

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Frank, McClanahan and Senior Judge Willis

BARBARA D. BOYD

v. Record No. 1355-06-2

VIRGINIA EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
NOVEMBER 21, 2006

FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND
T.J. Markow, Judge

(Barbara D. Boyd, pro se, on briefs).

(Robert F. McDonnell, Attorney General; Elizabeth B. Peay, Assistant Attorney General, on brief), for appellee.

Barbara D. Boyd appeals a decision of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond affirming the decision of the Virginia Employment Commission (VEC) finding Boyd disqualified for unemployment compensation because she left work voluntarily without good cause. The circuit court rejected Boyd's argument that the VEC's decision should be reversed because the VEC committed intrinsic fraud by failing to provide Boyd with a fair hearing. We have reviewed the record and the circuit court's decision and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm the circuit court's decision for the reasons set forth in its March 27, 2006 opinion and order. We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.¹

Affirmed.

* Pursuant to Code § 17.1-413, this opinion is not designated for publication.

¹ The VEC's motion to dismiss is denied.
