, the judge must:

- (1) overrule the objection; or
- (2) make any corrections that the trial judge deems necessary; or
- (3) include any accurate additions to make the record complete; or
- (4) certify the manner in which the record is incomplete; and
- (5) sign the transcript or written statement.

At any time while the record remains in the office of the clerk of the trial court, the trial judge may, after notice to counsel and hearing, correct the transcript or written statement.

The judge’s signature on a transcript or written statement, without more, constitutes certification that the procedural requirements of this Rule have been satisfied.

(e) Criminal cases. — In criminal cases, the appellant must contemporaneously serve a copy of all notices required by this Rule on the attorney for the Commonwealth who prosecuted the case.

THE COURT OF APPEALS
C. PROCEDURE FOR FILING AN APPEAL FROM THE TRIAL COURT

Rule 5A:10. Record on Appeal: Preparation and Transmission.

(a) Preparation. – The clerk of the trial court must prepare the record as soon as possible after notice of appeal is filed. In the event of multiple appeals in the same case, or in cases tried together, only one record need be prepared and transmitted.

(b) Form of the Record. –

(1) The record must be compiled in the following order:

(i) a front cover setting forth the name of the court and the short style of the case;

(ii) a table of contents listing each paper included in the record and the page on which it begins;

(iii) each document constituting a part of the record in chronological order; and

(iv) the certificate of the clerk of the trial court that the foregoing constitutes the true and complete record, except omitted exhibits as hereinafter provided.

(2) Each page of the record must be numbered at the bottom.

(3) Transcripts, depositions, and reports of commissioners may be included in separate volumes identified by the clerk of the trial court if referred to in the table of contents and at the appropriate place in the record.

(4) Exhibits, other than those filed with pleadings, may be included in a separate volume or envelope certified by the clerk of the trial court, except that any exhibit that cannot be conveniently placed in a volume or envelope must be identified by a tag. Each such volume or envelope must include, on its cover or inside, a descriptive list of exhibits contained therein. Reference must be made to exhibits in the table of contents and at the appropriate place in the record referred to in paragraph (b)(1) of this Rule. The clerk of the trial court must not transmit the following types of exhibits, unless requested to do so by the clerk of this Court: drugs, guns and other weapons, ammunition, blood vials and other bio-hazard type materials, money, jewelry, articles of clothing, and bulky items such as large graphs and maps. The omission of any such exhibit must be noted on the descriptive list of exhibits. Upon motion by counsel, this Court may order the trial court to transmit any of these prohibited exhibits.

(5) Any transcript or statement of facts that the clerk of the trial court deems not a part of the record because of untimely filing must be certified as such and transmitted with the record.

(c) Transmission. – The clerk of the trial court must retain the record for 21 days after the notice of appeal has been filed with that court pursuant to Rule 5A:6. If the notice of appeal states that a transcript or statement will thereafter be filed, the clerk of the trial court must retain the record for 21 days after the filing in that clerk's office of such transcript or statement or, if objection is made to the transcript or statement pursuant to Rule 5A:8 (d), the clerk of the trial court must retain the record for five days after the objection is acted upon by the trial judge. The clerk of the trial court must then forthwith transmit the record to the clerk of this Court; provided, however, that, notwithstanding that the foregoing periods of retention may not have expired, the clerk of the trial court must transmit the record sooner if requested in writing by counsel for all parties to the appeal and must, whether or not so requested, transmit the record in time for delivery to the clerk of this Court within three months after entry of the judgment appealed from. The failure of the clerk of the trial court to transmit the record as herein provided will not be a ground for dismissal of the appeal by this Court.

(d) Notice of Filing. – The clerk of this Court must promptly notify all counsel of the date on which the record is filed in the office of the clerk of this Court. In criminal cases in which the Commonwealth is the named appellee, such notification will be sent to the attorney for the Commonwealth who prosecuted the case and also to the Office of the Attorney General at oagcriminallitigation@oag.state.va.us.

(e) Disposition of Record. – When the mandate is issued by this Court, the clerk of this Court must return the record to the clerk of the trial court. The record must be returned by that clerk upon the request of the clerk of this Court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
E. PROCEDURE ON PETITION FOR APPEAL IN DISCRETIONARY APPEALS

Rule 5A:12. Petition for Appeal and Other Petitions for Discretionary Review.

(a) When the Petition Must be Filed. — When an appeal to this Court does not lie as a matter of right, a petition for appeal, application for an appeal, or other authorized pleading seeking discretionary review (hereafter “petition”), as appropriate, must be filed with the clerk of this Court:

(1) not more than 10 days after entry of the trial court’s order in cases governed by Code § 8.01-267.8;

(2) not more than 15 days after entry of the trial court’s certification in cases governed by Code § 8.01-675.5(A);

(3) not more than 14 days after the filing of the notice of filing of transcripts in cases governed by Code §§ 19.2-398 (A) and (E);

(4) not more than 40 days after the filing of the record with this Court in cases governed by Code §§ 19.2-398 (B) and (C); and

(5) for any other discretionary appeal, within the time prescribed by the statute authorizing the appeal to the Court of Appeals.

(b) Copy to Opposing Counsel. — At the time the petition is filed, a copy of the petition must be transmitted, mailed, or emailed to all opposing counsel of record.

(c) What the Petition Must Contain. — A petition under this Rule must contain the following:

(1) Assignments of Error. Under a heading entitled “Assignments of Error,” the petition must list, clearly and concisely and without extraneous argument, the specific errors in the rulings below—or the issue(s) on which the tribunal or court appealed from failed to rule—upon which the party intends to rely. An exact reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken must be included with each assignment of error but is not part of the assignment of error. If the error relates to failure of the tribunal or court below to rule on any issue, error must be assigned to such failure to rule, providing an exact reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in the tribunal below, and specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal or court to rule on the issue(s).

(i) Effect of Failure to Assign Error. Only assignments of error assigned in the petition for appeal will be noticed by this Court. If the petition for appeal does not contain assignments of error, the petition will be dismissed.

(ii) Insufficient Assignments of Error. An assignment of error which does not address the findings, rulings, or failures to rule on issues in the trial court or other tribunal from which an appeal is taken, or which merely states that the judgment or award is contrary to the law and the evidence, is not sufficient. If the assignments of error are insufficient, the petition will be dismissed.

(iii) Effect of Failure to Use Separate Heading or Include Preservation Reference. If the petition contains assignments of error, but the assignments of error are not set forth under a separate heading as provided in subparagraph (c)(1) of this Rule, a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5A:1A. If there is a deficiency in the reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken—including, with respect to error assigned to failure of such tribunal to rule on an issue, an exact reference to the page(s) of the transcript, written statement of facts, or record where the alleged error has been preserved in such tribunal, specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal to rule on the issue(s)—a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5A:1A.

(2) Table of Contents and Table of Authorities. A table of contents and table of authorities with cases alphabetically arranged. Citations of all authorities must include the year thereof.

