Court Policy for Payment of Fines and Cost

Full payment of court cost and fine are due at the time of trial. If the defendant is unable to make payment within 90 days of sentencing, the defendant may request a time to pay agreement. A one-time fee of $10.00 will be assessed for the agreement. If you owe less than $500.00 you will have one year for full payment. If you owe more than $500.00 an agreement will be made with you for the time frame you request that is reasonable to you and the court. If you have a time to pay agreement and you are making a good faith effort to make payments and at the end of the agreement, you have not paid the fines and cost in full the court will grant you an extension at your request.

If a Judge set's a time frame for fines and cost to be paid, it must be paid by Judge's order. If restitution is ordered, you may complete a time to pay agreement with the court. However, you must pay the restitution within the time frame ordered by the court. If the defendant's sole source of income is derived from Social Security benefits or Supplemental Security Income, you are exempt from payments. If you would like the court to consider community service as payment you may fill out a motion with the court for consideration.