(3) Nature of the Case and Material Proceedings Below. A brief statement of the nature of the case and of the material proceedings in the trial court or commission in which the case originated. This statement should omit references to any paper filed or action taken that does not relate to the assignments of error.

(4) Statement of Facts. A clear and concise statement of the facts that relate to the assignments of error, with references to the pages of the record, transcript, or written statement of facts. Any quotation from the record should be brief. When the facts are in dispute, the petition must so state. The testimony of individual witnesses should not be summarized seriatim unless the facts are in dispute and such a summary is necessary to support the appellant's version of the facts.

(5) Authorities and Argument. With respect to each assignment of error, the standard of review and the argument—including principles of law and the authorities—must be stated in one place and not scattered through the petition. At the option of counsel, the argument may be preceded by a short summary.

(6) Conclusion. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(7) Contact Information. The signature of at least one counsel, counsel's name, Virginia State Bar number, mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number (if any), and email address (if any).

(8) Certificate. A certificate stating the date of mailing or delivery of the petition to opposing counsel.

(d) Length. — Except by leave of a judge of this Court, a petition may not exceed the longer of 35 pages or 7,500 words. The page and word limits do not include the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, or certificate.

(e) Filing Fee. — The petition for appeal must be accompanied by the $50 filing fee required by statute. The clerk of this Court may file a petition for appeal that is not accompanied by such fee if the fee is received by the clerk within 10 days of the date the petition for appeal is filed. If the fee is not received within such time, the petition for appeal will be dismissed.

(f) The Record. —

(1) When referencing any item in the record, the petition must cite the record-page number (e.g., “R. 1”) if the record has been transmitted in whole or in part to this Court. No petition will be dismissed for failure to comply with the citation provisions of this rule; however, the clerk of this Court may require that a document be redone in compliance with the citation requirements.

(2) A petition for appeal seeking interlocutory review under Code § 8.01-675.5 must be accompanied by a copy of the pertinent portions of the record of the circuit court, including the relevant portions of any transcripts filed in the circuit court and the order(s) entered by the court. That copy of the record constitutes part of the petition for the purpose of paragraph (b), but is not included in the page or word limit.

(g) Single Petition in Separate Cases. — Whenever two or more cases were tried together in the trial court or commission below, one petition may be used to bring all such cases before this Court even though the cases were not consolidated below by formal order.

(g) Oral Argument. — No oral argument will be permitted on a petition except, consistent with Code § 17.1-407(D) and Code § 19.2-403, the Commonwealth is entitled to state orally before a panel of the Court the reasons why its petition for appeal should be granted for petitions filed pursuant to Code § 19.2-398.

(f) Citations to the record or Joint Appendix. — When referencing a page of any item in the record, briefs must cite either the record-page number (e.g., “R. 1”), for cases in which an electronic record has been filed, or the appendix-page number (e.g., “J.A. 1”), for cases in which only a paper record has been filed. See Rule 5A:25(a). No appeal will be dismissed for failure to comply with the citation provisions of this rule; however, the clerk of this Court may require that a document be redone in compliance with the citation requirements.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS

F. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING PERFECTION OF APPEAL

Rule 5A:20. Requirements for Opening Brief of Appellant.

The opening brief of appellant must contain:

(a) A table of contents and table of authorities with cases alphabetically arranged. Citations of all authorities must include the year thereof.

(b) A brief statement of the nature of the case and of the material proceedings in the trial court, which should omit references to any paper filed or action taken that does not relate to the assignments of error.

(c) Under a heading entitled “Assignments of Error,” the brief must list, clearly and concisely and without extraneous argument, the specific errors in the rulings below—or the issue(s) on which the tribunal or court appealed from failed to rule—upon which the party intends to rely, or the specific existing case law that should be overturned, extended, modified or reversed. An exact reference to the page(s) of the record or appendix where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken must be included with each assignment of error but is not part of the assignment of error. If the error relates to failure of the tribunal or court below to rule on any issue, error must be assigned to such failure to rule, providing an exact reference to the page(s) of the record or appendix where the alleged error has been preserved in the tribunal below, and specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal or court to rule on the issue(s).

(1) Effect of Failure to Assign Error. Only assignments of error listed in the brief will be noticed by this Court. If the brief does not contain assignments of error, the appeal will be dismissed.

(2) Insufficient Assignments of Error. An assignment of error that does not address the findings, rulings, or failures to rule on issues in the trial court or other tribunal from which an appeal is taken, or which merely states that the judgment or award is contrary to the law and the evidence, is not sufficient. If the assignments of error are insufficient, the appeal will be dismissed.

(3) Effect of Failure to Use Separate Heading or Include Preservation Reference. If the brief contains assignments of error, but the assignments of error are not set forth under a separate heading as provided in subparagraph (c) of this Rule, a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5A:1A. If there is a deficiency in the reference to the page(s) of the record or appendix where the alleged error has been preserved in the trial court or other tribunal from which the appeal is taken—including, with respect to error assigned to failure of such tribunal to rule on an issue, an exact reference to the page(s) where the issue was preserved in such tribunal, specifying the opportunity that was provided to the tribunal to rule on the issue(s)—a rule to show cause will issue pursuant to Rule 5A:1A.

(4) Assignments of error listed in the opening brief of appellant are binding on the appellant for substantive purposes, unless the Court has granted a motion to amend.

(d) A clear and concise statement of the facts that relate to the assignments of error, with references to the pages of the record or appendix. Any quotation from the record should be brief. When the facts are in dispute, the brief must so state. The testimony of individual witnesses should not be summarized seriatim unless the facts are in dispute and such a summary is necessary to support the appellant's version of the facts.

(e) The standard of review and the argument (including principles of law and authorities) relating to each assignment of error. When the assignment of error was not preserved in the trial court, counsel must state why the good cause and/or ends of justice exceptions to Rule 5A:18 are applicable. With respect to each assignment of error, the standard of review and the argument—including principles of law and the authorities—must be stated in one place and not scattered through the brief. At the option of counsel, the argument may be preceded by a short summary.

(f) A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(g) The signature (which need not be in handwriting) of at least one counsel and counsel's Virginia State Bar number, address, telephone number, facsimile number (if any), and email address.

(h) A certificate (which need not be signed in handwriting) stating (1) that it was served on opposing counsel, and (2) whether counsel desires to waive oral argument. The certificate must also state the number of words (headings, footnotes, and quotations are included in the page and word limits; the cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, signature blocks, and certificate are not included in the page and word limits). Additionally, any party may waive oral argument without leave of this Court by written notification to the clerk of this Court within 21 days after the date on which the appellee's brief is due to be filed or has been filed.

(i) Procedure for an Anders appeal. — If counsel for appellant finds the client's appeal to be without merit, counsel must comply with the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Akbar v. Commonwealth, 7 Va. App. 611 (1989). In such an appeal, counsel must file (1) an opening brief that refers to anything in the record that might arguably support the appeal and that demonstrates counsel's conscientious examination of the merits of the appeal; (2) a motion for leave to withdraw as counsel; and (3) a motion for an extension of time to allow the appellant to file a supplemental brief. The opening brief and the motion for leave to withdraw as counsel should specifically cite Anders. All three pleadings must be served on opposing counsel and upon the client and must contain a certificate providing evidence of such service. This Court will rule upon the motion for extension of time upon its receipt, but will not rule on the motion to withdraw as counsel until this Court considers the case in its entirety, including any supplemental briefing that may be filed. The appellee brief must be filed in the office of the clerk of this Court within 30 days after the filing of the supplemental brief or, if no supplemental brief is filed, within 30 days after the supplemental brief was due.

(a) A table of contents and table of authorities with cases alphabetically arranged. Citations of all authorities must include the year thereof.

(b) A statement of the case if the appellee disagrees with the statement presented by the appellant and a statement of any additional assignments of error the appellee wishes to present with a clear and exact reference to the page(s) of the record or appendix where each additional assignment of error was preserved in the trial court.

(d) The standard of review and the argument (including principles of law and authorities) relating to each assignment of error. At the option of counsel, the argument may be preceded by a short summary.

(e) With respect to the assignments of cross-error, if any:

(1) A statement of the assignment of cross-error, with a clear and exact reference to the pages of the record or appendix where the alleged cross-error has been preserved.

(2) The standard of review, the argument, and the authorities relating to each assignment of cross-error. counsel's Virginia State Bar number, address, telephone number, facsimile number (if any), and email address.

(c) Who Needs Leave of Court to File a Brief Amicus Curiae. — Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this Rule, any person or entity seeking to file a brief amicus curiae must obtain leave of Court by motion. Such motion must:

- (1) state whether the brief would be in support of a party (and if so, which party or parties) or in support of none of the parties;
- (2) certify that the applicant has sought to obtain consent of all parties;

Except by the Court’s permission, an amicus curiae may not file a reply brief.

(e) What a Brief Amicus Curiae Must Contain. —

(1) A brief amicus curiae must comply with the rules applicable to the brief or filing of the party supported. If a person or entity is filing an amicus brief in support of neither party, the brief amicus curiae must comply with the rules applicable to the appellant or petitioner. The cover must identify the party or parties supported, if any.

(2) Unless the amicus curiae is one listed in subparagraph (b) of this Rule, an amicus brief must include a statement that indicates whether:

- (i) a party’s counsel authored the brief in whole or in part;
- (ii) a party or a party’s counsel contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief; and

(iii) a person—other than the amicus curiae, its members, or its counsel—contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief and, if so, that identifies each such person.

(g) Prohibition on Amicus Filings that Would Require Recusal. — The Court may prohibit the filing of or strike an amicus brief that would result in the recusal of a member of the Court who has been assigned to the case or in the recusal of a member of the en banc court from voting on whether to hear or rehear a case en banc.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS

F. PROCEDURE FOLLOWING PERFECTION OF APPEAL

Rule 5A:25. Appendix and Preliminary Designations of Assignments of Error.

(a) When Appendix Is Required. —

(1) Electronic Record. Except as provided in Rule 5A:25(a)(3), no appendix is required in cases where the clerk of the trial court or other tribunal has filed the record electronically. In cases where no appendix is required, parties must still file with the clerk of this Court a statement of the assignments of error on the schedule specified in Rule 5A:25(d) below.

(2) Paper record. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an appendix must be filed in cases where the clerk of the trial court or other tribunal has filed a paper record.

(3) Videotaped proceedings. An appendix must be filed in cases where the electronic record filed by the clerk of the trial court includes the official videotape recording of a court proceeding, unless:

(A) the transcript is not needed to resolve any preliminary or subsequent assignment of error; or

(B) a party submits a written statement of facts in accordance with Rule 5A:8(c) in lieu of a transcript of the videotaped proceeding.

(4) Pro se appellants. No appendix is required of a pro se appellant who is incarcerated.

(5) Filing time. When an appendix is required, it must be filed by the appellant no later than the time of filing the opening brief.

(b) Requiring or dispensing with an appendix. — This Court may by order require the filing and service of an appendix and may, sua sponte or on motion, enter an order dispensing with the appendix and permitting an appeal to proceed on the original record with any copies of the record, or relevant parts, that this Court may order the parties to file.

(c) Contents. — An appendix must include:

(1) the basic initial pleading (as finally amended);

(2) the judgment appealed from, and any memorandum or opinion relating thereto;

(3) any testimony and other incidents of the case germane to the preliminary or any subsequent assignments of error;

(4) the title (but not the caption) of each paper contained in the appendix, and its filing date;

(5) the names of witnesses printed at the beginning of excerpts from their testimony and at the top of each page thereof; and

(6) exhibits necessary for an understanding of the case that can reasonably be reproduced. A party is not required to transcribe an exhibit that consists of an audio or video recording.

(d) Determination of Contents of Appendix and Exchange of Preliminary Assignments of Error. — Within 15 days after the filing of the record with this Court or, in a case in which a petition for appeal has been granted, within 15 days after the date of the certificate of appeal issued by the clerk of this Court, counsel for appellant must file in the office of the clerk of this Court a written statement signed by all counsel setting forth an agreed designation of the parts of the record to be included in the appendix. In an appeal of right, the agreement must include a statement of preliminary assignments of error and any preliminary assignments of cross-error; in a granted appeal, the agreed statement must include all granted assignments of error and cross-error. In the absence of such an agreement, in an appeal of right, counsel for appellant must file with the clerk of this Court a preliminary statement of the assignments of error and a designation of the contents to be included in the appendix within 15 days after the filing of the record. In the absence of such agreement, in a case in which a petition for appeal has been granted, counsel for the appellant must file a designation of the contents to be included in the appendix along with a list of all the granted assignments of error and cross-error within 15 days after the date of the certificate of appeal. Not more than 10 days after the appellant's designation is filed, counsel for appellee must file with the clerk of this Court a designation of any additional contents to be included in the appendix and, in appeals of right, a preliminary statement of any additional assignments of error the appellee wishes to present. The appellant must include in the appendix the parts thus designated, together with any additional parts the appellant considers germane. If a party designates a court proceeding or any portion of a court proceeding recorded only by videotape, the appendix must include a written transcript of the proceeding, or of the portion so designated, prepared by a court reporter. In appeals of right, the "preliminary statement of the assignments of error" and "the preliminary statement of any additional assignments of error the appellee wishes to present" referenced in this Rule are non-binding, and are intended to assist the parties in designating the contents of the appendix and narrowing the issues in controversy. Rules 5A:20 and 5A:21 govern the requirements for assignments of error and assignments of cross-error in briefs.

(e) Table of Contents; Form of Presentation. — At the beginning of the appendix there must be a table of contents, which must include the name of each witness whose testimony is included in the appendix and the page number of the appendix at which each portion of the testimony of the witness begins. Thereafter, the parts of the record to be reproduced must be set out in chronological order. When matter contained in the transcript of proceedings is set out in the appendix, the page of the transcript or of the record at which such matter may be found must be indicated in brackets immediately before the matter which is set out. Omissions in the text of papers or of the transcript must be indicated by asterisks. Immaterial matters (such as captions, subscriptions and acknowledgements) should be omitted. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph.

(f) Costs. — Unless counsel otherwise agree, the cost of producing the appendix must initially be paid by the appellant, but if the appellant considers that parts of the record designated by the appellee for inclusion are unnecessary for the determination of the issue presented, he may so advise the appellee, and the appellee must advance the cost of including such parts. The cost of producing the appendix will be taxed as costs in the case. To the extent a preliminary statement of assignments or additional assignments made in accordance with this Rule is so misleading or incomplete that the opposing party must supplement the appendix, the opposing party may seek leave and file a supplemental appendix to be filed no later than the date the party's next brief is due. The opposing party may seek costs associated with the misleading or incomplete designation and any required supplementation.

(g) Penalty. — Nothing should be included in the appendix that is not germane to an assignment of error. As examples, no pleadings (other than the basic initial pleading as finally amended) should be included unless an assignment of error is presented relating to it, and then only the portion thereof to which the assignment relates; and testimony relating solely to the amount of damages should not be included unless error is assigned relating to the amount of damages. If parts of the record are included in the appendix unnecessarily at the direction of a party, this Court may impose the cost of producing such parts on that party.

(h) Assumptions. — It will be assumed that the appendix contains everything germane to the assignments of error. This Court may, however, consider other parts of the record.

(i) Sealed Materials in the Appendix. — Appendices filed with this Court are a matter of public record. If counsel concludes it is necessary to include sealed material in the appendix, then, in order to maintain the confidentiality of the materials, counsel must designate the sealed material for inclusion in a sealed supplemental appendix to be filed separately from the regular appendix. A sealed volume of the appendix must be filed in the manner prescribed by the VACES Guidelines and User's Manual. The Guidelines are located on this Court's website at <https://eapps.courts.state.va.us/help/robo/vaces/index.htm#t=VACES.htm>.

ADVISORY NOTE

As of January 1, 2022, fewer than ten circuit courts did not routinely file electronic records. Some circuit courts that regularly file electronic records do not do so in certain cases. Counsel should consult the clerk's office of the circuit court from which the appeal is taken to determine if an electronic record will be filed.

The Court of Appeals may dispense with oral argument in any matter if the parties agree that oral argument is not necessary or the panel to which the matter is assigned has examined the briefs and record and unanimously agrees that oral argument is unnecessary because (a) the appeal is wholly without merit; (b) the dispositive issue or issues have been authoritatively decided, and the appellant has not argued that the case law should be overturned, extended, modified, or reversed; or (c) the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record, and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.

Rule 5A:28. Oral Argument.

(a) Notice. — Whenever appeal lies as a matter of right or a discretionary appeal has been granted, oral argument will be permitted except in those cases disposed of pursuant to Rule 5A:27. The Clerk of this Court, except in extraordinary circumstances, must give at least 15 days' notice to counsel of the date, approximate time, and location for oral argument.

(b) Length. — Except as otherwise directed by this Court, argument for a party may not exceed 15 minutes in length. Such time may be apportioned among counsel for the same side at their discretion. If a guardian ad litem joins with either appellant or appellee, the guardian ad litem will share the time for oral argument with the party. If a guardian ad litem requests additional time to argue, the guardian ad litem must state that application in its brief, subject to approval of this Court.

(c) Appearance Pro Hac Vice. — Any lawyer not licensed in Virginia who seeks to appear pro hac vice to present oral argument to this Court must comply with the requirements of Rule 1A:4.

(d) Amicus Curiae. — No oral argument is permitted by amicus curiae except by leave of this Court. Leave may be granted upon the joint written request of amicus curiae and the party whose position amicus curiae supports. The request must specify the amount of its allotted time the supported party is willing to yield to amicus curiae.

(e) Waiver. — During oral argument, it is not necessary for any party to expressly reserve any argument made on brief, and the failure to raise any such argument does not constitute a waiver. Any party may, without waiving the arguments made on brief, waive oral argument. See Rules 5A:20(h) and 5A:21(h).

G. DECISION, COSTS, AND MANDATE.

Rule 5A:30. Attorney Fees, Costs and Notarized Bill of Costs.

(a) To Whom Allowed. — Except as otherwise provided by law, if an appeal is dismissed, costs will be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by this Court; if a judgment is affirmed, costs will be taxed against the appellant unless otherwise ordered; if a judgment is reversed, costs will be taxed against the appellee unless otherwise ordered; if a judgment is affirmed in part or reversed in part, or is vacated, costs will be allowed as ordered by this Court.

(b) Attorney Fees. — (1) Fee Recovery by Prevailing Appellee. A prevailing appellee who was awarded attorney fees and costs in the circuit court may make application in the circuit court for additional fees and costs incurred on appeal pursuant to Rule 1:1A.

(2) Attorney Fees Where Authorized by Statute.

(A) In any case in which a party has a statutory, contractual or other basis to request attorney fees, the party may request an award of attorney fees incurred in the appeal of the case by making the request in an appellant's, petitioner's, appellee's, or respondent's brief.

(B) Upon the making of a request for attorney fees as set forth in (b)(2)(A) above, and unless otherwise provided by the terms of a contract or stipulation between the parties, this Court may award to a party who has made such request, all of their attorney fees, or any part thereof, or remand the issue for determination as directed in the mandate. Such fees may include the fees incurred by such party in pursuing fees as awarded in the circuit court.

(C) In determining whether to make such an award, this Court is not limited to a consideration of whether a party's position on an issue was frivolous or lacked substantial merit but may consider all the equities of the case.

(D) Where the appellate mandate remands the issue to the circuit court for an award of reasonable attorney fees, in determining the reasonableness of such an award the circuit court should consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to, the extent to which the party was a prevailing party on the issues, the nature of the issues involved, the time and labor involved, the financial resources of the parties, and the fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

(c) Taxable Costs. — Costs, including the filing fee and costs incurred in the printing or producing of necessary copies of briefs, appendices, and petitions for rehearing, are taxable in this Court. Costs incurred in the preparation of transcripts may be taxable in this Court. See Code § 17.1-128.

(d) Notarized Bill of Costs. — Counsel for a party who desires costs to be taxed must itemize them in a notarized bill of costs, which must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 14 days after the date of the decision in the case. Objections to the bill of costs must be filed with the clerk of this Court within 10 days after the date of filing the bill of costs.

(e) Award. — The clerk of this Court must prepare and certify an itemized statement of costs taxed in this Court for insertion in the mandate, but the issuance of the mandate will not be delayed for taxation of costs. (b) Response. — No response to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by this Court.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
H. REHEARING.

Rule 5A:34. Rehearing En Banc After Final Disposition of a Case.

(a) Petition for Rehearing en Banc. — The Court may grant rehearing en banc as provided in Code § 17.1-402(D). Any party seeking a rehearing by the full Court of a decision or order of a panel of this Court finally disposing of a case must, within 14 days following such decision or order, file a petition for rehearing en banc with the clerk of this Court. The petition for rehearing en banc may not exceed the longer of 25 pages or 5,300 words.

(b) Proceedings After Petition for Rehearing. — No answer to a petition for a rehearing en banc will be received unless requested by this Court. The clerk of this Court must promptly notify all counsel of record of the action taken by this Court on the petition for rehearing en banc.

(c) On the Court's Order. — A rehearing en banc on motion of this Court must be ordered no later than 20 days after the date of rendition of the order to be reheard. The clerk of this Court must promptly notify all counsel of record of the action taken by this Court on this Court's motion.

Last amended by Order dated November 1, 2021; effective January 1, 2022.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
H. REHEARING.

Rule 5A:35. Procedure for Rehearing.

(a) Rehearing by a Panel. — When rehearing by a panel is granted on petition of a party, the clerk of this Court must notify all counsel. No brief in addition to the petition may be filed by petitioner. Respondent may file in the office of the clerk an answering brief, which may not exceed the longer of 25 pages or 5,300 words, within 21 days following the date of the order of this Court granting a rehearing. The respondent's answering brief must be transmitted, mailed, or delivered to opposing counsel on or before the date the answering brief is filed. Respondent may be heard orally whether or not an answering brief is filed. The case will be placed on the docket for oral argument. When practicable, such a rehearing will be heard by the same panel that rendered the final decision in the case.

(b) Rehearing En Banc. — When all or part of a petition for rehearing en banc is granted the clerk of this Court must notify all counsel. The mandate is stayed as to all issues decided by the panel pending the decision of this Court en banc. The appeal is reinstated on the docket of this Court for oral argument only as to issues granted. Briefing and oral argument will proceed in the same order as before the three-judge panel.

(1) Issues Considered Upon Rehearing En Banc. This Court may grant a petition for rehearing en banc in whole or in part. Any issue decided by a panel of this Court not subject to a petition for rehearing en banc remains undisturbed by an en banc decision. Review by the en banc Court is limited to those matters raised in the petition for rehearing en banc for which the Court granted rehearing and those matters included in the grant by this Court on its own motion.

(2) Appellant's Opening Brief Upon Rehearing En Banc. The party who was the appellant before the panel of this Court remains the appellant before the en banc Court. The appellant may not change an assignment of error from the one assigned before the panel but may seek leave of Court to make technical corrections or non-substantive changes that do not prejudice the appellee. The appellant must file an en banc opening brief in the office of the clerk within 21 days following the date of the order of this Court granting rehearing en banc. The opening brief is subject to the requirements of Rule 5A:19(a), (d), (e), and (f), and of Rule 5A:20(a)-(h), except that the opening brief must omit assignments of error for which the Court did not grant en banc review.

(3) Appellee's Answering Brief Upon Rehearing En Banc. The party who was the appellee before the panel of this Court may file in the office of the clerk the answering brief within 14 days after the en banc opening brief has been filed. The appellee's answering brief is subject to the requirements of Rule 5A:19(a), (d), (e), and (f), and of Rule 5A:21, except that Rule 5A:21(e) applies to any assignment of cross-error only if the Court has granted en banc review of such cross-error. The appellee's answering brief must omit assignments of cross-error for which the Court did not grant en banc review.

Appellee may be heard orally whether or not the answering brief is filed.

(4) Reply Briefs Upon Rehearing En Banc. The party who was the appellant before the panel may file in the office of the clerk a reply brief within 14 days after the answering brief has been filed. If the Court has granted en banc review of any cross-error, the party who was the appellee before the panel may file in the office of the clerk a reply brief in support of such assignment of cross-error within 14 days after the appellant's reply brief has been filed. A reply brief under this rule is subject to the requirements of Rule 5A:19(a), (e), and (f) and of Rule 5A:22.

(5) Composition of the En Banc Court. In accordance with Code § 17.1-402(E), the Court may sit en banc with fewer than 21 judges but not fewer than 13. When the Court votes to sit with fewer than all active judges, the following procedure will apply to each such case:

(i) the en banc Court will consist of baseline members and rotational members.

(ii) the baseline members will consist of the chief judge and the three judges to whom the case was originally assigned. The rotational members will be selected from the pool of active judges in a number sufficient, when added to the number of baseline members, to empanel an en banc Court of 17 judges.

The rotational members will be selected randomly from the pool of active judges who are not baseline members. The drawing of the rotational members for each case will be performed by the clerk or chief deputy clerk in the presence of at least one judge other than the chief judge. If a judge who is selected as a rotational member thereafter recuses or becomes unavailable to participate in the hearing of an en banc case, the most senior available judge from the remaining active judges in the pool will serve as the replacement. Any active judge in the pool who was not selected as a potential rotational member for the en banc case will automatically qualify to participate in the next en banc case.

(6) When the chief judge is unable to participate in the en banc hearing of a case, the presiding judge will be the next most senior active judge selected for the en banc Court.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
I. SETTLEMENT AND WITHDRAWAL.

Rule 5A:36. Mediation, Settlement or Withdrawal of Pending Appeal.

(a) Upon joint motion of the parties in a civil case, the Court may extend the filing deadlines under Rules 5A:19(b), 5A:19(c) and 5A:25(d) to enable the parties to pursue mediation. An order granting such a time extension will specify new filing deadlines or a deadline for the parties to file a joint progress report.

(b) When a case has been settled or the appeal withdrawn at any time after the notice of appeal has been filed, it is the duty of counsel to notify the clerk of this Court by filing a written notice that the case has been settled or the appeal withdrawn. If counsel certifies that the terms of the settlement or withdrawal require further proceedings in the trial court, the Court may approve entry of an order of remand.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
I. SETTLEMENT AND WITHDRAWAL.

Rule 5A:37. Appellate Settlement Conference in the Court of Appeals.

(a) Settlement Conference. — Upon motion or sua sponte, this Court may order counsel, and clients in appropriate cases, to participate in a settlement conference. An informal motion requesting a settlement conference may be filed at any time while the matter is on appeal and should state briefly why a settlement conference would be useful. The motion must state whether all parties concur. If a party objects, that party must file within 7 days a short response explaining the grounds for the objection. All motions and responses may be in letter format addressed to the clerk of this Court. If this Court orders a settlement conference, it will ordinarily be held by telephone conference call and, in the discretion of the settlement judge, may be held in person at a convenient location.

(b) Settlement Judge. — A senior or retired appellate judge will conduct all settlement conferences at no cost to the litigants.

(c) Excluded Cases. — No settlement conference will be conducted in appeals of criminal judgments or orders terminating parental rights or in any case arising under this Court's original jurisdiction.

(d) Conferences. — Prior to participating in a settlement conference, all counsel must consult with their respective clients about settlement options and ask for express authority to settle within any parameters acceptable to the client. The settlement judge may conduct more than one conference if, in his discretion, he deems it advisable. During a conference, the settlement judge may consult ex parte with counsel, or with counsel and that counsel's client, but must not consult ex parte with any represented client without counsel's agreement.

(e) Conference Orders. — A settlement conference, if ordered in a case, will not automatically affect any time deadline otherwise applicable. The settlement judge, however, may direct the clerk of this Court to enter orders tolling any non-mandatory time deadline before or after the deadline has passed. If any party advises the settlement judge that all or part of an appeal has been settled, the settlement judge will direct the parties to prepare and sign a settlement agreement setting forth all agreed-upon terms. Upon receiving a copy of the settlement agreement, the settlement judge must thereafter direct the clerk of this Court to enter an order dismissing with prejudice all or part of the appeal subject to the agreement.

(f) Confidentiality. — The provisions of the settlement agreement will not be considered confidential except to the extent the agreement specifically requires it. No confidentiality provision, however, will prejudice any party's ability to seek judicial enforcement of a settlement agreement. In any case in which a settlement conference does not result in a settlement agreement, no statement made during a settlement conference or in motions requesting a settlement conference or responses to such motions may be disclosed by the settlement judge, the parties, or counsel to any (i) appellate judge who may be called upon to decide the merits of the appeal or any related appeal, or (ii) lower court judge who may be called upon to decide the merits of the case if remanded or the merits of any related case.

(g) Cross-Appeals and Related Appeals. — Appeals and cross-appeals will ordinarily be addressed in a single settlement conference. At the discretion of the settlement judge, related appeals may be consolidated for settlement conference purposes.

PART FIVE A
THE COURT OF APPEALS
J. APPEALS RELATING TO QUARANTINE OR ISOLATION ORDERS.

Rule 5A:38. Appeal of Orders Relating to Quarantine or Isolation of Persons.

(a) Quarantine Related Code Provisions.—In proceedings involving circuit court orders of quarantine of a person or persons pursuant to Article 3.02 of Chapter 2 of Title 32.1 of the Code of Virginia, the provisions of Code § 32.1-48.010 apply with respect to appealability of such orders, the effect of an appeal upon any order of quarantine, availability of expedited review, stay of quarantine orders, and representation by counsel.

(b) Isolation Order Code Provisions.—In proceedings involving circuit court orders of isolation of a person or persons pursuant to Article 3.02 of Chapter 2 of Title 32.1 of the Code of Virginia, the provisions of Code § 32.1-48.013 apply with respect to appealability of such orders, the effect of an appeal upon any order of isolation, availability of expedited review, stay of isolation orders, and representation by counsel.

(c) Transmission of Record. —In all appeals under this rule, the clerk of the court from which an appeal is taken must transmit the record to the clerk of this Court immediately upon the filing of the notice of appeal.

(d) Expedited Procedures.—Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, after the filing of the opening brief under this Rule, 48 hours should be allowed for the filing of the brief of the appellee. The Court will issue an order within 24 hours of the argument or of its review of the case without oral argument. The Court has the authority to alter these time frames in any case.

(e) Oral Argument. —The Court will hold any oral argument in appeals under this rule in a manner so as to protect the health and safety of individuals subject to any such order or quarantine or isolation, court personnel, counsel, and the general public. To this end, the Court may take measures including, but not limited to, ordering any oral argument to be held by telephone or video conference or ordering those present to take appropriate precautions, including wearing personal protective equipment.

(d) Joint Preliminary Hearing. Upon motion of the Commonwealth's Attorney, preliminary hearings for persons alleged to have participated in contemporaneous and related acts or occurrences or in a series of such acts or occurrences constituting an offense or offenses may be heard jointly, if jurisdiction over each person and offense lies in the same court, unless the court finds that such joint preliminary hearing would constitute prejudice to a defendant.

Rule 8:8. Pleadings.

(a) General. Counsel of record tendering a pleading gives assurances that it is filed in good faith and not for delay, and counsel of record who files a pleading must sign it and state counsel's address and telephone number. A pleading that is sworn to is an affidavit for all purposes for which an affidavit is required or permitted. The mention in a pleading of an accompanying exhibit, of itself and without more, makes such an exhibit a part of the pleading.

(b) Denial, Admission, Objection. A party respondent need not file a pleading or may file a pleading denying or admitting all or any facts alleged in the petition, motion, or summons, or the respondent may file a motion raising objections. Any allegation not admitted is deemed denied. If a respondent fails to file a pleading, the failure will be taken as a denial of the allegations in the petition, motion, or summons.

(c) Amendment of Written Pleading. Except as hereinafter provided, or as provided pursuant to §§ 16.1-129.2, 16.1-93 and 16.1-259, no amendment may be made to any pleading after it is filed with the clerk, except by leave of court. Leave to amend a pleading should be liberally granted in furtherance of the ends of justice. In granting leave to amend, the court may make such provision for notice thereof and opportunity to make response as the court may deem reasonable and proper. In delinquency, child in need of services, child in need of supervision, and status offense proceedings, the court may permit amendment of the written pleading at any time before adjudication, provided that the amendment does not change the nature or character of the matter alleged. If the amendment is made after the respondent pleads or is made after any evidence is heard, the amended pleading must be read to him and he must be allowed to change his plea. If the court finds that the amendment operates as a surprise to the respondent, it must upon request grant a continuance for a reasonable time.

(d) Bill of Particulars. The court may direct the filing of a bill of particulars at any time before trial.

(e) Copies of Pleadings to be Furnished. Except as provided in subdivision (f) of this Rule, all pleadings not otherwise required to be served must be served on each counsel of record by delivering, dispatching by commercial delivery service, transmitting by facsimile or mailing a copy to each on or before the day of filing. At the foot of such pleadings must be appended either acceptances of service or a certificate that copies were served as this Rule requires, showing the date of delivery, dispatching, transmitting or mailing.

(f) Electronic Filing. In any juvenile and domestic relations district court which has established an electronic filing system pursuant to Rule 1:17:

(1) Any proceeding may be designated as an Electronically Filed Case upon consent of all parties in the case.

(2) Except where service and/or filing of an original paper document is expressly required by these rules, all pleadings, motions, notices and other instruments in an Electronically Filed Case must be formatted, served and filed as specified in the requirements and procedures of Rule 1:17; provided, however, that when any document listed below is filed in the case, the filing party must notify the clerk of court that the original document must be retained.

(i) Any pleading or affidavit required by statute or rule to be sworn, verified or certified as provided in Rule 1:17(e)(5).

(ii) Any contract or deed.

(iii) Any prenuptial agreement or written settlement agreement, including any property settlement agreement.

(iv) Any check or other negotiable instrument.

(v) Any handwritten statement, waiver, or consent by a defendant or witness in a criminal proceeding.

(a) Continuance Granted for Good Cause. Continuances should not be granted except by, and at the discretion of, a judge for good cause shown, or unless otherwise provided by law. The judge may, by order, delegate to the clerk the power to grant continuances consented to by all parties under such circumstances as are set forth in the order. Such an order of delegation should be reasonably disseminated and posted so as to inform the bar and the general public.

(b) All Parties Agree to Continuance. If all parties to a proceeding agree to seek a continuance, the request may be made orally by one party as long as that party certifies to the judge that all other parties know of the request and concur. Such a request should be made as far in advance of the scheduled hearing or trial as is practicable. If granted, the moving party is responsible for assuring that notice of the continuance is given to all subpoenaed witnesses and that they are provided with the new court date. This obligation may be met by (i) an agreement between the parties that each side will notify its own witnesses; or (ii) any other arrangement that is reasonably calculated to get prompt notice to all witnesses.

(c) All Parties Do Not Agree to Continuance. If a request for continuance is not agreed to by all parties to a proceeding, such request should be made to the court prior to the time originally scheduled for the hearing or trial. If the court determines that a hearing on the request should be conducted prior to the time originally scheduled for the trial, all parties must be given notice of such hearing by the requesting party.

(d) Continuances Requested at the Time of Hearing. Where a request for a continuance has not been made prior to the hearing or trial and other parties or witnesses are present and prepared for trial, a continuance should be granted only upon a showing that to proceed with the trial would not be in the best interest of justice.

(e) Parties. For purposes of this Rule, the term "parties" means all plaintiffs, petitioners, the prosecution, defendants, respondents and any person who is the subject of the proceeding.

RULES OF SUPREME COURT OF VIRGINIA
PART TEN
PROVISION OF LEGAL SERVICES FOLLOWING DETERMINATION OF MAJOR DISASTER

Rule 10. Provision of Legal Services Following Determination of Major Disaster.

(a) Determination of existence of major disaster. -- Solely for purposes of this Rule, the Chief Justice of this Court may determine when, as a result of a major disaster, an emergency affecting the justice system has occurred in:

(1) this jurisdiction and, if so, whether that emergency affects the entirety or only a part of this jurisdiction, or

(2) another jurisdiction, but only if such a determination and its geographical scope have previously been made by the highest court of that jurisdiction.

(b) Temporary practice in this jurisdiction following major disaster. -- Following a determination, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Rule, of an emergency affecting the justice system in this jurisdiction that warrants the assistance of lawyers from outside this jurisdiction, or a determination by the Chief Justice that persons displaced by a major disaster in another jurisdiction and residing in this jurisdiction are in need of pro bono services and the assistance of lawyers from outside of this jurisdiction is warranted to help provide such assistance, a Foreign Lawyer may provide pro bono legal services in this jurisdiction on a temporary basis. Those legal services must be assigned and supervised through an established bar association pro bono program, not-for-profit bar association, an approved legal assistance organization, a public defender's office, or through any organization(s) specifically designated by the Chief Justice.

(c) Temporary practice in this jurisdiction following major disaster in another jurisdiction. -- Following the determination of a major disaster pursuant to (a)(2), a Foreign Lawyer who is authorized to practice law and who principally practices in the geographic area of the other jurisdiction determined to be affected may provide legal services in this jurisdiction on a temporary basis. Those legal services must arise out of and be reasonably related to that lawyer's practice of law in the jurisdiction, or geographic area of that jurisdiction, where the major disaster occurred.

(d) Duration of authority for temporary practice. -- The authority to practice law in this jurisdiction granted by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this Rule will end when the Chief Justice determines that the conditions caused by the major disaster in this or another affected jurisdiction have ended, except that a lawyer then representing clients in this jurisdiction pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) is authorized to continue the provision of legal services for such time as is reasonably necessary to complete the representation. However, the lawyer may not accept new clients or new unrelated matters for an existing client after the Chief Justice has determined that the conditions caused by the major disaster have ended.

(e) Court appearances. -- The authority granted by this Rule does not include appearances in court except:

(1) pursuant to a court's pro hac vice admission rule; or

(2) if the Chief Justice, in any determination made under paragraph (a), grants blanket permission to appear in all or designated courts of this jurisdiction to lawyers providing legal services pursuant to paragraph (b).

When authority to appear in any court is granted under either paragraph (e)(1) or (e)(2), any pro hac vice admission fees waived.

(f) Disciplinary authority and registration requirement. -- Lawyers providing legal services in this jurisdiction pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) are subject to this Court's disciplinary authority and the Rules of Professional Conduct of this jurisdiction as provided in Rule 8.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Lawyers providing legal services in this jurisdiction under paragraphs (b) or (c) must, within 30 days from the commencement of the provision of legal services, file a registration statement with the Clerk of this Court. The registration statement must be in a form prescribed by this Court. Any lawyer who provides legal services pursuant to this Rule is not considered to be engaged in the unlawful practice of law in this jurisdiction.

(g) Notification to clients. -- Foreign Lawyers who provide legal services pursuant to this Rule must inform clients in this jurisdiction of the jurisdiction in which they are authorized to practice law, any limitations of that authorization, and that they are not authorized to practice law in this jurisdiction except as permitted by this Rule. They must not state or imply to any person that they are otherwise authorized to practice law in this jurisdiction.

(h) Definitions. -- For purposes of this rule:

(1) "Foreign Lawyer" is a person with an active and unrestricted license to practice law issued by the bar or highest court of any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, but neither licensed by the Supreme Court of Virginia or authorized under its rules to practice law generally in the Commonwealth of Virginia, nor disbarred or suspended from practice.

(2) "Pro bono" means that legal services are provided without compensation, expectation of compensation, or other direct or indirect pecuniary gain to the lawyer.

Comment

[1] A major disaster, including, for example, a hurricane, earthquake, flood, wildfire, tornado, public health emergency, or an event caused by terrorists or acts of war, in this or another jurisdiction may cause an emergency affecting the justice system with respect to the provision of legal services. This emergency may continue for a sustained period of time, interfering with the ability of lawyers admitted and practicing in the affected jurisdiction to continue to represent clients until the disaster has ended. When this happens, lawyers from the affected jurisdiction may need to provide legal services to their clients, on a temporary basis, from an office outside their home jurisdiction. In addition, lawyers in an unaffected jurisdiction may be willing to serve residents of the affected jurisdiction who have unmet legal needs as a result of the disaster or whose legal needs temporarily are unmet because of disruption to the practices of local lawyers. Lawyers from unaffected jurisdictions may offer to provide these legal services either by traveling to the affected jurisdiction or from their own offices or both, provided the legal services are provided on a pro bono basis through entities authorized by this Rule.

[2] Under paragraph (a)(1), the Chief Justice may determine whether a major disaster causing an emergency affecting the justice system has occurred in this jurisdiction, or in a part of this jurisdiction, for purposes of triggering paragraph (b) of this Rule. The Chief Justice may, for example, determine that the entirety of this jurisdiction has suffered a disruption in the provision of legal services or that only certain areas have suffered such an event.

[3] Restrictions on a lawyer's license to practice law that would prohibit that lawyer from providing legal services pursuant to this Rule include, but are not limited to, probation, inactive status, disability status, or a non-disciplinary administrative suspension for failure to complete continuing legal education or other requirements. Public protection warrants exclusion of these lawyers from the authority to provide legal services as defined in this Rule. Foreign Lawyers may also be authorized to provide legal services in this jurisdiction on a temporary basis pursuant to Part 6 § I (C) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia and Rule 5.5(d)(4) of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

[4] Under paragraph (c), the phrase "arise out of and reasonably related to" requires that the services arise out of or be reasonably related to the Foreign Lawyer's practice in a jurisdiction in which the Foreign Lawyer is admitted to practice. A variety of factors evidence such a relationship. The Foreign Lawyer's client may have been previously represented by the Foreign Lawyer, or may be resident in or have substantial contacts with the jurisdiction in which the Foreign Lawyer is admitted. The matter, although involving other jurisdictions, may have a significant connection with that jurisdiction. In other cases, significant aspects of the Foreign Lawyer's work might be conducted in that jurisdiction or a significant aspect of the matter may involve the law of that jurisdiction. The necessary relationship might arise when the client's activities or the legal issues involve multiple jurisdictions, such as when the officers of a multinational corporation survey potential business sites and seek the services of their Foreign Lawyer in assessing the relative merits of each. In addition, the services may draw on the Foreign Lawyer's recognized expertise developed through the regular practice of law on behalf of clients in matters involving a particular body of federal, nationally-uniform, foreign, or international law.

(a) Public access to records of the Virginia Judiciary, including records of judicial officers, is governed by this Part Eleven. The purpose of this Part Eleven is to provide the public with reasonable access to records of the judicial branch of government. At the same time, in order to protect privacy, confidentiality, the administration of justice, and the best interests of the Commonwealth, public access to some judicial records may be restricted in accordance with this Part Eleven or other provisions of law. In addition, this Part Eleven is intended to provide direction to judicial officers and court personnel in responding to public records requests.

(b) This Part applies to records of judicial officers and administrative records. This Part does not apply to case records, including the records maintained by the clerks of the courts of record, as defined in Virginia Code § 1-212, and courts not of record, as defined in Virginia Code § 16.1-69.5. Such records are open to inspection as provided for in Titles 16.1 and 17.1 of the Code of Virginia, subject to any prohibitions or restrictions of any applicable law or court order.

(c) The provisions of this Part Eleven apply regardless of where and in what format the record is created or maintained.

Rule 11:2. Definitions.

As used in this Part Eleven:

(e) “Sealed” means access to the record is restricted to the judge, court personnel as required to perform their official duties, and persons authorized by law or written order of the court.

(f) “Virginia Judiciary” includes all judicial officers, the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia, all district courts, all circuit courts, the Court of Appeals of Virginia, the Supreme Court of Virginia, the State Law Library, the Judicial Conference of Virginia, the Judicial Conference of Virginia for District Courts, the Judicial Council, the Committee on District Courts, and all work groups, advisory committees, commissions and any other committees or subcommittees of any of these entities. For purposes of these Rules, “Virginia Judiciary” does not include the clerks of the courts of record, as defined in Virginia Code § 1-212, and clerks of the courts not of record, as defined in Virginia Code § 16.1-69.5.

Rule 11:3. Records of Judicial Officers.

Copies of administrative records may be requested as provided in Rule 11:5, and may include: (i) financial records, including but not limited to travel expense vouchers, purchase orders, and records of payments to court-appointed attorneys, guardians ad litem, and experts; (ii) statistical information derived from the aggregation of a subset of individual case records; (iii) policies other than those determined to be confidential pursuant to subsection (b)(ii) of this Rule; and (iv) court forms. Rule 11:5. Procedure for Public Access to Records of the Office of the Executive Secretary.

(a) All requests for publicly accessible records maintained by the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia must be in writing and must describe with reasonable specificity the record(s) requested. All requests must be addressed to: Office of the Executive Secretary, Attn. Director of Legislative and Public Relations, 100 N. 9th Street, Richmond, VA 23219. The Office of the Executive Secretary may require the requester to provide his or her name and legal address. The Office of the Executive Secretary will respond, pursuant to this Rule, within five working days of receiving a written request.

(b) The Office of the Executive Secretary will notify the requester if the requested records cannot be found or do not exist. If the Office of the Executive Secretary does not have custody or control of the record(s) requested, the requester will be notified and furnished the name and contact information of the person or entity having custody of the records, if known. The Office of the Executive Secretary is not required to compile information or create a record if one does not exist.

(c) The Office of the Executive Secretary may assess reasonable charges not to exceed its actual costs incurred in accessing, duplicating, supplying, reviewing or searching for the requested records. All charges for the supplying of requested records will be estimated in advance upon the request of the requester. Any charges will be assessed at the hourly rate of the person(s) engaged in any work necessary to respond to a request for records, even if no records are found. If the Office of the Executive Secretary determines in advance that charges for producing the requested records are likely to exceed $200, it may, before continuing to process the request, require the requester to pay a deposit not to exceed the amount of the advance determination. Such deposit will be credited toward the final cost of supplying the requested records. If the final charge exceeds the amount of the deposit, the difference will be charged to the requester, and if the final charge is less than the amount of the deposit, the difference will be refunded to the requester.

(d) A response denying, in whole or in part, production of the requested records, will be in writing and will include a statement of the specific reason for withholding of the records.

(e) If it is not practically possible to provide the requested records or to determine whether they are available within the five-working-day period, the response will specify the conditions that make a response impossible. The Office of the Executive Secretary will have an additional seven working days in which to provide a response.

Rule 11:6. Access to Records of Other Entities of the Virginia Judiciary.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by law or court order, records that have been submitted to or approved by the Committee on District Courts, the Judicial Conference of Virginia for District Courts, the Judicial Council, and the Judicial Conference of Virginia, are publicly accessible, with the exception of records related to matters discussed in closed sessions. All other records of these judicial policy-making bodies are governed by Rule 11:6(b).

(b) Except as otherwise provided under these Rules, records of all work groups, conferences, advisory committees, and commissions established or chaired by the Chief Justice or the Executive Secretary are not publicly accessible absent a contrary determination by the Chief Justice.

(c) The Chief Justice may authorize the public release of any final report or recommendations submitted to the Supreme Court by any work group, conference, advisory committee, commission, or judicial policy-making body described in subsections (a) and (b) of this Rule 11:6.

Rule 11:7. Reconsideration of Denial of Public Access to Records of the Office of the Executive Secretary.

(a) A request for reconsideration of a decision denying public access to a record maintained by the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia may be made to the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia. Such request must be made in the form of a detailed letter, within 30 days from the date of the letter denying access. Failure to submit a request for reconsideration on or before the 30-day deadline will result in denial of the request for reconsideration.

(b) If the Executive Secretary sustains the decision denying public access, a request for reconsideration may be made to the Chief Justice for three Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia to review the matter. The request must be made in the form of a letter to the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia, within 10 days from the date of the Executive Secretary's letter denying access. Failure to submit a request for reconsideration on or before the 10-day deadline will result in denial of the request for reconsideration.

Rule 11:8. Reconsideration of Denial of Public Access to Records of Judicial Officers or Other Entities of the Virginia Judiciary.

A request for reconsideration of a decision denying public access to a record of a judicial officer or other entities of the Virginia Judiciary may be made to the Chief Justice for three Justices of the Supreme Court of Virginia to review the matter. Such request must be made in the form of a letter to the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Virginia, within 30 days from the date of the letter
